NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 27th instant, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 9, 1825.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE AT CARLTON-HOUSE.

THE Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee, to be held on Wednesday the 20th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, on Tuesday the 19th instant, before twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Levee shall hereafter be made but in conformity with the above regulations.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until one o'clock.

The above regulations to be observed by the Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 27th instant.

The names of the Gentlemen to be presented, and of the Gentleman who is to present them, to be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, on Tuesday the 26th instant, before twelve o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fourteenth of August last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted).

without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburg, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburg vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburg, than are levied on Oldenburg vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburg vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburg, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburg vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, April 11, 1825.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable James Ochoenar, Lord Forbes, to be His Majesty's High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Whitehall, April 11, 1825.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, appointing Lieutenant-General Sir William Clinton, G. C. B. to be Lieutenant-General of the Ordnance.

A 2

Crown-Office, April 12, 1825.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

County of Berks.

Robert Palmer, Esq. of Holme-Park, in the said county, in the room of the Honourable Richard Neville, now Lord Braybrook, and one of the Peers of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Borough of Petersfield:

James Law Lushington, Colonel in the Honourable East India Company's Military Service, in the room of Sir Philip Musgrave, Bart. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

City of Carlisle.

Sir Philip Musgrave, Bart. in the room of Sir James Graham, Bart. deceased.

Whitehall, April 9, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Thomas Railton Willoughby, of Weymouth, in the county of Dorset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 11, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about three o'clock in the morning of Sunday the 27th day of March last, some evil disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a certain barn and a certain stable, coach-house, outhouses, and out-buildings, situate in the parish of Windlesham, in the county of Surrey, the property of the Rev. Thomas Snell, as Rector of the rectory of the said parish, and belonging to and parcel of the said parish, and also a certain stack and quantity of wood, the property of the said Thomas Snell, then being in the said barn;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.: FIFTY GUINEAS by the said Thomas Snell, and TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS by the parishioners of the said parish of Windlesham; such rewards to be paid on conviction by Mr. Mears, solicitor, Bagshot, in the said county.

GENERAL LIEUTENANCY—NOTTINGHAMSHIRE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the said county, will be holden at the Petty Sessions Room in Southwell, on Monday the 25th day of April instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of appointing (subject to His Majesty's approbation) the time and place at which the Royal Sherwood Foresters or Nottinghamshire regiment of Militia shall be trained and exercised during the present year, and other business relative to the said Militia.—Dated this 6th day of April 1825.

By order of His Grace the Duke of Newcastle,
Lord Lieutenant of the said county,

Wm. Edwd. Tallents, Clerk of General Meetings.

COMMERCIAL DOCK COMPANY.

Commercial Dock-Office, 106, Fenchurch-Street, London, April 12, 1825.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend two Acts for maintaining and improving the Commercial Docks, in the parish of Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey," it was enacted, that (in case the majority of the Proprietors of the said Docks entitled to vote, and respectively present at any two meetings to be specially called, for the purpose as in the said Act mentioned, should deem it expedient and determine so to do), it should be lawful for the said Company to borrow and raise the sum of £76250, or any part or parts thereof which might not be thereafter subscribed for, as therein mentioned, by way of mortgage of the lauds, tenements, docks, hereditaments, and premises and real estates of the said Company, or any part thereof, together with, or separately from, the rates and charges therein mentioned;

Now notice is hereby given, that two several special Meetings or General Courts of Proprietors of the said Commercial Docks will be held at the Office of the said Company, No. 106, Fenchurch-Street, London, on the 29th day of April instant and the 13th day of May next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of the same days respectively, for the purpose of considering the expediency of and determining on, and assenting to or dissenting from the raising the sum of £30,000, part of the said sum of £76,250 so authorised to be raised as aforesaid, by way of mortgage and grant of the lands, tenements, docks, hereditaments, and premises, and real estates, rates, and charges of the said Company, or some part or parts thereof, to enable the Directors to pay off the outstanding debentures of the Company; and for giving, granting, and confirming to the Directors of the said Company all necessary powers and authorities in respect thereof.

By order of the Court of Directors,
William Allan, Secretary.
