VICE-CHANCELLOR. Saturday the 30th day of April in the 6th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 1825, between John Forbes, sene deceased, plaintiff: James Earl of Rosslyn and others, defendants; and between Charles Forbes, now Sir Charles Forbes, Bart. plaintiff; the said James Earl of Rosslyn and others, defendants; and between Sir Charles Forbes, Bart. George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes, plaintiffs; the said James Earl of Rosslyn and others, defendants.—By original and amended Bill and Bills of Revivor and Supplement.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court, by Mr. Treslove, of Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged, that it appears by the affidavit of Thomas Hodgson Holdsworth, Solicitor for the above-named plaintiffs, Sir Charles Forbes, Bart. George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes, that in or as of Trinity Term 1818, the abovenamed late plaintiff, John Forbes, since deceased, filed his bill in this Court, which was afterwards amended, and so amended was against the above-named defendants, James Earl of Rosslyn, Mary Erskine, Charlotte Maria Fenwick, Charlotte Flora Fenwick, Eliza Ann Fenwick, Thomas Franklin, Peregrine Blair Powell, William Thackeray the elder, Sarah Fairless, William Thackeray the younger, and William Gordon, and thereby prayed that an account might be taken of what was due to the said late plaintiff in respect of the principal stock or sum of £12,500 £4 per cent. Bank Annuities, in the said bill mentioned, and the sums of money payable in lieu of the dividends thereon; and also an account of what was due to the said defendant, James Earl of Rosslyn, for principal and interest on his mortgaged debt of £10,000 in the said bill mentioned; and that the said late plaintiff might be at liberty to redeem the same, and on redemption thereof that the mortgaged premises, in the said bill mentioned, might be conveyed and assigned by the said Earl of Rosslyn and Mary Erskine to such uses, and upon such trusts, as the said plaintiff should direct, and that what the said plaintiff should pay in redemption of such mortgage might be added to what should be found due to him on taking such account as aforesaid; and that the defendants, Charlotte Maria Fenwick, Eliza Ann Fenwick, Eliza Ann Fenwick, Thomas Franklin, Peregrine Blair Powell, William Thackeray the elder, Sarah Fairless, William Thackeray the younger, and William Gordon, might be decreed to pay the said plaintiff the whole of what should appear to be due to him as last aforesaid, or in default thereof that the said last named defendants might be foreclosed of and from all equity of redemption of the premises, and deliver up to the said late plaintiff the possession of the said mortgaged premises, and all deeds, documents, and writings, and evidences of title in their possession or power relating to the premises; that the said late plaintiff, John Forbes, died in June 1821, having first duly made and published his will, bearing date the 20 day of May 1820, whereof he appointed the said plaintiffs, Sir Charles Forbes, George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes, executors, but which was in the first instance only proved by the said plaintiff Sir Charles Forbes, who thereupon in or as of Michaelmas Term 1821, filed his bill of revivor against the above named defendants, to which the said defendants, except the said defendant William Gordon appeared, but the said plaintiffs, George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes, having subsequently taken probate of the will of the said late plaintiff, they together with the said Sir Charles Forbes in or as of Michaelmas Term 1822, filed their bill of revivor and supplement against the above named defendants, who have all appeared thereto, except the said defendant William Gordon; that he the said deponent hath personally, on behalf of the said last named plaintiffs, made repeated applications and requests to the Clerk in Court, and to the Solicitor, for the said defendant William Gordon in this Cause, to appear to the said bill of revivor and bill of supplement, in order that the said plaintiffs might be enabled to obtain the order of this Court, that the said suit and proceedings should stand revived, but they have respectively declined or refused to do; that on the 22d day of January last the said deponent applied to Mr. Duthie, of the Adelphi, who had acted as the Solicitor for the said defendant William Gordon in the said original Cause so instituted by the said late plaintiff, as well as the Solicitor for the said William Gordon, in a suit instituted by the said Charlotte Maria Fenwick and others, to accept service of a subpoena to revive and answer at the suit of the said Sir Charles Forbes on the said first bill of revivor, and a subpoena to revive and answer at the suit of the said Sir Charles Forbes and others on the said second bill of revivor, but the said Mr. Duthie again refused or declined to do so, or to appear for the said William Gordon, but the said Mr. Duthie then informed the said deponent, in answer to enquiries made by the said deponent, that the said William Gordon had in the months of June and July 1823 been staying in England at Sabloniere's Hotel, in Leicester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, where he the said Mr. Duthie had repeatedly dined with him, and had many interviews with him on business connected with the proceedings in the above mentioned Causes, and in the said Cause instituted by the said Charlotte Maria Fenwick and others, and also with reference to arrangements which the said William Gordon was endeavouring to effect with