

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1825.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about the hour of six in the evening of Monday the 1st of November last, a barn (filled at one end with barley in the straw), situate in Framlingham, in the county of Suffolk, belonging to the charity estate of Sir Robert Hitcham, Kt. and in the occupation of Mr. Jasper Peirson (called Lawns Barn), was maliciously set on fire by some person or persons unknown, and together with a stable adjoining, and a stock of barley, a straw stack and other property, belonging to the said Jasper Peirson, totally consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

FIFTY POUNDS, by the Trustees of the said Charity Estate;

TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS, by the said Jasper Pierson;

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, by the principal inhabitants, owners, and occupiers, in Framlingham;

FIFTY POUNDS, by the Suffolk Association for the preservation of property from malicious destruction by fire, and for the detection and punishment of all persons engaged in such atrocious acts, established at Stowmarket 20th April 1822; and

TWENTY POUNDS, by the Framlingham Association for prosecuting persons guilty of felony; such rewards to be respectively paid on conviction, upon application to Messrs. Clubbe, Solicitors, Framlingham: and DEMERARY and ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.;

Firstly.—In the month of May 1825, the coffee plantations Westfield, situated on the Arabian Coast of Essequibo, the property of the estate of William Brereton, deceased.

Secondly.—In the month of December of same year, the sugar plantations Aberdeen, situated on the West Coast of Essequibo, the property of Ralph Cook; Domburg, situated on Wakenaam Island, River Essequibo, the property of Duncan Buchanan; and Hygea, situated on Troolie Island, Essequibo, the property of William Burgess; also the coffee plantation Jacoba Constantia, situated in Canal No. 1, West Bank of the River Demerary, the property of the estate of Mrs. Page, deceased; and four sixths and one-half sixth of the cotton plantation Voorzigtigheid, situated in the Mahaeca Creek, the property of D. S. Vans Gravesande.

The judicium of præ. et concurrentiæ on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice, three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of said plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, in the following months, viz.

In the month of August 1825, for plantation Westfield, and in the month of December of same year, for plantations Aberdeen, Domburg, Hygea, Jacoba Constantia, and four-sixths and one-half sixth of plantation Voorzigtigheid, under a penalty that against the non-appearers will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London; and P. I. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerary and Essequibo, this 15th December 1824.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Lloyd against Jones and others, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Black Lion Inn, in Mould, in the County of Flint, on Friday the 8th and Saturday the 9th days of April 1825, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of each day;

Certain freehold estates, situate in the Parishes of Flint, Holywell, Mold, Hawarden and Northop, in the County of Flint, part of the freehold estates of Edward Jones, late of Wepie-Hall, in the County of Flint, Esquire, deceased.

Printed particulars may shortly be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Mr. Roberts, Solicitor, Mold; of Messrs. Poits and Johnson, Solicitors, Chester; of Messrs. Philpot and Stone, 3, Southampton-Street, Bloomsbury; and of Mr. Lewin, Six Clerks' Office, Chancery-Lane.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Cobham v. Bush, the Creditors of John Cobham, late of the City of Bristol, Esq. (who died on the 26th day of October 1811), are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 8th day of April 1825, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Long, of Little Saint Andrew-Street, Seven-Dials, in the County of Middlesex, Oil and Colour-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 28th of February instant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of certain leasehold dwelling-houses of the said Bankrupt, situate at Chiswick, subject to an alleged mortgage thereon, to any person or persons whomsoever, in such lots or parcels as the said Assignee shall think fit, either by public sale or private contract, for ready money, upon credit, or upon such securities as the said Assignee shall think most advisable, and subject to the charges or incumbrances thereon, or to the said Assignee abandoning all right and interest therein, or any part thereof, if he shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the lease of the Bankrupt's dwelling house and shop, in Little Saint Andrew Street aforesaid, or compounding, paying in full, or otherwise agreeing with the landlord thereof, for the amount of rent now due as well for the said dwelling-houses at Chiswick, as also for the said dwelling-house and shop in Little Saint Andrew-Street aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee's selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture, goods, fixtures, chattels, and effects, either by auction or private contract, or by appraisalment and valuation, and together or in parcels, and for ready money or upon credit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying in full, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, all or any part of the poor's rate, or any other taxes due or owing for any house or houses of the said Bankrupt; and the wages due to all or any of the clerks and servants of the said Bankrupt, at the time of the Bankruptcy, or since; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee adjusting, settling, or compounding any debt or debts, sum or sums of money due or owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, or submitting to arbitration any question, difference, matter, or dispute concerning the same; or to the said Assignee compounding, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee appointing an accountant or any other person to make out the accounts and get in the outstanding debts due to the estate of the said Bankrupt, and making a reasonable allowance in respect thereof; and upon other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Daniel Alder, of Lawrence-Pountney-Lane, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 2d day of March next, at Twelve at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to receive the opinions of Counsel as to certain funded property and interests of the Bankrupt in other property and estates, under the will of his mother, and otherwise considered as vested in the Assignees; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the Bankrupt's reversionary life interest in any such property and estates; and commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of such parts thereof as the Assignees are advised they are entitled to.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Nickels, of No. 27, Hunter-Street, Brunswick-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Upholsterer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 28th of February instant, at Twelve at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Prothero, late of the Parish of Bedwelty, in the County of Monmouth, Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 2d day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. B. and T. Gabb, Solicitors, in the Town of Abergavenny, in the County aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from a contract entered into by the said Assignees for the sale to a person, to be then and there named, of the Bankrupt's interest in the freehold messuages, lands, and other hereditaments belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, situate in the County of Carmarthen; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Plaskett, of Dockhead, Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Slave-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 24th of February instant, at Twelve at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of considering the interest of the Bankrupt in two agreements for leases of ground and houses, in Lock's Fields, in the Parish of Newington, Surrey; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling the same for the sum of £700, and to their receiving part thereof on the sale, and taking several acceptances of the purchaser (who will be named), for the residue of the purchase-money, at different periods, and to their accepting his guarantee and indemnity against any demand, claim, action or suit, and costs, to be made or instituted against, or incurred by, the said Assignees in consequence of such sale, or their intermeddling with the above-mentioned interest of the Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Dawes, now or late of Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Orange-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 26th day of February instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting an offer which has been made to them for the purchase of the lease of the Bankrupt's late dwelling-house and shop, No. 143, Oxford-Street aforesaid, the good-will of his business, and his stock in trade, household furniture, and fixtures, and all other the goods and effects particularized in the inventory taken under the said Commission, as and from the time when the said inventory was so taken; and in case it shall be deemed advisable not to accept the said offer, then to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, at their discretion, of the before-mentioned lease, good-will, stock in trade, effects, and premises, either by public auction or private sale, in one or more lot or lots, for ready money or upon credit, or such security as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Savage, of Fetter-Lane, in the City of London, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 25th day of February instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying off, compounding, or otherwise arranging with the mortgagee or mortgagees of the lease of the said Bankrupt's house, in Fetter-Lane, or with any person or persons having an equitable lien on any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to the said Assignees selling and disposing of the lease and good-will of the trade of the said Bankrupt's house, in Fetter-Lane aforesaid, or either of them, and of the stock in trade, household furniture, and other effects, or any part thereof, belonging to the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, as the said Assignee shall think most advisable for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also as to the said Assignee employing an accountant, or some other fit person or persons, to collect and get in the debts and other effects due, owing, or belonging to the said estate, and to the allowing the said accountant, or some other person or persons, a fair remuneration for his or their trouble in collecting the same; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special matters.
