Whitehall, August 10, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 26th of July last, an anonymous threatening letter was sent to Mr. C. Wawn, of South Shields, bearing the South Shields post mark; and that, on the morning of the 10th instant, another anonymous threatening letter (apparently in the same handwriting) was feloniously sent to the said C. Wawn, bearing the North Shields post mark;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending the said felonious threatening letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the actual author or authors), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said C. Wawn, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the writer of the last-mentioned threatening letter, so that he or she may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Bowlby and Anderson, Solicitors, South Shields.

I The undersigned, Lieutenant of the county of Gloucester, and of the counties of the cities of Gloucester and Bristol, being duly authorised in this behalf, do call out the officers, non-commissioned officers, buglers, privates, and men serving for any or either of the said counties in the Royal South Gloucester Light Infantry Regiment of Militia, for twenty-eight days training and exercise;
