TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1825.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of August 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the twenty-fifth day of this instant August, to Tuesday the first day of November next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of July 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the sixteenth of July last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July last: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended until the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place before the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended until the said sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a representation from the Right Honourable Thomas Wallace, Master of His Majesty's Mint, dated the 29th of April last, in the words following, viz.

"IN pursuance of your Majesty's gracious commands, that dies for your Majesty's coinage should be prepared according to the model of a new effigy of your Majesty which I had the honour to submit for your Majesty's approbation; and also that new reverses should be prepared for the gold and silver coinages, I humbly beg leave to lay before your Majesty the annexed designs intended to be struck upon the several species, forming the whole series of your Majesty's gold and silver monies, namely.

1st. The five pound gold piece having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy of your Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius IV. Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield mantled, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and upon the rim of the piece the words "Decus et Tutamen" and the year of the reign.

2d. The double sovereign, or forty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the five pound piece, with the same inscription and words on the rim.

3d. The sovereign, or twenty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield plain, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription "Georgius IV. Dei Gratia," and a graining upon the rim.

4th. The half sovereign, or ten shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the sovereign, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

5th. The crown, or five shilling silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, surmounted by the royal crown and helmet with its mantlings, and the motto, "Dieu et Mon Droit," in a scroll beneath, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and the words on the rim, "Decus et Tutamen," and the year of the reign.

6th. The half crown, or two shillings and six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the crown, with the inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

7th. The shilling, or twelve pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the emblems of the United Kingdom, namely, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, surmounted by the royal crest, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and a graining upon the rim.

8th. The half shilling, or six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the shilling, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

Should it please your Majesty to approve of the said impressions to be struck upon His Majesty's coins herein respectively described, I humbly request your Majesty will be graciously pleased to signify your Majesty's orders thereon, that the coinage may be forthwith proceeded upon."

His Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of the said designs which are herewith annexed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties

"and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh Schwerin, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Mecklenburgh, than are levied on Mecklenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Mecklenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden direct from any of the ports of Mecklenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of March 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fourteenth of August last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jamaica, June 4, 1825.

HAVING received from the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, the following copies of the examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, relating to the capture of that vessel, and her subsequent arrival at Buff-Bay; and of an inventory of the goods saved from the wreck; you are requested to give publicity to such communication for the space of two months successively, for the information of all persons who may be concerned or interested therein, in compliance with the directions contained in 53d Geo. 3d, chap. 25, sec. 4, of the laws of this island.

Your obedient servant,

WM. JAS. STEVENSON, Rec. Genl.

To the Editor of the London Gazette.

Examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the Sloop Tom Paine, before Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace in and for the Parish of St. George.

Jamaica Ss.

Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, having been duly sworn, made oath and said; that the sloop Tom Paine was owned by John Campbell, of Montego-Bay, and that he sailed in the said sloop from Kingston, on the 31st day of March 1825, bound to Maracaibo, in the island of Cuba, consigned to a Mr. Hall, Merchant, there; and that off that place they were captured by a Colombian privateer, called the Isabella, of Maracaibo, commanded by John Bedwell, sailing with a Colombian commission; the Prizemaster and three seamen were put on-board, with orders to take her to Maracaibo, and that himself and a boy only of the former crew were left on board; that the plea for capture was, that the cargo was Spanish property. And this deponent further said, that from the ignorance of the Prizemaster in navigating the said sloop to her destined port, long detention at sea, and being short of water, the said Prizemaster, after passing the several harbours of Montego-Bay, St. Ann's, Port Maria, and Annotto-Bay, finally brought the vessel into Buff's-Bay to get a supply thereof; and the reason for passing the aforesaid harbours, was his fear of detention by our vessels or the authorities ashore. The deponent further said, that he had no command over the vessel after the capture, either before or after her anchorage at Buff-Bay on 23d April; the Quartermaster and one seaman having come on shore for water, deponent jumped overboard and swam on shore; that soon after Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace, having heard of there being something suspicious in the said sloop's arrival, interrogated the deponent and the said two men; and failing in an attempt to procure the sloop's papers, from the high sea then running, they ordered the said two men into custody for that night. The deponent further said, that information was given to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay; by one of the aforesaid Magistrates, of the circumstances of their arrival, who, without loss of time, repaired to the spot and obtained from the Prizemaster the register of the sloop and other papers for investigation, during which period the vessel drifted and got ashore by the breaking of the cable, which, in consequence of the high sea, soon bilged; that immediate steps were taken by the above Officers, in discharging the cargo and securing the same.

WORCESTERSHIRE MILITIA.

TRAINING AND EXERCISING.

NOTICE is hereby given, to the Officers, non-commissioned officers, drummers, and privates, of and belonging to the Worcestershire regiment of Militia, that they are to appear at the Guildhall, in the city of Worcester, on Friday the 30th day of September 1825, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to be trained and exercised for twenty-eight days, being the time and place appointed by the Lord Lieutenant of the said county; and that every person who shall not appear at the said time and place will be deemed a deserter, and if not taken until after the time of such exercise forfeits the sum of twenty-pounds, which if not immediately paid he will be committed to the common gaol, there to remain without bail or mainprize for the space of six months, or unless he shall in the mean time pay the said penalty; and that every such defaulter will be proceeded against with rigour.

