SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1825.

Foreign-Office, March 22, 1825.

THE King has been graciously pleased to nominate and appoint Charles Richard Vaughan, Esq. late His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the Confederated Cantons of Switzerland, to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day His Grace Hugh Duke of Northumberland, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Right Honourable Charles Vaughan, were, by command of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint Sir Thomas Phillipps, of Middlehill, Bart. to be Sheriff of the county of Worcester, in the room of Thomas Shrawley Vernon, of Shrawley, Esq. deceased; and Francis Roberts, of Gerdiblötog, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Merioneth.

And His Majesty was pleased to make the following amendment upon the Roll :

Cardigan, Edward Price Lloyd, made
Edward Pryse Lloyd,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fourteenth of August last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Westminster, March 23, 1825.

Whitehall, March 21, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John-Lee Hanning, of Orleigh-court, in the county of Devon, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Edward Lee, late of Orleigh-court aforesaid, Esq. deceased, take, use, and bear the surname of Lee only, and also bear the arms of Lee; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

St. James's.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence has appointed the Reverend Charles Mackie, A. M. Rector of Quarley, Hants, one of his Domestic Chaplains.

Whitehall, March 25, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Friday the 18th instant, a large hay-stack, standing in a field between Last-lane and Archers-low, in the parish of St. Clement, in the town and port of Sandwich, in the county of Kent, belonging to Joseph Stewart, Esq. was destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to believe that the same was caused by some evil disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Joseph Stewart to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Office of Ordnance, March 21, 1825.

THE Public are hereby informed, that the Ordnance Map of Lincolnshire will be ready for delivery to those Subscribers who have paid the advance of one guinea and a half per copy, on the 30th instant, according to a form which will be prescribed in a circular letter to be written to those Subscribers; and they are, therefore, requested to send their addresses to the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, addressed as follows, "To the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, Pall-Mall, London."

By order of the Board,
W. Griffin, Secretary.

HANTS LIEUTENANCY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Southampton will be holden at the White Hart Inn, in the city of Winchester, on the 11th day of April next at two o'clock in the afternoon.

By order of His Grace the Duke of Wellington,
His Majesty's Lord Lieutenant,
T. Woodham, Clerk of the General Meetings.

ISLE OF WIGHT.

Newport, Isle of Wight, 25th March 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy for the Isle of Wight will be held at the Guildhall, in Newport, on Saturday the 16th day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By order of the Right Honourable James Earl of Malmesbury, Governor, Captain-General, and Vice Admiral of the Isle of Wight.
T. Sewell, Clerk to the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of Cornwall will be holden at the Talbot Inn, in the borough of Lostwithiel, on Wednesday the 13th day of April next, by twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of directing a partial ballot for the militia of the said county, and for other general purposes, pursuant to the Acts in that case provided.

John Boger, Clerk to the General Meetings of the said county.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 2d instant, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, and leave given to bring in a Bill, for providing additional burying ground for the parish of Saint Mary, Stratford Bow, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 15th day of March 1825.

William Baker, 5, Nicholas-lane, Lombard-street, and Limehouse.

By the Commissioners for carrying into execution the purposes of the Act hereinafter cited.

WE, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for vesting in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the River Conway, and the harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the road from Dublin to Howth; and for the further improvement of the road from London to Holyhead," for carrying the said Act into execution, do hereby (pursuant to section 61 of the said Act) give notice, that from and after the 25th day of April next, the passage for ships and vessels between the two main pillars of the bridge now building over the said Menai Straits will cease and be closed; and that from that time no ship or vessel will be allowed to pass between the said two main pillars of the said bridge, until further notice be given by the Commissioners of the said Act of the opening of the said passage; and that if any ship or vessel shall, after the said 25th day of April next, and before the time to be hereafter appointed for reopening the same, sail or pass between the said two main pillars of the said bridge, the master, commander, or other person having the charge of such ship or vessel, will be liable to forfeit and pay the sum of £100, and that such penalty will be sued for accordingly.

