INVESTITURE OF HIS MOST CHRISTIAN MAJESTY CHARLES THE TENTH, KING OF FRANCE AND NAVARRE, WITH THE HABIT AND ENSIGNS OF THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

Paris, June 8, 1825.

HIS Majesty, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, having been pleased, by a Commission under His Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, to appoint His Excellency the Most Noble Hugh Duke of Northumberland, Earl and Baron Percy, &c. &c. &c. one of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order, and His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Most Christian Majesty upon the august occasion of His Royal Coronation; His Excellency the Right Honourable Grauville Viscount Granville, one of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, His Majesty's Resident Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of France; and Sir George Naylor, Garter Principal King of Arms, Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and Commander of the Royal Portuguese Order of the Tower and Sword, to be His Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for Investing His Most Christian Majesty with the whole Habit and Ensigns of the said Most Noble Order, and the preparatory arrangements for the due observance of the accustomed Ceremonies having been made, His Most Christian Majesty was pleased to signify His Royal Pleasure to receive the Investiture yesterday, at one o'clock, at the Palace of the Tuileries.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen appointed to assist at the Solemnity assembled at the Residence of His Excellency the Duke of Northumberland; and the Baron de la Live, the Conductor of Ambassadors, accompanied by Monsieur de Vivieres, having arrived to attend the Plenipotentiaries, the Procession moved, at twelve o'clock, in the following order:

Servants of the Royal Household, in State Liveries, on horseback.

Three Royal Carriages, each drawn by eight horses richly caparisoned, conveying the persons who carried the Insignia.

The Royal State Carriage, drawn by eight horses richly caparisoned, in which were the Plenipotentiaries, accompanied by the Baron de la Live.

The State Carriage of His Excellency the first Plenipotentiary, drawn by six horses, in which were His Excellency's Trainbearers.

Two Carriages of His Excellency the first Plenipotentiary, each drawn by six horses, conveying the Suite of His Excellency.

The State Carriage of His Excellency Viscount Granville, drawn by six horses.

A Carriage of His Excellency Viscount Granville, in which were the Suite of His Excellency.

The Carriage of Garter Principal King of Arms.

On entering the Great Court of the Tuileries, the Mission was received by a Guard of Honour, and on alighting from the carriages, was conducted by the Officers of the Royal Household to the Ambassadors Hall, from which (the Insignia being arranged and placed upon crimson velvet cushions) a procession was formed as follows:

The Honourable John-Duncan Bligh, bearing the Surcoat.

The Honourable Algernon Percy (Secretary of Embassy), bearing the Sword.

Lord Prudhoe, bearing the Cap and Feathers.

Lord Strathaven, bearing the Hood and Collar.

The Marquess of Carmarthen, bearing the Mantle and Cordon.

Edward-Giles Howard, Esq. Register to the Commission, bearing the Statutes of the Order.

William Woods, Esq. Norfolk Herald Extraordinary, in his Tabard and Collar of S. S. bearing the Garter, the Ribband and George, and the Star.

Charles-George Young, Esq. York Herald, Secretary to the Mission, in his Tabard and Collar of S. S. bearing the Sovereign's Commission.

The Plenipotentiaries, viz.

Sir George Nayler, Garter, in his Mantle, Chain, and Badge, bearing his Sceptre, and carrying the Royal Letters of Credence; attended by Frederick Wollaston, Esq. carrying the Crown of Garter.

His Excellency the Duke of Northumberland, K. G. in the full Habit and Collar of the Order, carrying his Hat and Feathers; his Train borne by the Honourable James-Robert Drummond, and the Honourable George-Augustus-Frederick-John Murray.

His Excellency the Lord Viscount Granville, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

Followed by the under-mentioned Noblemen and Gentlemen:

Earl Gower.

Lord Hervey.

Honourable J. Townshend.

Honourable Robert Henry Clive.

Major-General Sir John Malcolm, G. C. B.

George Howard, Esq.

Captain Buller.

Philip Gore, Esq.

Henry Mandeville, Esq.

Earl of Hopetoun.

Lord Burghersh, G. C. H.

Lord Pelham.

Honourable Charles Percy.

Sir Watkin Williams Wynn, Bart.

Admiral Sir William Sidney Smith, K. C. B.

The Reverend Thomas Singleton.

Thomas Jones, Esq.

Ralph Abercromby, Esq.

