

ascertained in pursuance of the Statute fifty-eighth George the Third, chapter forty-five, and of His Majesty's Order in Council of the 19th of October 1824.

Commencing at a point A, in Bowyer-lane, at the junction of Camberwell and Lambeth parishes, and proceeding thence in a straight line one thousand seven hundred and fifty links through the centre of the east end of Bowyer-lane to the middle of the high road leading from Camberwell to London at B; from thence along the middle of the said high road leading from Camberwell to London two hundred links in a straight line to a point C in the said road, opposite the middle of Southampton-street; from thence in a straight line six hundred and twenty-four links along Southampton-street to a point D, opposite the middle of George-street; from thence in a straight line seven hundred and twenty links along Southampton-street to a point E, in the middle of Southampton-street, opposite the middle of Edmund-street; from thence in a straight line along and through the middle of the south end of Edmund-street one thousand two hundred and ten links to a point F, opposite the middle of a street leading from Edmund-street into Southampton-street; from thence in a straight line four hundred and sixty links along and through the middle of the east end of the said street to the middle of Southampton-street at G; from thence along Southampton-street in a straight line eight hundred and fifty links to a point H, in the middle of Southampton-street, opposite the middle of John-street; from thence in a straight line along Southampton-street one thousand two hundred and eighty-six links to a point I, in the middle of the said street; from thence in a straight line one thousand three hundred links to a point J, in the middle of Southampton-street, opposite the centre of a passage or footway on the south side of the Rosemary Branch public-house, leading to Peckham fields; from thence in a straight line two hundred and fifty links through the middle of the said passage to the point K; from thence in a straight line one thousand and eighty-six links along a lane to the point L; from thence in a straight line along a hedge three hundred and fifty links to the corner of a hedge in Peckham fields at M; from thence in a straight line three thousand one hundred and two links along Peckham fields to the centre of a bridge over the Grand Surrey Canal at N; from thence along the centre of the Grand Surrey Canal seven thousand three hundred and ninety links to the boundary of Camberwell and Deptford parishes at O; from thence in a straight line one thousand four hundred and thirty-five links along the centre of a ditch which divides the parishes of Camberwell and Deptford to the corner of the parish at P; from thence along the middle of a ditch or sewer, known by the name of Galley Wall Ditch, which separates Camberwell parish from the parishes of Rotherhithe and Bermondsey, eight thousand four hundred and twenty links to the corner of a wall at Q; from thence four hundred and fifty links along the boundary line of Camberwell and Bermondsey parishes, to the extremity of the parish at R; from thence three hundred and seventy links in a straight line along the boundary of the parish, in front of Camberwell-place, to the boundary of the parish in the Kent-road at S; from thence four hundred and thirty-one links in a straight line along the Kent-road, at the boundary of the parishes of Camberwell and Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, to the boundary of the parish at T; from thence along the middle of a ditch or sewer, which separates the parishes of Camberwell and Newington, seven thousand one hundred and fifty links, to the extremity of the parish in the London road at U; from thence in a straight line nine hundred and twenty-four links, along the high road leading from London to Camberwell, over the middle of a sewer which separates the parishes of Camberwell and Newington, to the boundary of the parish at V; from thence one thousand nine hundred and forty-six links, along a ditch which divides the parishes of Camberwell and Newington, to the extremity of the parish at W; from thence one thousand two hundred and sixty-two links, along the boundary line between Camberwell and Lambeth parishes to the point A in Bowyers-lane, where the description of the boundaries commenced, as the same is delineated in the map hereunto annexed and therein coloured red.

Receiver-General's Office, Kingston, Jamaica, June 4, 1825.

SIR,

HAVING received from the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, the following copies of the examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, relating to the capture of that vessel, and her subsequent arrival at Buff-Bay; and of an inventory of the goods saved from the wreck; you are requested to give publicity to such communication for the space of two months successively, for the information of all persons who may be concerned or interested therein, in compliance with the directions contained in 53d Geo. 3d, chap. 25, sec. 4, of the laws of this island.

Your obedient servant,

WM. JAS. STEVENSON, Rec. Genl.

To the Editor of the London Gazette.

(Copy.)

Examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the Sloop Tom Paine, before Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace in and for the Parish of St. George.

Jamaica Ss.

Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, having been duly sworn, made oath and said; that the sloop Tom Paine was owned by John Campbell, of Montego-Bay, and that he sailed in the said sloop from Kingston, on the 31st day of March 1825, bound to Maracaibo, in the island of Cuba, consigned to a Mr. Hall, Merchant, there; and that off that place they were captured by a Colombian privateer, called the Isabella, of Maracaibo, commanded by John Bedwell, sailing with a Colombian commission; the Prizemaster and three seamen were put on board, with orders to take her to Maracaibo, and that himself and a