

Whitehall, April 29, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Jackson, of Rastrick, near Halifax, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Navy-Office, April 21, 1825

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March 1825, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 2d, 3d, and 4th of May, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, and 11th of May, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 12th and 13th of May, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March last, will commence paying on the 2d of May; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

WHEREAS a writ of ad quod damnum hath been issued out of the High Court of Chancery, directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex, commanding the said Sheriff, that by the oath of honest and lawful men of his county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, he diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or any other, if our said Lord the King should grant to Richard Henry Cox, Esq. of Hillingdon-house, in the parish of Hillingdon, in the county of Middlesex, a licence that he the said Richard Henry Cox may enclose a certain public footway leading out of the public highway on the southern side of Northolt or Uxbridge-common, in the said parish of Hillingdon, over land in the said parish of Hillingdon, lately belonging to Felecia Elizabetha Horne, widow, deceased, but now belonging to the said Richard Henry Cox, into another public footway leading from Hillingdon-End, to Little Hillingdon, in the parish Hillingdon, which said footway so to be enclosed is of the length of three hundred and seventy-eight yards or thereabouts, and of the breadth of four feet or thereabouts, and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of our said Lord the King, or any other, then to what damage or to what prejudice of our said Lord the King, and to what damage, or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom, and how, and in what manner.

Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Sheriff of Middlesex will make the inquisition by the said writ directed, at the White Horse Inn, Uxbridge, in the said county of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 18th day of May next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of the same day.—Dated this 23d day of April 1825.
