Whitehall, February 8, 1825.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the evening of Saturday the 8th of last month, an outrageous assault was committed at Hougham-Court, near Dover, upon the person of Isaac Baker, a seaman belonging to His Majesty's ship Ramilles, while employed in his duty on the cliff there, in the prevention of smuggling, by a gang of smugglers, who after violently beating him with bludgeons left him in a state of insensibility in which he was found and has ever since continued, so that no information can be obtained from him on the subject;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the offenders concerned in the commission of this outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of them present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except those who actually assaulted and beat the said Isaac Baker), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid) the same, to be paid on the conviction of the