At the foot of the Great Staircase, the Plenipotentiaries were received by the Marquis de Dreux-Brézé, Grand Master of the Ceremonies; the Marquis de Rochemore, Master of the Ceremonies; the Baron de St. Felix and the Vicomte de Geslin, Assistant-Masters of the Ceremonies, and other Officers, and having proceeded to the State Apartments, were there received by the Duc de Riviere and a Company of the Garde du Corps; the Procession then advanced to the Gallery of Diana, where a Throne had been erected for the occasion; on each side of which was placed a Chair of State, the one on the right representing the Stall of the Sovereign of the Order, the other on the left for His Most Christian Majesty, each surmounted by an Escudocheon of their Majesties Arms within the Order of the Garter, subscribed with their Royal Titles.

The Mission advanced into the Royal Presence with the usual reverences, and was received by His Most Christian Majesty, wearing the under-dress of the Order, surrounded by His Ministers and Great Officers of State.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who bore the Insignia, having deposited the same upon a table covered with crimson velvet, placed at the right of the Throne, retired behind the table, York Herald remaining in front to deliver the Ensigns to the Plenipotentiaries.

His Excellency the Duke of Northumberland advancing towards His Majesty, delivered an address, declaratory of the object of the Mission, to which His Majesty was pleased to make a most gracious reply. His Excellency then receiving from Garter the Letters of Credence, presented them to His Majesty, who delivered them to the Baron de Damas, the Minister for Foreign Affairs. The Statutes were then presented to the King, who thereupon delivered to the Plenipotentiaries an Instrument, under His Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of France, containing His Majesty's acceptance of the Order, under the usual reservations.

The Commission was in like manner presented to the King, who delivered the same to the Baron de Damas, by whom it was read aloud, and returned to Garter.

The Plenipotentiaries then buckled the Garter below the left knee of His Majesty, Garter reading the admonition in Latin. His Majesty was next invested with the Ribband and George appendant, Garter reading the admonition.

The King then delivered his sword, which Garter received as the ancient fee appertaining to his office, and wore during the remainder of the Ceremony. The Plenipotentiaries thereupon invested His Majesty with the Sword of the Order; and His Majesty being afterwards divested of the Ribband and George, was invested with the Surcoat. His Majesty was next invested with the Mantle, the Hood, and the Collar, severally, Garter reading the respective admonitions.

The Plenipotentiaries then placed the Cap and Feathers on His Majesty's head, and presented the Star of the Order; the King then delivered to them an Instrument, under His Royal Signet and Sign Manual, containing His nomination of a Proxy, in the event of an Installation in the Royal Chapel of St. George, at Windsor.

The King being thus invested, and His Majesty's Train being supported by six Officers of the Royal Household, viz. the Prince de Talleyrand, Grand Chamberlain; the Duc d'Aumont and the Duc de Blacas, First Gentlemen of the Chamber; the Comte d'Araray, First Chamberlain Master of the Wardrobe; and the Comtes de Noë and de Rastignac, Gentlemen of the King's Chamber, Garter, after the usual reverences to the Sovereign's Stall, and then to His Most Christian Majesty, proclaimed in French the Style of His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Style of His Most Christian Majesty the King of France and Navarre, Knight of the said Most Noble Order; whereupon the Investiture being concluded, the Plenipotentiaries, with their respective Suites, making their reverences, withdrew from the Royal Presence, and were reconducted to the residence of the first Plenipotentiary in the same manner and with the same state as they had been conveyed to the Palace.

The Mission was received with every possible mark of attention; the strictest observance was paid to the prescribed forms of the Solemnity; and the whole Ceremony was conducted with a splendour suitable to the dignity of this Most Noble Order.

GEO. NAYLER, Garter Principal King of Arms.

Paris, June 9, 1825.

THE King having been pleased to nominate and appoint the Right Honourable Granville Viscount Granville, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of France, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, His Most Christian Majesty was this day graciously pleased, in the name and at the request of His Britannic Majesty, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon His Excellency, and to invest him with the Ensigns of the said Most Honourable Order.

The Ceremony was performed at the Palace of the Tuileries, in the presence of the Ministers and Great Officers of State, His Excellency the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Prudhoe, Major-General Sir John Malcolm, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath, and Sir George Nayler, the Genealogist of the Order.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 28d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fourteenth of August last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores; and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition; when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Butler.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October. 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Warrant authorising the Judges to hold a special Sitting.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorized, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to Us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during the present Trinity Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice and the other Judges of Our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Tuesday the twenty-eighth day of this present month of June, and from thence daily to Friday the eighth day of July following inclusive, and again on Monday the thirty first day of October next, and from thence daily to Saturday the fifth day of November following inclusive, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of this present Trinity Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, in the sixth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

ROBERT PEEL.

To the Lord Chief Justice and other the Judges of Our Court before Us.

Admiralty-Office, May 23, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 27th day of June next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-House, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.
