Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1824.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage." His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fourth day of November next, to Thursday the sixth day of January next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, November 29, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Saturday the 30th day of October last, the body of Frances Smaller, a girl of the age of eight years (who had been missing ever since the 6th day of February last), was found in the false roof of a granary, late in the occupation of Robert Sheppard, merchant, situate in St. John's-row, in the town of Boston, in the county of Lincoln; and that the said Frances Smaller was first violated and afterwards murdered.

And it hath also been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Tuesday the 2d day of November instant, the body of Mary Ann Hattenborough, a girl of the age of eight years (who had been missing for eight days), was found in a pond adjoining Maud Foster's Drain, in Boston aforesaid; and that there is strong reason to believe, that the said Mary Ann Hattenborough was murdered, previously to her being thrown into the said pond;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in each of the above atrocious murders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed either of the said murders) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and THIRTY-FIVE POUNDS, in each of the above mentioned atrocious murders, is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, or either of them. Such rewards to be paid immediately after conviction or convictions, by the Mayor and acting Magistrates of Boston aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 6, 1824.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, ever since the night of Saturday the 20th of November last, Mr. John Lee, of Aukley, near Doncaster, in the county of York, farmer, has been missing, and that there is strong reason to suspect that the said John Lee has been murdered by some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned (if it shall prove to have been committed), is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the wife and brother of the said John Lee, and a further reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is also hereby offered by the Corporation of Doncaster, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Trinity-House, Kingston-upon-Hull, November 27, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Peter Malcolm, late of this town, Master Mariner, is no longer a Pilot of this Corporation, having been discharged for refusing to appear and answer a complaint made against him by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, for gross negligence and misconduct as a Pilot.

By order of the Board,

Wm. Bunney, jun. Secretary.

South London Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a map or plan of certain intended wet docks, warehouses, basins, cuts, and other works, in and near to Saint Saviour's Dock, in the parishes of Saint John, Southwark, and Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey, to be called the South London Docks, has been deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Surrey, situate in North-street, Lambeth; in the same county, which map or plan describes the situation of such intended docks, and the messuages, lands, tenements, and premises, which will be required for the purpose of constructing the same, according to the provisions to be introduced in a Bill to be applied for in the ensuing Session of Parliament, and whereof a notice has been duly given; and notice is hereby further given, that a book of reference, containing a list of the names of the owners or reputed owners and occupiers of such messuages, lands, tenements, and premises respectively, has also been deposited together with the said map or plan at the aforesaid office.—Dated this 3d day of December 1824.

CONTRACT FOR BLACK SILK HANDKERCHIEFS.

Navy-Office, November 22, 1824.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 9th of December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Deptford with Black Silk Handkerchiefs.

A specimen of the handkerchiefs, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract.

J. W. Morton.

General Penitentiary, Millbank,
December 6, 1824.

THE Superintending Committee of this Establishment do hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 18th instant, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders, for the supply of the following articles, for six months, from the 1st of January to the 30th of June 1825, or for twelve months, to the 31st of December 1825, the rate for both of which periods to be stated in the respective tenders, viz.

Butcher Meat, Wheat, Scotch Barley, Peas

(whole and split), Rice, Oatmeal, Salt, Pepper, Sperm and Seal Oil, Soap, Candles, Potash, Starch, Pails, Tubs, Mops, Birch and Hair Brooms, Brushes, Combs, Comb Brushes, Coals, and Charcoal.

Persons desirous of contracting will be furnished with forms of tender, upon applying to Captain Chapman, the Governor. The names of two respectable sureties, for the fulfilment of the proposed contract, must be specified in the tender; and the party who makes the tender, or some person on his behalf, must attend on the day appointed, at twelve o'clock at noon, to answer when called for.

Rob. Auld, Secretary.

THE Creditors of Philip Hart, late of Halesworth, in the County of Suffolk, Cabinet-Maker, who have already executed the Deed of Assignment made by him, bearing date the 22d day of March 1823, to Trustees for the benefit of his Creditors, and lying at the Office of Mr. John Gufande, Attorney at Law, Halesworth, may receive a dividend on the amount of their respective debts; and those persons who have claimed thereunder, on their neglecting to execute the same within twenty-one days from the date hereof, will be excluded from all benefit arising therefrom.—Halesworth, December 7, 1824.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Colony of Berberce, and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. dated the 23d September 1824;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of John Cheyney and J. H. P. Brooker, as Curators to the estate and effects of the late A. D. Cuhe, deceased, and Guardians to his minor children, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors or Claimants against the estate of abovenamed A. D. Cuhe, deceased, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be holden in the month of January 1825, and following Sessions, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against abovenamed estate: Whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appearers according to law.

This first edictal summons published as customary.—Berbice, the 24th September 1824.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guitard, Notary Public, 27, Birch Lane, Cornhill.]

DEMERARY and ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz;

Firstly.—In the month of July 1825, the sugar plantations Bel Air and Blygezight, situated on the East Sea Coast of Demerary, the property of the Honourable A. C. Johnstone.

Secondly.—In the month of August 1825, the sugar plantation Good Success, situated on Wakenaam Island, River Essequibo, the property of the estate of Colin Campbell, deceased.

Thirdly.—In the month of September 1825, the coffee plantation Belfield, situated on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, the property of William Bishop.

The judicium of pre and concurrentia on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice, three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of said plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their respective Sessions, in the following months, viz.

In the month of October 1825, for plantations Bel Air and Blygezight and Good Success, and in the month of December of same year, for plantation Belfield, under a penalty that against the non-appearers will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London; and P. I. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerary and Essequibo, this 27th September 1824.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.
