SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1825.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a representation from the Right Honourable Thomas Wallace, Master of His Majesty's Mint, dated the 29th of April last, in the words following, viz.

“ IN pursuance of your Majesty's gracious commands, that dies for your Majesty's coinage should be prepared according to the model of a new effigy of your Majesty which I had the honour to submit for your Majesty's approbation; and also that new reverses should be prepared for the gold and silver coinages, I humbly beg leave to lay before your Majesty the annexed designs intended to be struck upon the several species, forming the whole series of your Majesty's gold and silver monies, namely:

1st. The five pound gold piece having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy of your Majesty, with the inscription “ Georgius IV. Dei Gratia,” and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield mantled, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription “ Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:” and upon the rim of the piece the words “ Decus et Tutamen” and the year of the reign.

2d. The double sovereign, or forty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the five pound piece, with the same inscription and words on the rim.

3d. The sovereign, or twenty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield plain, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription “ Georgius IV. Dei Gratia,” and a graining upon the rim.

4th. The half sovereign, or ten shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the sovereign, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

5th. The crown, or five shilling silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, surmounted by the royal crown and helmet with its mantlings, and the motto, “ Dieu et Mon Droit,” in a scroll beneath, with the inscription “ Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:” and the words on the rim, “ Decus et Tutamen,” and the year of the reign.

6th. The half crown, or two shillings and six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the crown, with the inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

7th. The shilling, or twelve pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the emblems of the United Kingdom, namely, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, surmounted by the royal crest, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and a graining upon the rim.

8th. The half shilling, or six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the shilling, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

Should it please your Majesty to approve of the said impressions to be struck upon His Majesty's coins herein respectively described, I humbly request your Majesty will be graciously pleased to signify your Majesty's orders thereon, that the coinage may be forthwith proceeded upon."

His Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of the said designs which are hereunto annexed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons

"concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh Schwerin, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Mecklenburgh, than are levied on Mecklenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Mecklenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Mecklenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give further notice, that they will cut off the tickets to be put into the wheels before the fourth day of drawing the second lottery for the year 1823; into their respective boxes A and B, on Wednesday the 24th day of August next, at eleven o'clock in the morning, at this Office, beginning first with the benefit tickets, which are to be cut into box B, and continuing until all the said tickets for each of the said boxes are completely cut therein.

And the said Managers and Directors do hereby give further notice, that they will attend and oversee the drawing of the tickets of the said fourth day of the said second lottery for the year 1823, on Wednesday the 31st day of August next, at Coopers'-Hall, in Basinghall-Street, within the City of London.

Bank of England, July 16, 1825.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank, on Thursday next the 21st instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, being one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the charter.

R. Best, Secretary.

East India-House, July 13, 1825.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Court will be ready to receive proposals in writing, on or before Wednesday the 10th August next, for the hire for a further number of voyages, of such ships; of the burthen of 1200 tons and upwards, builder's measurement, as have performed their contracted number of six voyages in the Company's service.

The tenders, with the words "Ship Tender" on the cover, to be severally sealed up and left with the Secretary, at or before twelve o'clock at noon on the said 10th August next, beyond which hour the Court will not receive any tender.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

The particulars of the terms and conditions under which the ships will be engaged for the Company's service, may be had upon application at the Office of the Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, on or after Friday next the 15th instant.

Marine Society's Office, Bishopsgate-Street, July 11, 1825.

Thomas King, Secretary.

Commercial-Chambers, Mincing-Lane, July 14, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Court of Proprietors of the Rock Reversionary and Loan Society will be held at the London Commercial Sale-Room, Mincing-Lane, on Friday the 12th day of August next, at twelve o'clock precisely, and that the same Court will be made special for the purpose of considering the propriety of authorising the Directors to declare a dividend at an earlier period than that provided for by the deed of settlement.

Blacker and Gaitskell, Secretaries.

Imperial Distillery Company, No. 9, Mark-Lane.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Directors have resolved on making a call of five pounds per share, to be paid on or before the 18th instant, and also on issuing shares in lieu of scrip receipts; and the Scrip Holders are therefore requested, either by themselves or by their authorised agents, to attend at the Office of the Company, No. 9, Mark-Lane, for the purpose of paying to a Committee of Directors, the amount of the shares held; also for the purpose of exchanging the scrip for the shares, and of signing the deed of settlement, which has been approved by the standing Counsel and the Directors. Should it be inconvenient to any Scrip Holder to attend for the purpose of signing the deed, printed forms of powers of attorney may be procured at the Office, empowering persons to execute the deed for them, it being determined by the Directors that no Scrip Holder can receive shares for scrip until he has first signed the deed of settlement; and no scrip can be exchanged for shares after Monday the 18th instant.

