AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage." His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Hatton, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 8, 1825.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the evening of Saturday the 8th of last month, an outrageous assault was committed at Hougham-Court, near Dover, upon the person of Isaac Baker, a seaman belonging to His Majesty's ship Ramillies, while employed in his duty on the cliff there, in the prevention of smuggling, by a gang of smugglers, who after violently beating him with bludgeons left him in a state of insensibility in which he was found and has ever since continued, so that no information can be obtained from him on the subject;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the offenders concerned in the commission of this outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of them present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except those who actually assaulted and beat the said Isaac Baker), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid) the same, to be paid on the conviction of the offenders or any of them, by the Solicitor of the Admiralty, Charles Bicknell, Esq. of Spring-Garden-Terrace, London. J. W. CROKER.
