TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1825.

Whitehall, January 30, 1825.

THE King has been pleased to appoint John Earl of Hopetoun to be His Majesty's Lieutenant and Sheriff Principal of the shire of Linlithgow, in the room of the Earl of Hopetoun, deceased.

Whitehall, January 30, 1825.

The King has been pleased to appoint Sir Charles Montolieu Lamb, Bart. to the office of Knight Marshal of the Household and of the Marshalsea of the Household of His Majesty, and of His Majesty's heirs and successors, in the room of Sir James Bland Lamb, Bart. deceased.

Crown-Office, February 1, 1825.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Cornwall.

Sir Richard Rawlinson Vyvyan, of Trelowarren, in the said county, Bart. in the room of Sir William Lemon, Bart. deceased.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Lincoln.

Benjamin Handley, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 28th January 1825.

Commissions in the Corps of Surrey Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey.

Gilbert East Jolliffe, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 24th January 1825.

Henry Hope, Gent. to be ditto. Dated 25th January 1825.

George Reid, Gent. to be ditto. Dated 26th January 1825.

Whitehall, January 31, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John March Hodding, of the city of New Sarum, in the county of Wilts, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 24, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Saturday the 8th of January instant, the body of Esther Carter, of Kiplin, in the north riding of the county of York, was found strangled in a field in the occupation of her father, John Tryer, of Kiplin aforesaid;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murder abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the actual perpetrator) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Association for the Prosecution of Felons, at Scorton, in the north riding of the county of York aforesaid.

Navy-Office, January 27, 1825.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea

Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December 1824, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 7th, 8th, and 9th of February, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 10th, 11th, 14th, 15th, and 16th of February, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 17th and 18th of February, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of December last, will commence paying on the 7th February; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Admiralty-Office, December 30, 1824.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas, within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Wednesday the 2d day of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden-Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the making, constructing, and maintaining certain rail-way or tram-roads, to commence in the Isle of Dogs at the East India Dock and West India Dock, and at Stratford in Essex, to, in, and through the several parishes of All Saints Poplar, St. Ann Limehouse, St. Paul Shadwell, St. Dunstan Stepney, St. John Wapping, St. George in the East, St. Mary Matfellow Whitechapel, St. Botolph Aldgate, St. Catherine by the Tower, St. Botolph Bishopsgate, Christ Church Spitalfields, St. Leonard Shoreditch, St. John Hackney, St. Luke's Old-street, St. Giles Cripplegate, St. Mary Stratford-le-bow, St. Mary Islington, St. James Clerkenwell, St. Pancras, and St. Mary-le-bone; and it is proposed in such Bill to regulate the tolls and dues payable in respect of such rail-roads respectively.—Dated this 25th day of January 1825.

Overton and Coombe, Solicitors, No. 2, Tokenhouse-yard.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty, and President in all Courts, dated the 19th November 1824;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of Colin Douglas, as Executor to the last will and testament of George Munro, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown Creditors or Claimants against the estate of abovenamed George Munro, late of this Colony, deceased, to appear at the bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be held in the month of April 1825, and following Sessions, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against afore-named estate.

Whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non appearers according to law.

This first edictal summons, published as customary.—Berbice, the 8th December 1824.

K. FRANKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. Guitard, Notary Public, 27, Bichin-Lane, Cornhill.]

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause in which John Dines is plaintiff, and William Champion and others are defendants, with the approbation of James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

A freehold farm, situate in the Parish of Althorn, in the County of Essex, comprising a very comfortable residence, called Althorn-Hall, with every requisite agricultural building, and 74 acres of very fertile, arable, and pasture land, in a very high state of cultivation; also the great tythes arising from upwards of 1800 acres of superior arable and pasture land, part of the said Parish of Althorn, of the estimated value of 340l. per annum, part of the freehold estate of John Rivett, the testator in the said Cause named.

This property is situated four miles from Burnham, six from the market-town of Malden, 18 from Chelmsford, and 42 from London.

The time and place of sale will shortly be published; and printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; and of Mr. Davidson, Solicitor, Southampton-Street, Bloomsbury Square, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in Cause Wilson against Metcalfe, and two other Causes, with the approbation of John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

A freehold estate, tythe free, late of Elizabeth Newlove, deceased, situate at Weaverthorpe, in the East-Riding of the County of York, comprising a dwelling-house, and about 128 acres of land, in the occupation of Thomas Clarkson and John and Mary Ness.

Particulars are preparing, and may shortly be had (gratis), at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, London; and of Messrs. Robinson and Son, Solicitors, Essex-Street, Strand; Mr. Thomas Paul, Attorney at Law, in Stokesley, where a plan of the estate may be seen; at the Sledmore Inn, and at the Talbot Inn, in Mew-Malton; and the principal Inns, in the adjacent Towns.

Whereas Alexander Macdonald, late Major in His Majesty's 2d West India Regiment, by his will, dated in May 1823 (among other things) gave the interest of certain property therein devised to Alexander Macdonald, of the Island of Barra, in North Britain, Gentleman, for his life; and after his decease he gave the residue of his property unto Alexander, the legitimate son of the said Alexander Macdonald, Alexander, the natural son of the said Alexander Macdonald, then living at the said Island of Barra, and Margaret, the daughter of the said Alexander Macdonald:—And whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, dated 28th of May 1824, made in a Cause wherein James Macdonald the elder, Alexander Macdonald, and Margaret Macdonald, spinster, and James Macdonald the younger, are plaintiffs, and Alexander Fraser, Esquire, and Sir Courts Trotter, Baronet, are defendants, it is referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether the plaintiffs are the persons intended by Alexander Macdonald, by the description in his will, of Alexander Macdonald, of the Island of Barra, in North Britain, Gentleman, Alexander, the legitimate son of the said Alexander Macdonald, Alexander, the natural son of the said Alexander Macdonald, now living at the Island of Barra aforesaid, and Margaret, the daughter of the said Alexander Macdonald.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be entitled under the description contained in the bequest made by the will of the said Alexander Macdonald, deceased, are requested, by their Solicitors, on or before the 22d day of February 1825, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their claim, to be entitled under the bequest in the will of the said Alexander Macdonald, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Nancolas against Nancolas, the Creditors of Anthony Nancolas, late of Saint Austell, in the County of Cornwall, Shopkeeper, deceased (who died in or about the month of November 1823), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Ireland against Kent, the Creditors and Legatees of Martha Sparrow, late of Little-Baling, in the County of Middlesex, Spinster (who died in the year 1783), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts, and claim their legacies before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in order that they may not be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Parks against Withrop, the Creditors of William Cooke, late of Hall-Moon-Street, Piccadilly, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 3d day of April 1824), are, on or before the 28th day of February 1825, to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Downes against Timperon, the Creditors of George Kinghorn, late of the Parish of Kingstou, in the County of Surrey, in the Island of Jamaica, in the West Indies, Merchant, deceased (who died in or about the month of September 1823), are, on or before the 30th of April 1825, to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in Causes Cockerell against Wilson, Wilson against Noble, and Baring against Noble, all persons who were and now are Creditors of the firm or partnership of William Devaynes, Joan Dawes, William Noble, Richard Henry Croft, and Richard Barwick, late of Pall-Mall, Bankers, at the time of the death of the said William Devaynes, on the 29th of November 1809 (who have not proved their debts under the Decree made in Devaynes against Noble and Baring against Noble, dated the 2d of March 1812), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the Decrees of the 2d of March 1812, 29th of June 1813, and 27th of July 1814, and from any claim which they may have against the assets of the said Partnership, or the Separate Estate of the said William Devaynes.