his Creditors to enable him to reside in England; that the said Mr. Duthie informed the said deponent that to the best of his recollection the said defendant, William Gordon, was staying at the said Hotel for the space of six weeks or thereabouts, and that the said defendant, William Gordon, was actually present in the Court of the Lord Chancellor, or waiting about in the precincts thereof, in communication with him the said Mr. Duthie during the argument of an appeal presented by him the said William Gordon against the decree obtained by the said Charlotte Maria Fenwick and others, in the Suit instituted by them, but that the presence of the said defendant, William Gordon, in England was wholly unknown to the said deponent, and to Julius Hutchinson the said deponent's partner, and also as the said deponent believes to the above named plaintiffs in this Suit; that he the said deponent did, in consequence of the information so received from the said Mr. Duthie, attend at Sabloniere's Hotel aforesaid, to ascertain whether the said defendant, William Gordon, had been resident there in the said year 1823, and where the said deponent saw and conversed with Madam Pagliano the landlady of the said Hotel, who admitted to the said deponent that the said William Gordon, whom she mentioned and described as the Honourable William Gordon, had been resident in the said year 1823 in that Hotel, but professed her inability specifically to state the precise time of his residence therein; that the said deponent and his said partner did thereupon, as the Solicitors for the above named plaintiffs in this Suit, apply for and procure process of subpoena against the said William Gordon, to appear at the suit of the said Sir Charles Forbes, Bart. to revive and answer, and process of subpoena to appear at the suit of the said Sir Charles Forbes, George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes respectively, to revive and answer such process, being respectively returnable on the 5th day of February last, that he did, on the 31st day of January last, serve the above-named defendant William Gordon with a subpoena, issuing out of and under the seal of this Court, by delivering to, and leaving with, Monsieur Pagliano, the landlord of Sabloniere's Hotel aforesaid, situate in Leicester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, at the said Hotel, for the said defendant William Gordon, the body of the said subpoena, under seal as aforesaid, and which said Hotel was, to the best of the said deponent's knowledge and information, and as the said deponent verily believes, the last place of abode of the said defendant William Gordon in England, by which said subpoena the said defendant William Gordon was directed to appear in this Court, on the 5th day of February last, at the suit of the above-named plaintiff Charles Forbes, now Sir Charles Forbes, Bart. to revive and answer, as appeared to the said deponent by the label of the said subpoena; that the said deponent did, on the same 31st day of January last, serve the above-named defendant William Gordon with a subpoena, issuing out of and under the seal of this Court, by delivering to, and leaving with, the said Monsieur Pagliano, for the said defendant William Gordon, at Sabloniere's Hotel aforesaid, the body of the said subpoena, so under seal as aforesaid, by which said subpoena the said defendant was directed to appear in this Court, on the 5th day of February last, at the suit of the above-named plaintiffs Sir Charles Forbes, George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes, to revive and answer, as appeared to the said deponent by the label of the said subpoena; and that he verily believes, from all the information he can obtain, that the defendant, William Gordon, hath for several years past, except during the short period he so resided at Sabloniere's Hotel as aforesaid, withdrawn himself beyond seas, and absconded to avoid appearing in this Court, or being served with process for that purpose; and that the abovenamed plaintiffs will be without relief in the matters in this suit, and cannot revive the same as against the said defendant, William Gordon, or the other defendants thereto, and the said defendant, William Gordon, shall have appeared to his said bills of revivor, under the Special Order of this Court, that the said deponent did, on the 22d day of January last, apply to and request the said Mr. Duthie, to make an affidavit in these Causes, deposing that the said defendant, William Gordon, had, in the months of June and July 1823, been staying at Sabloniere's Hotel, in Leicester-Square; and that the said Mr. Duthie had repeatedly dined with him there; and had had many interviews with him on business connected with the proceedings in these and other Causes, and also with reference to arrangements which the said William Gordon was endeavouring to effect with his Creditors, &c. and that he resides in England; that the said Mr. Duthie did then and there decline and refuse to make such deposition, and affidavit, on the ground and for the reason, that having been professionally engaged by the said William Gordon in these and other suits, as his Solicitor and Attorney, and confidential adviser, it would be unjust in him personally to assist the plaintiffs in these suits, and in the objects thereof, by his the said Mr. Duthie's voluntary affidavit or deposition:—It is, thereupon, ordered, that the said defendant, William Gordon, do, on or before the first day of next Trinity Term, appear to the Bill of Revivor of the plaintiff, Sir Charles Forbes, and to the said Bill of Revivor of the plaintiffs, Sir Charles Forbes, George Forbes, Michie Forbes, and John Forbes.
