

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1825.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of February 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Thomas Williams, of Rushden-Hall, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Northampton, in the room of Sir Robert Henry Gunning, of Horton, Baronet.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in "Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Butler.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of
October 1824;

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of
October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of August 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the tenth of March, last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), will expire on the nineteenth day of September next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the nineteenth of September next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

IF any debts of Lieutenant John Selwyn, of the 30th, or Cambridgeshire, Regiment of Foot (who died on the 26th December 1810, at Trichinopoly, Madras, in the East Indies), remain undischarged, the persons to whom the same may be due are desired to transmit an account thereof, without delay, to his Administrator, Charles Payne, Esq. Clifton, near Bristol (post paid).

N. B. The legal personal representatives of the Widow of the above-named John Selwyn may bear of something to their advantage, on applying as above, but no notice will be taken of any letters unless post paid.

CHARLES PAYNE, Administrator.

DEMERARY and ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.;

Firstly.—In the month of May 1825, the coffee plantations Westfield, situated on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, the property of the estate of William Brereton, deceased.

Secondly.—In the month of December of same year, the sugar plantations Aberdeen, situated on the West Coast of Essequibo, the property of Ralph Cook; Domburg, situated on Wakenaam Island, River Essequibo, the property of Duncan Buchanan; and Hygea, situated on Troolie Island, Essequibo, the property of William Burgess; also the coffee plantation Jacoba Constantia, situated in Canal No. 1, West Bank of the River Demerary, the property of the estate of Mrs. Page, deceased; and four sixths and one-half sixth of the cotton plantation Voorzigtigheid, situated in the Mahacca Creek, the property of D. S. Vans Gravesande.

The judicium of præ et concurrentie on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice, three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of said plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, in the following months, viz.

In the month of August 1825, for plantation Westfield, and in the month of December of same year, for plantations Aberdeen, Domburg, Hygea, Jacoba Constantia, and four-sixths and one-half sixth of plantation Voorzigtigheid, under a penalty that against the non-appearers will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London; and P. I. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerary and Essequibo, this 15th December 1824.