M. Lane, Secretary.

JAMES GAHAGAN.

IF the representatives or next of kin to the late Mr. James Gahagan, who resided at Grenada, in the West Indies, in or about the year 1798, and was in England in or about the year 1811, and is supposed to be since dead, will apply at the Office of Messrs. Palmers, Mackillop, and Co. 11, King's-Arms-Yard, they may hear of something to their advantage.

ALL persons having demands on the estate of the Reverend John Bond, late of Hanwell, in the County of Middlesex, Doctor in Divinity, deceased, are desired forthwith to send the particulars thereof to Mr. Loaden, of Great James-Street, Bedford-Row, Solicitor for the Executrix, in order that the same may be investigated and discharged.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate of the late Dr. Alexander Tilloch, of No. 1, Pickett-Place, Temple-Bar, and of No. 10, Barnsbury-Place, Islington, in the County of Middlesex, are requested to send the particulars thereof, with the nature of their securities (if any), to Robert Wilkinson, Esq. of No. 3, Copthall-Buildings, London, the Executor of the said deceased, or to Messrs. R. and J. Patten, Solicitors, Hatton-Garden.

London, July 14, 1825

ALL persons having claims on the estate of Abraham Montefiore, late of Stamford Hill, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, are desired to send the particulars of them, and all persons indebted to the estate are desired to pay the amount of their debts, to Messrs. Dawes and Chatfield, Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street, Solicitors to the Executors, within one month from this date.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Shrewsbury, July 7, 1825.

THE Bond Creditors of the late Mr. Robert Edwards, of Great Ness, in the County of Salop, deceased, are requested to send their respective accounts to Mr. C. Hicks, Solicitor, Shrewsbury, on or before the 6th day of August next, in order that the same may be inspected, previous to a first and final dividend being paid thereupon; and in case of failure or neglect thereof such Creditors will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

Valuable Public Houses in and near Burnley.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Christopher Croke, a Bankrupt, at the House of Mr. James Rose, the Thorn Inn, within Burnley, in the County of Lancaster, on Thursday the 11th day of August next, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as may be then and there produced;

Lot 1. All that messuage, inn, or public house, known by the name of the Lord Nelson, with the outbuildings, yard, and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate and being in Church-Street, within Burnley aforesaid, and now in the occupation of Henry Lund as tenant thereof.

Lot 2. All that messuage, inn, or public house, known by the name of the Chapel Inn, but formerly called the White Bull, with the brewhouse, stable, outbuildings, and premises thereto belonging, and also a close of land on the North side thereof, called the Chapel Croft, and which tenements are situate at Marsden Chapel, within Little Marsden, in the County aforesaid, and are now in the occupation of Richard Bullock as tenant thereof.

The tenements comprised in lot 1 are partly of leasehold tenure, of which eight hundred and fifty-one years are now unexpired, and other part of freehold tenure of inheritance; and the premises contained in lot 2 are copyhold of inheritance, subject to a nominal quit rent to the Lady of the Manor.

The tenants will shew the premises, and for further particulars apply to Mr. Alcock, of Skipton, and Messrs. Shaw and Artindale, of Burnley, Solicitors to the Commission, or at the Office of Messrs. Buck and Eastwood, of Burnley, Solicitors to the Mortgagees.

TO be sold, pursuant to the Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein John Tovey is the plaintiff, and Edward Davis and others are defendants, with the approbation of James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Booth-Hall, in the City of Gloucester, on Thursday the 25th day of August 1825, between the hours of Eleven and Twelve o'Clock in the Forenoon, in nine lots;