Thomas Blaney, Clerk of the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter and amend an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to establish an additional capital for lighting certain parts of the metropolis, and parts adjacent, with gas;" and also another Act, passed in the fourth year of His said present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act of His present Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to establish an additional company for lighting certain parts of the metropolis, and parts adjacent, with gas,'" and to enlarge the powers of the said several Acts respectively.

Henry Clarke, 10, Coleman-street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament giving powers to form a new street, so as to continue Pall-Mall-East eastward from the King's Mews as far as Saint Martin's Church, and to widen the communication between Cockspur-street and Craven-street, between the south front of the Union Club House in Cockspur-street and the north side of the Strand opposite Craven-street; also to form streets on the north and south sides of Saint Martin's Church till they intersect the Strand nearly opposite the north end of Villiers-street; also to widen Saint Martin's-lane on the east and west sides thereof south of Hemmings-row and Chandos-street; and also to form a square or open space opposite Charing Cross, which said square or open space is to have the Union Club House for its boundary to the west, and west side of Saint Martin's-lane for its boundary to the east; also giving powers to form a new street from the south end of Spring Gardens to Whitehall and Charing Cross in the line of the court yard called Buckingham-court; also giving powers to widen the south side of Downing-street; and to improve and alter the south side of Downing-square and the north side of Fludyer-street; also to divert, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets as will form entrances into the said intended new streets, all which several streets and places so intended to be altered, diverted, or improved, are situate in the several parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields, and the united parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex.

By order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

Green, Pemberton, and Crawley, Salisbury-square.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for amending and rendering more effectual an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the town and parish of Woolwich, in the county of Kent, and removing and preventing nuisances therein; for the better relief and employment of the poor; for providing an additional burial-ground; and for regulating the market of the said town and parish."—Dated this 3d day of September 1825.

Madox and Sydney.

London, September 3, 1825.

Invention of John Badams, of Ashted, near Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Chemist, of "A new Method of extracting certain Metals from their Ores, and for purifying certain Metals."

NOTICE is hereby given, that the above named John Badams intends to apply at the next session of Parliament, for an Act for securing to him, the said John Badams, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the benefit of his invention of "A new method of extracting certain metals from their ores, and for purifying certain metals," within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, by enabling him, the said John Badams, to lodge the specification, under certain restrictions; for which invention he the said John Badams obtained His Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 16th day of May, in the sixth year of his reign, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said last-mentioned letters patent.

Wm. Seymour, Solicitor and Agent for the above-named John Badams.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter and amend an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for vesting certain parcels of land in Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, in the Rector and Churchwardens of the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the said county, and appropriating the same for a burial-ground for the said parish;" and also to alter and amend an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the twenty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render effectual the purchase of a house, situate in the parish of Saint Luke,

Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, to be used as an additional work-house for the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, within the liberty of the city of Westminster, and for other purposes;" and also to alter and amend an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor of the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, within the liberty of the city of Westminster, for repairing the highways, regulating the beadles, watch, and patrols, for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances within several of the streets and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for other purposes relating to the said parish;" and also to alter and amend an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and regulating certain parts of Piccadilly and Park-lane, in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the county of Middlesex, and also several squares, streets, lanes, and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act of the twenty-ninth year of His present Majesty relative to the above purposes, and to the poor of the said parish;" and to alter and extend, repeal, or make such other provisions in lieu of the several clauses, provisions, and powers contained in the before-mentioned Acts of either of them as may be deemed necessary; and in which said Bill or Bills provision is intended to be made for annexing to the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, a certain piece or parcel of ground situate on the west side of Regent-street, in the parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, upon which the portico to the chapel called Hanover Chapel, in Regent-street aforesaid, or part thereof now stands; and for causing the said piece or parcel of ground to be deemed and taken to be comprised in and to be part and parcel of the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, and for otherwise regulating the affairs and concerns of the said parish.

Dawson, Capron, Rowley, and Weld, Solicitors to the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in terms of the Standing Orders, an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for extending the terms, and altering and amending the powers and provisions of two Acts of Parliament, the one, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend several Acts of the thirteenth, thirty-fifth, and thirty-seventh years of His said Majesty, for deepening and making more commodious the harbour of Aberdeen;" and the other, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for the further improvement of the harbour of Aberdeen.

Council-Chamber, Aberdeen, August 30, 1825.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
September 13, 1825.

PURSUANT to Acts, passed in the forty-second and fifty-third years of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that the price of the Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, sold at the Bank of England this day, was £88 and under £89 per Centum.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes,
E. Bates, Secretary.

Payment of Prizes drawn on the 31st Day of August last, being the fourth Day of Drawing the second Lottery for the Year 1823.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
September 13, 1825.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof may be registered for the purpose of receiving information of their fates after the drawing, and may be examined at this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the second lottery for the year 1823, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Tuesday the 20th instant, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Wednesday the 31st day of August last, being the fourth day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets in class A, at one seat, and the tickets in class B, at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Thursday the 22d instant, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before one of the Honourable Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.
