The Lord Chancellor has appointed Frederick Polhill Kell, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Richard Minter Mount, of the city of Canterbury, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 19, 1825.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, some evil disposed person or persons did, on the night of Thursday the 24th of March last, and again on the night of Monday the 4th of April instant, feloniously set fire to the White Horse public house, in North-street, in the parish of Bishop's-Stortford, in the occupation of Mrs. Mary Bium, and also did on the night of Tuesday the 5th of April instant, feloniously set fire to a barn, used as a carpenter's shop, in Hockerill, in the parish of Bishop's-Stortford aforesaid, in the occupation of Samuel Warner, which communicated to an adjoining barn, in the occupation of Mr. Robert Cole; subsequent to which an anonymous letter has been addressed to "The Committee at the Vestry," threatening that the said town of Bishop's-Stortford shall be laid in ashes, if two persons therein named are not released from prison, and alluding to a reward which had been offered for the discovery of the offenders in the above-mentioned felonies. And whereas it hath been further represented unto the King that in the night of the 16th, or early in the morning of the 17th instant, the house of Mr. William Francis, of North-street, in Bishop-Stortford aforesaid, was burglariously entered and set fire to in two different places, and that at the same time a barn, or outhouse adjoining thereto, was also set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said respective premises, and except the writer and sender of the said threatening letter), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, to be paid on conviction by Mr. A. M. Ashby, of Bishop's-Stortford aforesaid, Clerk to the Association for Prosecuting Felons, viz. :

ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS for the discovery of the offender or offenders in the case of the two fires at the White Horse public house, on the 24th of March and 4th of April above-mentioned. TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS for the discovery of the offender or offenders in the case of the fire at Hockerill on the 5th instant above-mentioned; and TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS for the discovery of the offender or offenders who set fire to the premises at Mr. William Francis's aforesaid.

WHEREAS a writ of ad quod damnum hath been issued out of the High Court of Chancery, directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex, commanding the said Sheriff, that by the oath of honest and lawful men of his county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, he diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or any other, if our said Lord the King should grant to Richard Henry Cox, Esq. of Hillingdon-house, in the parish of Hillingdon, in the county of Middlesex, a licence that he the said Richard Henry Cox may enclose a certain public footway leading out of the public highway on the southern side of Northolt or Uxbridge-common, in the said parish of Hillingdon, over land in the said parish of Hillingdon, lately belonging to Felecia Elizabetha Horne, widow, deceased, but now belonging to the said Richard Henry Cox, into another public footway leading from Hillingdon-End, to Little Hillingdon, in the parish Hillingdon, which said footway so to be enclosed is of the length of three hundred and seventy-eight yards or thereabouts, and of the breadth of four feet or thereabouts, and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of our said Lord the King, or any other, then to what damage or to what prejudice of our said Lord the King, and to what damage, or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom, and how, and in what manner.

Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Sheriff of Middlesex will make the inquisition by the said writ directed, at the White Horse Inn, Uxbridge, in the said county of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 18th day of May next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of the same day.—Dated this 23d day of April 1825.

Valuable and Extensive Freehold Premises, Steam Engine, Life Policies, &c.

TO be sold by auction, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Robert Harding, of the City of Bristol, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, by Mr. Harill, at the Commercial-Rooms, Corn-Street, Bristol, on Thursday the 19th day of May next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

Lot 1. All those highly valuable and most extensive freehold premises, situate in Redcross-Street, in the City of Bristol, lately in the occupation of Robert Harding, Timber-Merchant, a Bankrupt, and used by him as a timber-yard and sawing-mills, together with an excellent condensing steam engine of six horse power, newly erected upon the most approved principle, and capable of application to any purpose requiring force, with large steam pit, circular saws, and frames, splitting machines, and steam stove attached thereto.

