TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1825.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of July 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the sixteenth of July last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July last: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended until the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place before the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended until the said sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a representation from the Right Honourable Thomas Wallace, Master of His Majesty's Mint, dated the 29th of April last, in the words following, viz.

"IN pursuance of your Majesty's gracious commands, that dies for your Majesty's coinage should be prepared according to the model of a new effigy of your Majesty which I had the honour to submit for your Majesty's approbation; and also that new reverses should be prepared for the gold and silver coinages, I humbly beg leave to lay before your Majesty the annexed designs intended to be struck upon the several species, forming the whole series of your Majesty's gold and silver monies, namely.

1st. The five pound gold piece having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy of your Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius IV. Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield mantled, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and upon the rim of the piece the words "Decus et Tutamen" and the year of the reign.

2d. The double sovereign, or forty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the five pound piece, with the same inscription and words on the rim.

3d. The sovereign, or twenty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield plain, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription "Georgius IV. Dei Gratia," and a graining upon the rim.

4th. The half sovereign, or ten shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the sovereign, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

5th. The crown, or five shilling silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, surmounted by the royal crown and helmet with its mantlings, and the motto, "Dieu et Mon Droit," in a scroll beneath, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and the words on the rim, "Decus et Tutamen," and the year of the reign.

6th. The half crown, or two shillings and six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the crown, with the inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

7th. The shilling, or twelve pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the emblems of the United Kingdom, namely, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, surmounted by the royal crest, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and a graining upon the rim.

8th. The half shilling, or six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the shilling, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

Should it please your Majesty to approve of the said impressions to be struck upon His Majesty's coins herein respectively described, I humbly request your Majesty will be graciously pleased to signify your Majesty's orders thereon, that the coinage may be forthwith proceeded upon."

His Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of the said designs which are hereunto annexed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country, in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh Schwerin, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Mecklenburgh than are levied on Mecklenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Mecklenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Mecklenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fourteenth of August last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2. intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on the importation and exportation of certain foreign and colonial goods, wares, and merchandise, and to grant other duties and drawbacks in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct, for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of

His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Butler

Whitehall, July 23, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Anne-Charlotte-Henrietta Dayrolles, of the Manor-house, High Beach, in the county of Essex, widow, His royal licence and authority, that her nephew, Frederick Louis Thomasset, an Ensign in His Majesty's 36th regiment of foot, and a minor, may (out of gratitude to and affectionate regard to the memory of his late cousin, George-Thomas-Louis Dayrolles, Esq. deceased, only son of the above Anne-Charlotte-Henrietta Dayrolles) assume and from henceforth use the surname of Dayrolles only:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 25, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Dixon Brown, of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of William Dixon, late of Gower-street, Bedford-square, in the parish of St. Giles in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Dixon only, and also bear the arms of Dixon quarterly with those of Brown; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 19, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, on Saturday the 9th day of July instant, set fire to several barns, stables, and outhouses at Cannonteign, the property of the Honourable Captain Pellew;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by the said Captain Pellew.

Excise-Office, July 13, 1825.

IN pursuance of a warrant from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, dated the 9th instant, under the Act of 4 Geo. 4, cap. 30; notice is hereby given, that a countervailing duty of three pence per pound weight is chargeable on all stone blue brought from Ireland into Great Britain, and that a like drawback is payable on stone blue sent from Great Britain to Ireland; and it is ordered, that no stone blue be sent from one country to the other, in packages of less than one hundred pounds weight net, with the words "Stone Blue" legibly marked on the outside thereof; and that the trade be in other respects carried on in the same manner as that in starch, with the exception of tying up the article in paper parcels.

Navy-Office, July 21, 1825.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st April to the 30th June last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 1st, 2d, and 3d of August, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 4th, 5th, 8th, 9th, and 10th of August, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 11th and 12th of August, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June last, will commence paying on the 1st of August; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Office of Ordnance, July 15, 1825.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office, in Pall-Mall, on or before the 30th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the performance of the required for service of this Department at the Tower, Pall-Mall, Greenwich, Woolwich, Purfleet, Gravesend, and Tilbury, for a period of three years, terminable at any time after the expiration of the first year, upon three months notice being given by either party.

The terms and conditions of the contract, and a schedule of the work to be performed, may be obtained upon application at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall.

The tenders to be marked on the outside, "Tender for Plasterer's Work."

By order of the Board,

Wm. Griffin, Secretary.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
July 26, 1825.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £90 and under £91 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes. E. Bates, Secretary.

Payment of Prizes drawn on the 15th Day of July last, being the third Day of Drawing the second Lottery for the Year 1823.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
July 26, 1825.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof may be registered for the purpose of receiving information of their fates after the drawing, and may be examined at this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the second lottery for the year 1823, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Thursday the 4th day of August next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Friday the 15th day of July instant, being the third day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets in class A, at one seat, and the tickets in class B, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Saturday the 6th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before one of the Honourable Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.
