

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority

From Thursday March 22 to Saturday March 26. 1683.

Copenhagen, March 13.

1031

IT is reported here That a new Alliance is concluded between this Crown and the French King, by which it's said his Most Christian Majesty is obliged to pay the King of Denmark 800 thousand Crowns yearly, and 100 thousand at present, and that in consideration thereof the King of Denmark is to have on Foot an Army of 24000 Men, and a Fleet of 30 Ships at Sea this Summer; and that in case the States of the United Provinces shall send a Fleet into the Baltick, to joyn the Swedes, his Most Christian Majesty is to send 20 Ships to assist the Danes, or to furnish Money to fit out such a number of Ships here. The King of Denmark has resolved to part from hence, the Week after Easter, and to go and pass most of the Summer at Gluckstadt, whither he has commanded all his General Officers to follow him.

Vienna, March 14. Two days since arrived here an Express with Letters from Count Wallastain, the Emperor's Ambassador at Warsaw, wherein, as we are informed, he gives his Imperial Majesty an account of several Conferences he has had with the Ministers of that Court, and of the good Success of them, and that the Dyet has resolved to raise a Body of Men, which if there be occasion, are to assist his Imperial Majesty against the Turks. On Friday last an Order of the Emperor was Published here, by which every House in the Country, within the distance therein expressed, is to send a Man to Work for two Months on the Fortifications of this City. We are told, That 200000 Crowns are remitted hither from Rome, to be employed in the Preparations for the approaching Campaign. By an Express arrived from the Island Schutz, we have advice, That 2000 Turks, half whereof were Janizaries, having Marched from Newbeusel with a design to fall into the Island Schutz, they passed the Danube by the help of a Ponton, the eighth Instant about two in the Morning; That the Janizaries had Posted themselves near that River to secure the retreat of the rest, who Marched on, and Plundered and Burnt a Village called Aronyost, and took about 100 Prisoners, greatest part of them being Women and Children, and near 300 Head of Cattel. In the mean time the Imperialists that were Quartered at Gutta, in the said Island, took the Alarm, and thereupon Colonel Castelli immediately marched out with 120 Dragoons, and having joyned 180 Horse of Merci's Regiment, and a Party of Heydukes and Hussars, which happened to be abroad, followed after the Enemy, who he heard were gone from Aronyost to Wiswar, where the Imperialists came upon them, being Incumbred with their Booty: The Turks put themselves into the best posture they could, to receive them, but did not stand very long, for as yet the first Charge they made made them to retreat towards the Danube: the Imperialists followed them close, and killed and took Prisoners many of those that were left in the Rear, but being come to the Danube, the Janizaries, that had stayed there, very seasonably relieved their Companions, and charging the Heydukes and Hussars, killed several of them, and made them give way in some disorder; but these rallying again together with the Horse and the Dragoons, return'd upon the Enemy, and forced them to repass the River in much Confusion, leaving behind them, not only the Prisoners and the Cattel they had taken at Aronyost, but between 30 and 40 of their own Men, (besides the Sain) who fell into the hands of the Imperialists, among which are, as is said, the Son of the Bassa, and some other considerable Men among the Turks, who offer very great Ransoms for their Liberty; The Imperialists took likewise a great many Horses, and very rich Furniture; they had on their side 13 Men killed, and 30 wounded. We have advice from Hungary, That the Mufti was arriv'd at Adriangople, upon the Orders he had received to follow the Grand-Signior into the Field. The Truce between the Imperialists and Count Teckelej is hitherto observed.

Vienna, March 15. The 10th Instant arriv'd here an Express from Warsaw, who it's said brought an account that Count Wallastain, the Emperor's Ambassador there, had concluded a Defensive Alliance between His Imperial Majesty and the Crown of Poland: We are told, That by this Treaty the Emperor is to pay presently 300 thousand Gilders to the King of Poland, and that that King is to have an Army of 30000 Men in the Field, in the Month of May, to assist the Emperor against the Turks; and besides this, that the Chevalier de Lubomirski has leave to raise 4000 Polish Horse for the Emperors Service. The Emperor has received Letters from the Baron de Saponara, whom his Imperial Majesty sent lately to Count Teckelej, wherein, as we are informed, he gives an account of his arrival at Caschau, and that Count Teckelej had assured him, That he would punctually observe the Truce, and that he had permitted Provisions to be carried to Zatmar, and other places in which are Imperial Garrison, in Upper Hungary. The Bassa of Newbeusel is greatly enraged at the ill Success of the late Invasion into the Island Schutz, and has sent a Letter to Colonel Castelli, threatening a Revenge; The said Colonel arriv'd here this day, bringing with him the Son of the under-Bassa of Newbeusel, a Youth of twenty Years, who was taken Prisoner, and the Head of another considerable Turkey, who offered 4000 Crowns for his Life, but was notwithstanding killed by the Hussars in their Fury; The Son of the Bassa of Newbeusel had his Horse killed under him, and escaped himself very narrowly. Besides this account in the Island Schutz, Schutz, we have Letters from Hungary which inform us, That a Party of Hussars meeting with 1000 Turks, and finding themselves too weak to encounter with them, had pretended themselves Hungarians of Count Terkeley's Troops, and so passed, but joyning soon after with a Party of German Horie, which was likewise abroad, they Marched after the Turks, overtook them, and charged them so furiously, that few of them escaped.

Cologne, March 26. New Orders are come from the Emperor, commanding the Burghers of this City to desist from their Irregular and Tumultuary Proceedings, and to yield that Obedience and Respect that becomes them to their Magistrates, leaving the matters in difference between them to his Imperial Majesties Determination.

