TEESDALE and SYMES,
Solicitors to the Administrators.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Hicks versus Constable, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in one lot;

A valuable freehold estate, situate near Monk-Street, in the Parish of Thackstead, in the County of Essex, consisting of a close of arable land, divided into two pieces, containing 10 acres, in the occupation of John Knight.

The time of sale will shortly be advertised; when printed particulars may be had (gratis), at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. R. Thomas, Solicitor, Fenchurch-Street; Mr. M'Duff, Solicitor, Castle-Street, Holburn; and at the principal Inns in the neighbourhood of the estate.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery of England, in a Cause Wright against Dagge, and bearing date the 27th day of November 1824, it was ordered, among other things, that it should be referred to Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and ascertain whether Maria Charlotta Beckman and Bengt Fortelius, therein named, or either and which of them died in the lifetime of Sir John Strachan, formerly of Hammersmith, in the County of Middlesex, in England, Baronet, deceased (who died on or about the 16th day of March 1780); and whereas the said Maria Charlotta Beckman was one of the children of Gustaf Beckman, a great grandson of Brita Banks, deceased, the grandmother of the said Sir John Strachan, and the said Bengt Fortelius was the son of the Reverend Johan Fortelius and Beata Juliana, his wife, formerly Beata Juliana Vult, a Legatee named in the will of the said Sir John Strachan; and whereas the said Maria Charlotta Beckman and Bengt Fortelius would, if they were living at the time of the death of the said Sir John Strachan, have been entitled to one-twelfth part each of a legacy given by his will, and in case they have since died their personal representatives are now entitled to receive such two-twelfth parts; now, therefore, the said Maria Charlotta Beckman and Bengt Fortelius if living, or if having survived the said Sir John Strachan, they have since died, their respective legal personal representative, are hereby required, on or before the 1st of March 1825, to bring in their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily to be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause wherein Thomas Orenden and others are plaintiffs, and Mary Orenden and others are defendants, the Creditors of Thomas Orenden, late of Streatham, in the County of Surrey, Gentleman, deceased, (who died on the 5th day of November 1819), are, on or before the 20th day of January 1825, to come in and prove their debts before James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 13th day of August 1824, made in a Cause Eldrid against Whitefoot, the Creditors and Legatees of Henry Briscoe, late of Newton, in the Parish of Croft, in the County of Hereford, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 6th day of May 1820), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts, and claim their legacies, before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Clark against Jaques, the Creditors of William Clark, late of Holborn, in the City of London, Man's-Mercer, deceased (who died on or about the 1st day of February 1823), are, on or before the 29th day of January 1825, to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause intituled Jack v. How, the Creditors of James Boswell, late of Garden-Court, Middle-Temple, in the County of Middlesex, Barrister at Law, deceased (who died in or about the month of March 1822), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before Jefferies Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Fenwick against Robson, the Creditors of Robert Robson, formerly a Farmer residing at Whitley-Hill Heads, in the County of Northumberland, and late of the Star and Garter Inn, in North Shields, in the said County of Northumberland, Victualler, deceased (who died in or about the month of July 1816), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Hampton and Edward Hooper, late of Rhay-Ader, in the County of Radnor, Bankers and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 31st day of December instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Bears Head Inn, in Newtown, in the County of Montgomery, to receive proposals for and consider the propriety of compromising and putting an end to a certain suit now pending in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, between the said Assignees, on behalf of themselves and the other Creditors of the said Bankrupts, plaintiffs, and Richard Hampton, Joseph Hampton, Francis Hooper, and John Morton and Ann his wife, late Ann Hooper, widow, defendants, on such terms, as will be explained at the said meeting, and thereupon to authorise and empower the said Assignees to enter into such arrangement as shall be then and there approved of for that purpose; and also, in case it shall be determined to continue and prosecute the said suit, instead of compromising the same, to assent to or dissent from such reasonable contribution or indemnity being made and given to the said Assignees in respect of the costs, charges, and expences incurred or to be incurred in prosecuting such suit as shall be deemed necessary for that purpose; and also to receive and examine the accounts of the said Assignees, which will be then and there submitted to the public inspection of the said Bankrupts' Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Peter Caygill Lee and William Ballard, of Hammersmith, and of Brentford, in the County of Middlesex, Linen-Drapers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Monday the 27th day of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, book debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, either by public sale or private contract, and in one or more lot or lots as the said Creditors shall judge proper, and to authorise the Assignees to give such time or credit, and to take such securities for the amount of any such sale or sales as they the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full, out of the said Bankrupts' estate, the wages due to the servants and shopmen of the said Bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or other fit person, to investigate and arrange the books and accounts of the said Bankrupts' estate, and to their making such accountant or other person such allowance or compensation for his time, trouble, and services as to the said Assignees shall seem fitting and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the Bankrupts' effects, the costs and charges of preparing a deed of assignment of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, and certain charges incurred in endeavouring to settle the said Bankrupts' affairs without issuing a Commission of Bankrupt, and also the Solicitor's bill of costs for issuing the said Commission, and for the extraordinary business arising under the said Commission, up to the choice of Assignees; also the costs, charges, and expences of, and a remuneration to, the accountant, and to sundry other persons employed by the petitioning Creditors and the Assignees in taking journeys, and in making and taking other active exertions, for the recovery of much valuable property, which had been conveyed away from the Bankrupts' premises; and also to pay certain rewards offered by the said Assignees, for the recovery of other property supposed to be still concealed, and for the apprehension of the Bankrupt Peter Caygill Lee; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees to commence, prosecute, or defend any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery, defence, or protection of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

IN THE HONOURABLE THE COURT OF THE RECORDER OF BOMBAY.