This lot comprises a most desirable dwelling-house, fitted up with every convenience, a newly erected and spacious warehouse, with three stories of lofts, substantial steam engine-house and workshops, large timber and saw-pit-sheds, range of stabling, built in the most superior style, and calculated to hold fourteen horses, with timber-yard, extending down to the River From, and being, exclusive of the dwelling-house and workshops, upwards of 270 feet in length, and 120 feet in width, with hauling-way thereto. The dwelling-house warehouses, lofts, and workshops are fitted throughout with pipes for lighting by gas, with gas meter complete, and the rooms are heated by means of warm air.

The whole property is in excellent repair, the greater part of the buildings having been recently erected in the most substantial manner, and at an expence almost unlimited. The extent of these premises, and the superior construction and arrangement of the buildings, afford an invaluable opportunity for purchase to any person requiring room, and more particularly as they may be converted, at a trifling expence, to a manufactory of any kind.

There are four wells on the premises, affording an inexhaustible supply of water. The whole is free from ground-rent, and the land-tax, excepting the trifling sum of thirty shillings per annum, has been redeemed.

Lot 2. A policy of insurance for the sum of £999, dated the 31st August 1819, effected in the Norwich Union Insurance Office, by the said Robert Harding on his own life, he being then aged about twenty-five years; the yearly premium payable in respect of this policy is £22 6s. 3d.

Capital Freehold and Leasehold Estates and Iron-Works, in the Counties of Monmouth and Brecon.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein George Price Watkins, Esq. is plaintiff, and George Maule and others are defendants, with the approbation of James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 31st day of May next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions of sale as will be contained in the particulars herein referred to;

A freehold estate, in the Parish of Bedwelty, in the County of Monmouth, called the Rumney Estate, late the property of Benjamin Hall, Esq. deceased, whereon iron-works have for many years been carried on, under the firm of the Union Iron Company, together with the furnaces, fineries, and other works thereon, including the machinery and stock, and fifty-two workmen's houses belonging thereto, and the foundations laid, and preparations made for additional furnaces and other works.

Also a farm-house, barn, stabling, beast-house, and other out buildings.

The whole consists of about 1108 acres of land, the greater part whereof is occupied along with the iron-works, and other parts are let to tenants to build on, at reserved rents, amounting to £50. 15s. 8d. per annum, and a further part to tenants at rack-rents, amounting to £52. 4s. 5d. per annum.

A right was granted by the late Mr. Hall for getting coal under 65 acres of the estate, which produces an average rent £228 per annum.

The estate contains very valuable mines of iron ore and coal, and is situate within five miles of Merthyr-Tidvil.

Also a leasehold estate, adjoining the Rumney Estate, and now occupied therewith, consisting of 71 A. 3 R. 5 P. of land, or thereabouts, with the iron-works, finery, manager's house, 39 workmen's dwellings, and other buildings thereon, and the mines, minerals, and veins of coal, culme, iron-ore, fire-brick clay, and lime-stone, in, upon, and under the same, situate in the Parish of Langanider, in the County of Brecon, and the right of getting iron ore under about 285 acres of land adjoining thereto.

The leasehold premises are held under a lease, dated the 10th of January 1807, for a term of 72 years from Michaelmas 1806, subject to a rent of £26 per annum, for the surface of the land, and to the payment of 2s. per dozen of iron-ore got from the mines.

Also several messuages or tenements, and other buildings, are held under the said lease, now let to different tenants upon under-leases, of which about 36 years are unexpired, at rents amounting to £19. 10s. 6d. per annum.

The sale which took place of this estate and iron-works, in July 1824, has been set aside, by order of the Court of Chancery, and a re-sale directed.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Street, Millington, and Gilbert, Solicitors, Philpot-Lane, London; of Messrs. Freshfield, Kaye, and Frisfield, Solicitors, New Bank-Buildings, London; at the Bush Inn, Bristol; and at the principal Inns, in Cardiff and Merthyr-Tidvil, in Glamorganshire, and Chepstow and Newport, in Monmouthshire; and the property may be viewed upon application at the works, where plans of the same may be seen.