Given under our hands, this 19th day of March 1825,

C. Arbuthnot.
Henry Parnell.
Thomas Mostyn.

THE Court of Directors of the Corporation of the London Assurance hereby give notice, that the dividend warrants for the half-year ending at Lady-Day will be ready to be delivered and paid, on Tuesday the 12th of April next, from eleven in the forenoon till three in the afternoon, to the Proprietors in both charters, and will continue to be delivered and paid every day, from eleven till three o'clock, Saturdays and holidays excepted.

John Laurence, Secretary

Corporation of the London Assurance of Houses and Goods from Fire. Established by Royal Charter in the Year 1720, for making Assurances against Loss or Damage by Fire, and for assuring Lives.

March 23, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given to persons assured against fire by this Corporation, that printed receipts for the premiums due at Lady-Day are now ready to be delivered at the London Assurance-House, Birchin-Lane, where attendance is given daily from ten o'clock in the morning till four in the afternoon, for assuring houses and other buildings, household goods, goods in trade, merchandize, ships in harbour, cargoes in ships and in lighters on rivers and canals, ships building and repairing, farming stock, &c. from loss or damage by fire; and also for assuring lives.

The proposals for assurance from fire and on lives are delivered at the Office.

Notice is likewise given, that the fifteen days allowed by the Corporation after the quarter day on policies of assurance from fire, will expire on the 9th April next.

By order of the Court of Directors,
John Laurence, Secretary.

Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children.

March 25, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the stated Quarterly General Meeting of the Governors and Guardians of this Hospital will be held on Wednesday the 30th day of March instant, at ten o'clock in the morning precisely, to elect a Vice-President, in the room of the Right Honourable Lord Eardley, deceased; and on other business.

By order,

Peruvian Mining Company,
March 22, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the deed for the regulation of this Company will lie for signature at the Banking-house of Messrs. Frys and Chapman, St. Mildred's-Court, in the City of London, for the space of twenty-one days from Monday next the 28th instant month of March, within which time the Subscribers are requested to attend and execute the same, and receive certificates as Shareholders in exchange for the bankers' receipts, or their shares will be forfeited.

By order of the Directors,
James Jenkins, Secretary.

Hibernian Joint Stock Banking Company.
London, March 25, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the payment of 15 per cent. Irish, equal to £13 17s. British currency, on the proportion of the capital subscribed in England, is to be made, between the hours of ten and three, on Monday the 11th April next, or the two following days, between the same hours, at our Counting-house, 6, Scots-Yard, Cannon-Street, London, and on making such payment each holder of shares is to sign the deed regulating the affairs of the Company.

Each holder must personally attend at the time of payment with his receipts, placed in numerical order, and he is to endorse on one of them his name and residence, and specify the number of his shares.

Shares held by partners must either be written into one name, or all must attend and sign the deed.

Holders residing in the country may sign by power of attorney, the form of which may be obtained at our Counting-house.

As by the Act of Parliament, the names and residences of all the Shareholders must be enrolled in Chancery before the commencement of business, the condition expressed in the receipts in cases of default will be strictly attended to.

Geo. B. Whittaker,
 W. B. Whittaker.

JOHN MEDLAM'S CREDITORS AND DEBTORS.

Barnsley, March 21, 1825.

ALL persons having any claims, or demands upon John Medlam, late of Huddersfield, in the County of York, Grocer, deceased, are requested to send an account of the particulars thereof to Mr. Edmund March or Mr. Joseph Hammond, Grocers, at Huddersfield aforesaid, within three months from the date hereof, otherwise they will be absolutely excluded all benefit arising from the distribution of his estate and effects; and all persons who stood indebted to the said John Medlam are required forthwith to pay their respective debts to the said Edmund March or Joseph Hammond, otherwise actions at law will be commenced against them for recovery thereof.

By order of the Administrator,

W. C. MENCE.

To the Relatives of Mr. John Shaw, late of Nottingham.

