

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1825.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the inhabitants of Bremen, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, January 6, 1825.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Smith, of the Bower, in the parish of Hom Lacy, in the county of Hereford, Gent. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and henceforth use the surname of Edwards, in addition to and after the surname of Smith, and that he and they may also quarter the arms of Edwards with those of Smith, as well in compliance with the desire and request expressed in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, John Edwards, late of Tarrington, in the said county of Hereford, Gent. deceased (bearing date the 7th day of May 1821), as out of grateful and affectionate respect for his memory; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has also been pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 7, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Wilton Woodward, of Pershore, in the county of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Henry Hirst, jun. of Northallerton, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

John Knight, Assistant Secretary.

N. B. By an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, no person will be entitled to vote at the said election who shall not have been six calendar months possessed in his own right of the stock for which he shall then give his vote, unless the said stock shall have been acquired, or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by the custom of the City of London, or by any deed of settlement after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such stock.

East-India-House, March 3, 1825.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Friday the 18th instant, from eleven o'clock in the forenoon until six in the evening, at the desire of the under-mentioned Proprietors, viz.

John Doyle,	Douglas Kinnaid,
Thomson Hankey,	Alexr. Nowell,
John Miller,	James Paterson,
Randle Jackson,	John Fullarton,
	Alexr. Johnston,

to ballot on the following question, viz.

"That this Court having taken into its consideration the papers printed in pursuance of its order of the 3d March last, relating to the pecuniary transactions of the house of Messrs. William Palmer and Co. at Hydrabad, with the Government of His Highness the Nizam, is of opinion, that there is no ground for imputing corrupt motives to the late Governor General of India, the Most Noble the Marquess of Hastings, K. G. or to any Member of the Bengal Government; at the same time the Court feels called upon to record its approval of the political dispatches to the Bengal Government, under date the 24th May 1820, 28th November 1821, 9th April 1823, and 21st January 1824."

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 15th day of February 1825, made in a cause then and there depending, wherein Edward Nicholson is plaintiff, and Edward Beasley, and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who were the next of kin, of Richard Beasley the testator, in the said cause named, living at his death, and whether any of them are since dead, and if dead, who is or are their personal representative or representatives: the said Richard Beasley the testator, died at Abingdon, in the County of Berks, on or about the 18th day of December 1775; his next of kin, living at his death were John Beasley, and Mary Jackson, who were the only surviving children of the testator's late brother, Edward Beasley, who died in or about the year 1786; if, therefore, the said John Beasley and Mary Jackson, or either of them, be living or if they be dead, any person or persons claiming to be the personal representative or representatives of the said John Beasley and Mary Jackson, or either of them, are forthwith to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and to make out himself, herself, or themselves to be the next of kin of the said testator Richard Beasley, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in Causes Cockerell v. Wilson, Wilson v. Noble, and Baring v. Noble, all persons who were and now are Creditors of the firm or partnership of William Devaynes, John Daves, William Noble, Richard Henry Croft, and Richard Barwick, late of Pall-Mall, Bankers, at the time of the death of the said William Devaynes on the 29th of November 1809 (who have not proved their debts under the Decree made in Devaynes v. Noble and Baring v. Noble, dated the 2d day of March 1812), are, on or before the 16th day of April next, to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the Decrees of the 2d of March 1812, 29th of June 1813, and 27th of July 1814, and from any claim which they may have against the assets of the said Partnership, or the Separate Estate of the said William Devaynes.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Exton against Scott, the Creditors of Leonard Hampson, late of Luton, in the County of Bedford, Banker, deceased (who died in or about the month of March 1824), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 4th day of April 1825, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Salt against Cope, the Creditors of Thomas Salt, late of Abbot's-Bromley, in the County of Stafford, Surgeon, deceased (who died on or about the 12th of July 1817), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Friswell against Moore, the Creditors of Thomas Matthews Field, late of Wimpole-Street, in the Parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of May 1817), are, on or before the 9th day of April next, to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Nantes, formerly of Warrford-Court, Throgmorton-Street, in the City of London, Merchant (surviving Partner of Richard Muliman-Trench Chiswell, late of the same place, Merchant, deceased, trading under the firm of Richard Muliman and Company), may receive a fifth dividend of 12d. in
