By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the sixth day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said sixth day of January next, to Thursday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said third day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the eighteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, and in the fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in

"any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Heir at Law of the Reverend JOHN HENRY POWELL, deceased.

Wanted the Heir at Law of the Reverend John Henry Powell, late of Ecclesball, in the County of Stafford, deceased, who died without issue, in 1822; he was the only son of John Powell, who was born about the year 1723, and who, for about twenty years before his death, carried on the business of a Woollen-Draper, or Manchester-Warehouseman, in Bond-Street, London, but a few years before his death retired, and lived in Edgeware-Road, where he died in 1783, aged 60. John Powell is said to have married Alice Whitmore, of Warwickshire, or Leicestershire, for his first wife, previous to 18th February 1757, when his only son, John Henry, was born; she died in Bond-Street, in 1770, aged 50. He was married to his second wife, Mary Withers, in 1773, who is supposed to have lived at or near Manchester, before their marriage, by whom he had no issue; she died at Wrotham, in Kent, where the said John Henry Powell was Curate. John Powell had a small estate at Grinstead, Stamford, and Bobinworth, near Ongar, in Essex. The grandfather of the Reverend John Henry Powell is said to have come from Wales, and to have died in Warwickshire. It is requested that any information respecting the said Heir at Law, may be sent to William Mott, Esq. in the Close, Lichfield, or to Mr. Burgess, Solicitor, No. 40, Curzon-Street, May-Fair, London.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Cause Duffield v. Elwes, before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 15th and Wednesday the 16th days of February 1825, at One o'Clock precisely on each day, in twenty-five lots;

Part of the leasehold estates of George Elwes, Esq. deceased, comprising several capital mansion-houses, in Portman Square, Upper Berkeley-Street, Lower Berkeley-Street, Lower Seymour-Street, Portland-Place, Welbeck-Street, Wimpole-Street, Devonshire-Street, Nottingham Place, Charles-Street, Middlesex-Hospital, Upper Fitzroy-Street, Bolton-Street, Piccadilly, and several coach-houses and stables in Seymour-Mews, Berkeley-Mews, and Weymouth-Mews.

A very extensive plot of ground, fronting the Thames, used as a wharf and timber-yard, with several houses and other buildings thereon, in Narrow-Wall, Lambeth.

Particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. George Law, Solicitor, No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn; and of Messrs. Dewbery and Haslewood, Solicitors, Conduit-Street, Hanover-Square, London.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Moore v. Scott, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and certify what mortgages or other incumbrances there were affecting the real estates late belonging to Ann Scott, Widow, the testatrix in the pleadings of the said Cause named, and to state the priorities of such mortgages and incumbrances.—All persons who have any mortgages or other specific incumbrances affecting the real estates of the said testatrix, and which estates are situate at Glington with Peakirk, and other places, in the County of Northampton, are, on or before the 24th day of January 1825, to come in and prove the same before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jones against Mackilwain, it was, amongst other things, referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who, at the decease of Ezekiel Mackilwain, late of Lymington, in the County of Hants, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 21st of June 1803), was or were his heir or co-heirs at law and next of kin, and whether such heir or co-heirs at law and next of kin, or any or either, and which of them, are or is living or dead, and if dead when did he, she, or they respectively die, and who are or is the personal representatives or representative of such deceased heir or co-heirs at law and next of kin, and who are or is now the heir or co-heirs at law of the said Ezekiel Mackilwain.—Any person or persons claiming to be such heir or co-heirs and next of kin, or personal representatives or representative of such next of kin so dying, are, on or before the 24th day of January 1825, to come in and make out their descent, prove their kindred, and make out their claims, before the said Master Courtsay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 19th day of November 1824, made in a Cause Gale against Purvis, the Creditors of Peregrine Hogg, formerly of Hackney, in the County of Middlesex, but late of Chigwell, in the County of Essex, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 27th day of April 1824), are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of January 1825, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Brown against Temperley, the Creditors of Nicholas Temperley, late of Gloucester-Street, Commercial-Road, in the County of Middlesex, also of Wanstead, in the County of Essex, and also of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, who formerly carried on the business of a Grocer at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, (and afterwards died there on or about the 26th day of August 1823), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in a Cause Downes against Timperon, the Creditors of George Kinghorn, late of the Parish of Kingston, in the County of Surrey, in the Island of Jamaica, in the West Indies, Merchant, deceased (who died in or about the month of September 1823), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Parks against Winthrop, the Creditors of William Cooke, late of Half-Moon-Street, Piccadilly, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 3d day of April 1824), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Price against Trimperon, the Creditors of Joseph Teasdale, late of Holles-Street, Cavendish-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of February 1820), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of January 1825, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WILLIAM STUCKEY'S BANKRUPTCY.

Notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy some time since awarded and issued against William Stuckey, now or late of Swaffham, in the County of Norfolk, Money-Scrivener, will be held on Friday the 21st day of January next, at the Duke's Head Inn, in King's-Lynn, in the said County, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of authorising the Assignees under the said Commission to make an agreement with Elizabeth, the wife of the said Bankrupt, formerly Elizabeth Emerson, Spinster, for the division of certain trust-money arising from the sale of one third part of the sum of £478 1s. 7d. Stock in the Three per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, which stock was vested in certain Trustees, previously to the marriage of the said Bankrupt with his said wife, in trust, as to one third part thereof, for the said Elizabeth, the wife of the said William Stuckey, then Elizabeth Emerson, Spinster, and which one third part, with the accruing interest thereof, the said Assignees now claim for the general benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, subject to the equitable right and interest of the said Bankrupt's wife therein.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Banks and William Garrod, of Beccles, in the County of Suffolk, Linen and Woollen-Drapers, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 30th day of December instant, at Twelve at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by public or private contract, as they shall think fit, all or any part of the joint or separate estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, for such sum or sums of money, or upon such security or securities as the said Assignees shall think proper, and to authorise the said Assignees accordingly; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, by public auction or private contract, the lease of the said Bankrupts' premises, at Beccles, and their term and interest therein, as also of any other estate, real or personal, belonging to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in expectancy, reversion, or remainder; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the salaries and wages of the servants of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in full; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or such other person or persons as they shall think fit, for the purpose of investigating the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupts, and for collecting and getting in the outstanding debts due to the estate of them, or either of them, and to their making to any such accountant, or other person or persons already employed on account of the said estate such remuneration as the said Assignees may deem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment, by the said Assignees, of the expence of preparing and executing several powers of attorney given by Creditors of the said Bankrupts, residing in London, and elsewhere (whose names will be mentioned at such meeting), to enable their nominee to vote for them in the choice of Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceedings, for the recovery or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or the estate and effects of either of them; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adopting such measures as they may think expedient for apprehending and committing the said John Banks, who it is suspected hath quitted the kingdom; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Lewin, of Mansell-Street, Goodmansfields, in the County of Middlesex, Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 30th day of December instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the lease and fixtures of the Bankrupt's house, in Mansell-Street aforesaid, by private contract; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Timothy Smith, late of Heaton-Norris in the County of Lancaster, and James Yates, of New-Mills, in the County of Derby, Brass and Iron-Founders, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners (carrying on business at Heaton-Norris aforesaid, under the name or firm of Timothy Smith and Company), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 15th day of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Bridgewater-Arms Inn, in Manchester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the trade and business of the said Bankrupts until such time as they can sell and dispose of the stock in trade, fixtures, and other effects belonging to the said Bankrupts' estate, in manner as is hereinafter mentioned, and for that purpose to employ any agent, workmen, or servants; at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupts' stock in trade, fixtures, utensils, household furniture, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, either by public auction or private contract, and either in one lot or in parcels, to any person or persons whomsoever, at such price or prices, and upon such terms and conditions, and either for ready money or for payment on a future day; and upon such security or securities as such Assignees shall think proper and advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovering or protecting any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate in such manner as they may deem most advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Cobb Hurry, of Mining-Lane, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 3d day of January next, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees settling the accounts and claims of the late Master of the ship Berwick, in respect of his late voyage and the actions brought against him abroad, upon the principle of making him the same allowances (with certain exceptions to be stated at the meeting) as the said William Cobb Hurry, if he had continued the solvent owner of the ship would have been liable to make, and submitting to arbitration the said accounts and claims (with the aforesaid exceptions) upon that principle, and paying out of the proceeds of the sale of the said ship any balance which may be awarded to the said Master, and allowing the said Master to retain the proceeds of sale of certain deals taken out in the said ship to New South Wales, towards the damages and costs which he has paid in an action against him for the cost price of the said deals in England, without paying any freight for the said deals, the said deals having been sold at Sidney, for a less sum than the freight thereof; and on other special affairs.