WHEREAS John Shaw, who formerly kept the Wheat Sheaf Inn, on the Long Row, Nottingham, and died the 12th day of April 1807, by his will, dated the 20th day of March preceding, directed that on the death of his wife, (which has lately taken place), the sum of five hundred pounds should be paid, as stated in the following words, copied from the will, viz.: "unto and amongst all the children (which shall be living at the time of my decease, and the issue of such of them as now are, or then shall be dead, leaving issue) of my brothers and sisters Ralph Shaw, Joseph Shaw, Ann Tindal, and Rachel Newson, equally share and share alike, but so that the issue of any such child or children as now are, or at my decease shall be dead, shall have the same share or shares only of the said sum of five hundred pounds as the parent of such issue would have been entitled to if living"; and the said Testator also directed that the further sum of five hundred and seventy-five pounds should be paid as follows, viz.: "unto and amongst (all the children which shall be living at the time of my decease, and the issue of such of them as now are, or then shall be dead, leaving issue), of my half brother and half sisters William Shaw, Elizabeth Kirkland, and Jane Buckston, equally share and share alike, but so that the issue of any such child or children as now are, or at my decease shall be dead, shall have the same share or shares only of the said sum of five hundred and seventy-five pounds as the parent of such issue would have been entitled to if living": such persons therefore as come within the above description, or the representatives of such as are dead, are hereby required to make out their respective claims, to be supported by registers and other proper documents, and transmit the same to Mr. Thomas Wilson, Draper, Nottingham, one of the Trustees under the said will; or to Messrs. Wise and Eddowes, Solicitors, Nottingham, on or before the 16th day of April next, after which day a time will be appointed for payment.—25th March 1825.

THE Creditors of Messrs. Francis and Charles Revell, of Paddington, Flour-Factors, are requested to send the particulars of their demands to Messrs. Poole, Greenfield, and Gamlen, Solicitors, 12, Gray's-Inn-Square, in order that the same may be forthwith paid.

United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo,
 December 14, 1824.

Notice is hereby given to the Creditors of the following estates, to render in, duly authenticated, their respective claims against said estates, at the Orphan-Chamber for unprovided estates of this Colony, on pain that unless they be so registered, within one year from this date, they will forever be excluded from any share thereof.

Valuable Freehold Estate, at Kingston-upon-Hull.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Prickett, at the Auction-Mart, near the Bank of England, on Tuesday the 12th of April 1825, at Twelve o'Clock (instead of the 23d of March as before advertised), before the Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt against Messrs. Marsh, Stracey, Fauntleroy, and Graham;

A valuable freehold estate, very advantageously situate on the garrison side of the river Hull, comprising capacious bonding yards for timber, surrounded by lofty and substantial brick walls, extending from the quay along the said river, with a convenient counting house, with two rooms and a chamber, sheds and buildings, in the occupation of Messrs. Harrison, tenants at will, at a nett rent of 250 guineas per annum.

May be viewed and printed particulars had on the premises, of Richard Garland, Esq. and at the Cross Keys Inn, Hull; the Inns, at Barton; of Mr. William Whitton, King's-Road, Bedford-Row, London; at the Auction Mart; and of Mr Prickett, Castle-Street, Holborn.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Stanser against Stanser, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, sometime in the month of May next;

A copyhold estate and premises, consisting of a large dwelling-house and garden, inclosed by a brick wall, situate in Church-Street, Stoke-Newington, in the County of Middlesex, and held of the manor of Stoke-Newington, now in the occupation of the Widow of the late Dr. Aikin, as tenant at will.

Printed particulars may shortly be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, and of Mr. James Scarth, No. 2, Lyon's-Inn, Strand.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Amplett against Parke, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire, amongst other things, whether the defendant, Robert James Peck, or any and what other person or persons, is or are the heir or heirs at law of Martha Clay, of Loughton, in the County of Essex, Spinster, deceased, the testatrix in the pleadings of said Cause named (who died in the month of July 1803).—Any person or persons claiming to be such heir or heirs at law of the said Martha Clay is or are, on or before the 26th of April 1825, to come in and make out their kindred before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Read against Punnett, the Creditors of Joseph Read, late of Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, Market-Gardener, deceased, (who died in or about the month of December 1811), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
