ISLE OF WIGHT.

Newport, Isle of Wight, 25th March 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy for the Isle of Wight will be held at the Guildhall, in Newport, on Saturday the 16th day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By order of the Right Honourable James Earl of Malmesbury, Governor, Captain-General, and Vice Admiral of the Isle of Wight.
T. Sewell, Clerk to the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of Cornwall will be holden at the Talbot Inn, in the borough of Lostwithiel, on Wednesday the 13th day of April next, by twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of directing a partial ballot for the militia of the said county, and for other general purposes, pursuant to the Acts in that case provided.

John Boger, Clerk to the General Meetings of the said county.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 2d instant, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament, and leave given to bring in a Bill, for providing additional burying ground for the parish of Saint Mary, Stratford Bow, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 15th day of March 1825.

William Baker, 5, Nicholas-lane, Lombard-street, and Limehouse.

By the Commissioners for carrying into execution the purposes of the Act hereinafter cited.

WE, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for vesting in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the River Conway, and the harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the road from Dublin to Howth; and for the further improvement of the road from London to Holyhead," for carrying the said Act into execution, do hereby (pursuant to section 61 of the said Act) give notice, that from and after the 25th day of April next, the passage for ships and vessels between the two main pillars of the bridge now building over the said Menai Straits will cease and be closed; and that from that time no ship or vessel will be allowed to pass between the said two main pillars of the said bridge, until further notice be given by the Commissioners of the said Act of the opening of the said passage; and that if any ship or vessel shall, after the said 25th day of April next, and before the time to be hereafter appointed for reopening the same, sail or pass between the said two main pillars of the said bridge, the master, commander, or other person having the charge of such ship or vessel, will be liable to forfeit and pay the sum of £100, and that such penalty will be sued for accordingly.

Given under our hands, this 19th day of March 1825,

C. Arbuthnot.
Henry Parnell.
Thomas Mostyn.
