nfection, the vessel, and such part of the crew, passengers, and cargo as shall have remained on board, shall be finally fumigated and discharged.

XXXIV. Provided always, that if all the persons on board remain in health, dried fruits having been shifted from baskets or other packages made of articles enumerated, or considered as susceptible, when such dried fruits shall have been imported in such packages, may be delivered in twenty days; dried fruits in packages of wood in ten days; barrels of oil, the bungs being first tarred, and the barrels brushed, and then thoroughly washed in sea-water, in ten days; grain, pulse, and other seed in bulk, on the eleventh day, after having been passed through an iron grating, in order to detect any susceptible matter that may be mixed therewith; grain, pulse, and other seeds in sacks, or in casks or baskets of rush mat, being shifted into fresh sacks or packages in like manner, on the eleventh day, being likewise passed through an iron grating; but in all cases where any goods, wares, or merchandizes shall have been shifted from such susceptible packages as aforesaid into fresh packages, the said susceptible packages shall be sent to the lazaret to perform quarantine, according to the nature thereof, or shall be destroyed, or shall be dipped in the sea, and then remain on board the importing vessel till the expiration of the quarantine at the option of the importer.

XXXV. And it is hereby further ordered, that the quarantine of all goods, wares, and merchandizes (as well such as are directed to be left in, as such as are to be removed from the vessel) in cases where the cargo shall consist partly of enumerated articles, and partly of non-enumerated articles, shall commence and be computed from the day on which the whole of the enumerated articles shall have been removed from the vessel importing the same, to be opened and aired in the manner before directed (except as hereinbefore particularly excepted.)

XXXVI. And it is hereby further ordered, that the quarantine of thirty days to be performed by all vessels arriving without clean bills of health, but with cargoes wholly consisting of articles considered as not susceptible of infection, and not enumerated, shall commence and be computed from the day on which the quarantine guardians shall be put on board.

XXXVII. And it is hereby further ordered, that all vessels, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandizes on board thereof, arriving with suspected bills of health (commonly called touched patents or bills), shall respectively perform quarantine, and be treated in the same manner as above directed, concerning vessels arriving with foul bills of health; and persons, goods, wares, and merchandizes, arriving in such vessels, except only that such vessels, persons, goods, wares, and merchandizes, so arriving with suspected bills of health, shall respectively be subject to ten days less quarantine.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby further ordered, that with respect to all vessels whatsoever having on board any of the articles enumerated as before stated; and intending to import the same into any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any port or place in Europe without the Streights, or on the Continent of America, at which there is not a regular establishment for the performance of quarantine, declared sufficient by His Majesty in Council, as aforesaid, the Master or other person having charge of every such vessel is hereby required to bring with him a declaration made by the owner, proprietor, shipper, or consignee of such vessel, or of the goods, wares, and merchandizes enumerated as aforesaid on board the same respectively, upon oath before some magistrate of the port or place from whence such master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel shall have brought the said goods, wares, and merchandizes, and attested by such magistrate, and also by the British Consul or Vice Consul, or in case there shall be no British Consul or Vice Consul there, then by two known British Merchants; in which declaration it shall be stated, either negatively, that the said enumerated goods, wares, and merchandizes, are not of the growth, produce, or manufacture of Turkey, or of any place in Africa, within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean; or affirmatively, of what place they are the growth, produce, or manufacture; and if they are of the growth, produce, or manufacture of any of the countries last mentioned, then it shall be stated in such declaration whether the said vessel is or is not the same in which the enumerated goods, wares, and merchandizes so imported, were brought from Turkey, or from any of the countries last mentioned; and in case the vessel is the same, the master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel, is hereby required to bring with him the bill or bills of health, granted at the port where any such goods were originally taken on board, or copies thereof attested by a Notary Public; and if the vessel having on board such goods, wares, and merchandizes, shall be other than that in which they were imported into any port or place in Europe without the Streights, or on the Continent of America, at which there is not a regular establishment for the performance of quarantine, declared sufficient by His Majesty in Council as aforesaid, the master or other person having the charge of such vessel is hereby required to bring with him a declaration made and attested in like manner as the declaration before mentioned, in which it shall be stated whether the said enumerated goods, wares, and merchandizes, were imported into the ports of the countries last mentioned in a vessel with or without a clean bill of health; and such master or other person having the charge of any such vessel, if the same shall be bound to the port of London, or to the river of Thames or Medway, shall forthwith produce such declaration or declarations (as the case may be) to the Superintendant of quarantine, or his assistant at Standgate Creek, or if the same shall be bound to any of the out ports or islands aforesaid, to the Superintendant of quarantine, or his assistant, or to the principal or other Officer of the Customs authorized to act in that behalf at such out port or place; and if it shall appear that none of the said enumerated goods, wares, or merchandizes on board such vessel are of the growth, produce, or manufacture of Turkey, or of any place in Africa, within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary, on the