Hamburg, March 26. Our Letters from Copenhagen of the 16th and 20th Instant, tell us, That the Preparations that are making there, as well by Land as Water, are carried on with great diligence and application, and that the King of Denmark will put from Copenhagen, presently after Easter, for Gluckstadt, where it is said he intends to pass most of the Summer: And from Gluckstadt they write, That they are adding to that place several new Fortifications, on which they work with great diligence, and that the Danes have furnished Hittler Seans, which lies very near the Elbe, with ten Pieces of bigger Cannon than they had there before. Some days agoe passed through this City Monsieur Bierman, whom the King of Denmark sends to the Dukes of Lunenbourg, and having performed his Commission to them, he is to go to Berlin. The Emperor has forbid any Levies of Seamen or others to be made here for the Service of the King of Denmark.

Brussels, March 26. Here is arrived the Count de Taaff from Vienna; the Marquis de Granat received him very kindly, and has Lodged him in the Palace. The persons that took the Farm of the Customs, not being able to comply with their Contract, his Excellency has now let it to the Sieur Aersens, and the Sieur de Walla, of Bruges, these are only named in the Grant, though it is said that the Sieur Kronsbeck is the principal Undertaker; they are to enter upon their Farm the first of April, and are to pay 1300 thousand Florins yearly. His Excellency intends very suddenly for Flanders, and because he purposes to stay some time at Gaunt, he has ordered the Kings House there to be prepared for him. We are very quiet in these parts, and do not hear of the motion of any Troops near our frontiers. The Letters which arrived yesterday from Vienna give us an account, That 400 Imperial Horse and Dragoons, with a few Hussars and Heydukes, had not only made head against 1000 Turks, which entered on the eighth Instant into the Island Schutz, but had forced them to retire in great disorder, leaving near two hundred of their Companions Slain, and about Forty Prisoners, behind them.

Hague, March 30. Most of the Members of the States of Holland, who went home upon their late Adjournment, are come back this day, and to morrow they will be again assembled; and the Prince of Orange is expected here on Thursday next from Dieren. The Deputies of the Admiralties have had several Conferences with the Deputies of the State, concerning Sea Affairs. It is said, That this State will have a Squadron of 13 or 18 Men of War at Sea this Summer, and that Lieutenant-Admiral Van Tromp will command it. From Poland we have advyce; That an Alliance of mutual Defence between the Emperor and that Crown is Concluded.

Newmarket, March 23. Last Night between Nine and Ten a Clock, a fire happened here, which began in a Stable-Yard, and burnt so violently, the Wind being high, that in few Hours above half the Town was laid in Ashes. Their Majesties removed to the Earl of Suffolk's House, and their Royal Highnesses to the Earl of Rochester's, which were at some distance from the fire, where they lay last night, but His Majesties House having received no damage, they returned thither again this Morning. His Majesty continues, Thanks be to God, in very good Health, and intends to return with the whole Court to Whitehall on Monday next.

His Majesty hath been pleased to Grant, by His late new Charter, to the City of Hereford, as a Mark of His Favour, an Annual Fair ever and above what they had before, to be held Yearly for ever, on every Wednesday in East-er Week, and to continue for three days together: At which Fair all manner of Goods, Cattel, Horses, Provisions, and all things usually there sold, with all accustomed Priviledges, will be had and allowed, as at former Fairs.

Advertisements.

ON Monday the 30th of April next, will be exposed to Sale the famous Library of the Right Reverend Father in God Brian Walton, D. D. late Lord Bishop of Chelsea, being a Collection of excellent Printed Books, and Manuscripts. The Catalogues will be distributed Gratis at Sam. Carr's, at the King's-head in St. Paul's Church-yard.

LOst on the 24th Instant, between nine and eleven a Clock, upon the Road between Hackney and London, or in Hackney-Town, a Gold Pendulum Watch, in a Gold Fillet-green Case, with a plain Shagreen Case over it, the Name Charles Gretton, London, with a round Pendulum Spring, a Steel Chain, and Tulip Pillars, the Dial-Plate straight, and a small long hand to shew the Hour. Whoever gives Notice of it to Mr. Charles Gretton, Watch-maker in Fleet-street, shall have two Guineas Reward.

STolen or strayed on the 21 Instant at Night, out of the Grounds of Mr. William Yate, of Graveyard in Kent, a brown bay drawing Gelding, with all his Paces, thickish Headed and Neck, deep Breasted, with a long sig Tail, Pin-Buttock or narrow, about ten years old, and 15 hands high. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Joseph Randal, at the Angel in St. Laurence-Lane, London, or to Mr. Yate aforesaid, so that he be restred, shall have 20 s. Reward.

WILLIAM Williams, is or is Statured, short thin lank Hair, a sad-coloured Suit, a Scar in one side of his Face, a black Velvet Cap, and a pair of Jockey-Boots, Rode away with a sandy grey Gelding, 14 hands high, or better, with his Main half shorn, his near Eye blind, a bob Tail, a black Leather Saddle, stitich with green, and Chambered for his Back, new Stirrop-Leathers, old Stirrop-Irons, and a Tanned Leather Saddle Bridle. Whoever gives notice of him to Richard Johncock, at the sign of the Horse-shoe in Edge-Lane, near Leicester-Fields, shall have ten shillings Reward, and their Charges.

LOst on the 23 Instant, from my Lord Kildares in the Pall Mall, a little Greyhound Dog, of a Mouse colour, a white List about the Neck, his Feet all white, and a white Tip on his Tail. Whoever gives notice of this Dog to my Lord Kildares Steward, at his Lordships House aforesaid, shall be very well Rewarded.