A freehold estate, and also a leasehold estate, situate in and near the City of Gloucester, late the property of Abraham Davis, of the said City of Gloucester, Woolstapler, deceased.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Bryant, formerly of Garden-Court, in the Temple, London, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 20th day of July instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to sanction or reject a certain contract or agreement which the said Assignee hath (subject to the sanction of the Creditors) come to for letting the estate and farm, called Woldingham, upon lease to such person, for such term of years, at such yearly rent, and subject to such stipulations as in the said agreement is expressed; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Brooks, of the City of Bath, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 26th day of July instant, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the White Hart Inn, in Stall-Street, in the City of Bath, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estate or estates, stock in trade, furniture, fixtures, and effects, either by public sale or private contract, for ready money or upon credit, upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall deem most beneficial and proper; and also to receive a report from the said Assignees of a proposal made to them for the purchase of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, fixtures, and other effects, for a certain price, and on certain terms, then and there to be stated; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees agreeing to such proposal in part or in all, or with any alteration; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of Alexander Anderson and George Wilson, surviving Partners of Alexander Wilson, deceased, late of Philpot-Lane, in the City of London, Bankers (carrying on business under the firm of John and Alexander Anderson and Company), who, under and by virtue of an Order made by His Honour the Vice-Chancellor, have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against the said Alexander Anderson, bearing date the 8th day of July 1814, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 26th day of July instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, upon payment to them by certain persons to whom a debt of £22,500, or thereabouts, due and owing to the said Alexander Anderson and George Wilson, as surviving Partners as aforesaid, from Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, late of London, Merchants, was assigned, by way of mortgage or security, out of the dividends which shall be received by them from the Trustees of the estates of the said Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, of the sum of £3,500, relinquishing, releasing, and giving up, to the same persons to whom such debt was assigned as aforesaid, all claim and demand to the said debt, and all dividends and sums of money now or hereafter to become payable by the Trustees of the estate of the said Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, for or on account or in respect of the said debt, or of certain contributions advanced by the said Alexander Anderson, Alexander Wilson, and George Wilson to the said Trustees, in respect of the said debt; and also, in case the said Creditors shall assent to the said proposition, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said sum of £3,500, when they shall have received the same, the costs incurred by certain of the Creditors in and about the making claim to the said debt against the said persons to whom the same was assigned as aforesaid; and on other affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Alexander Anderson, late of Philip-Lane, in the City of London, Merchant (carrying on business under the firm of John and Alexander Anderson and Company, and carrying on the trade or business of a Brewer at Whitechapel, in the County of Middlesex, under the firm of Anderson and Watson), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 25th day of July instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees concurring with the persons to whom a certain large debt due and owing to the said Bankrupt's estate from Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, of London, Merchants, was assigned by way of mortgage or security in compromising a matter in question with the Trustees for the Creditors of the said Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, touching the right of the said persons to whom the said debt was so assigned to a dividend of the proceeds of the estate vested in the said Trustees on the sum of 3800l. and upwards, being the amount of certain disputed items in the account upon which the said debt arises, by their accepting from the said Trustees dividends on one half of such sum only, and giving up all claims to the remaining half, instead of submitting such matters in question to the arbitration or opinion of a Barrister as resolved on at a meeting of the Creditors of the said Alexander Anderson, held at this place on the 22d day of June 1824; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees authorising and empowering or allowing the said persons, to whom a certain large debt due and owing to the said Bankrupt and one George Wilson, as surviving Partners of Alexander Wilson, deceased, carrying on the business of Bankers in Philip-Lane aforesaid, under the firm of John and Alexander Anderson and Company, from the said Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, was also assigned by way of mortgage or security to pay out of the dividends which shall be received from the said Trustees of the estates of the said Messrs. Phelps, Bracebridge, and Troward, in respect of the last mentioned debt, the sum of 3500l. to or for the use of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt and George Wilson, as such surviving Partners as aforesaid, in order to the said Creditors relinquishing all claim to the same debt and the dividends payable or to become payable in respect thereof, and to the said Assignees allowing such payment in their future settling of accounts with the said persons to whom the said last mentioned debt was assigned as aforesaid; and on other affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Holbrook, of Derby, in the County of Derby, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 22d day of July instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying, out of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, all or any part of the expences which the Assignees under a former Commission issued against the said Bankrupt have paid, or are liable to pay in respect thereof, or of any other proceeding connected therewith; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee under the first mentioned Commission selling, or otherwise disposing of, any interest the said Bankrupt may have in any real or copyhold estate or premises whatsoever, or deferring to make such sale for any and what time; and on other affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas MacKinnon, late of Wapping-High-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Oilman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 22d day of July instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the leasehold estates, household goods, furniture, stock in trade, and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract as they may think most advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing any person or persons to carry on the business of the said Bankrupt until such sale, and to make out the accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and get in the outstanding debts, and to make such compensation for the same as they may consider reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees agreeing to a proposition made out behalf of the said Bankrupt for the purchase of the stock in trade, lease, furniture, and effects of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.
