*Office of Church Commissioners, 13, Great George-

THE following is the copy of an Order in Council, approving of a district being assigned to a new chapel built in the parish of Brixham, in the county of Devon :

At the Court at Windsor, the 23d March 1825, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," it is amongst other things enacted, that in any case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into complete, separate, and distinct parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts, as they with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches and chapels to be built therein; and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient, for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described, and if thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law, for the purpose of effecting such division :

And whereas a representation has been made by the said Commissioners to His Majesty in Council, stating that in the month of August 1819, a petition of the Minister, Churchwardens, and several of the inhabitants of the parish of Brixham, in the county of Devon, and diocese of Exeter, was presented to the said Commissioners; and that amongst other things the petitioners set forth, that the parish of Brixham, contained when the census was taken in the year 1811, a population of about four thousand three hundred and forty-one persons, exclusive of seamen and their families, absent at that time on a fishing voyage for the season, estimated at about five hundred; making in the whole a population of four thousand eight hundred and forty-one persons; that the parish is divided into two divisions, viz the upper town, and the lower or quay town; that the spiritual wants of the inhabitants of the upper town division, which is the smallest of the two, are provided for by the parish church, which is capable of accommodating about eight hundred and fifty persons; that the lower or quay town division, containing a population of about three thousand five hundred persons, and not provided with any church accommodation, save what they can obtain in the parish church, from which they are distant more than a mile; that the said Commissioners having taken the petition and all the circumstances of the parish, with reference to its spiritual wants, into consideration, deemed it expedient, for the accommodation of the inhabitants of the lower or quay town division, that a new chapel should be erected therein capable of accommodating about eight hundred persons in pews, and about three hundred in free seats; that the said Commissioners have granted, in His Majesty's name, out of the Parliamentary Fund, the sum of one thousand two hundred pounds towards the expence of erecting this chapel, and the parish agreed to defray the remainder of the expence, and to find the site: That the chapel has since been erected and consecrated: That it has since been represented to the said Commissioners, that in consequence of the large population of that part of the parish in which the chapel has been built, and the distance at which a considerable proportion of the inhabitants reside from the parish church, it would be highly advantageous if a part of the parish was divided into an ecclesiastical district, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament abovementioned; and that the said Commissioners having taken the representation into consideration, are of opinion that it will be expedient so to divide the parish, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine worship, according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing within the proposed district, and for enabling the spiritual person who may serve the new chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties which may attach thereto, and for the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the inhabitants; and the said Commissioners accordingly caused a map showing the proposed line of divisions to be laid before them, and having approved of the same they applied to the Lord Bishop of the diocese for his consent, which His Lordship has signified under his hand and seal, as required by the said Act: And the said Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before His Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and a map (which is hereunto annexed), in which the proposed division is coloured white; and humbly pray, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His Royal consideration, and make such order in respect thereto as His Majesty in His wisdom shall seem meet; His Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division as described in the map, and the specification of the boundary line of the proposed district parish of Lower Brixham, annexed to the said representation, be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Act. C. C. Greville.

A description of the new district parish of Lower Brixham, in the parish of Brixham, in the county of Devon, as ascertained in pursuance of the statute 58th Geo. the 3d, ch. 45, and of His Majesty's Order in Council of the 23d March 1825.

The boundary line of the above-mentioned parish commencing at Pierpoint, passes to the western side of a field belonging to Mr. Baddeley, and in which his new built house stands, then running through Rea-lane, it passes in a direct line to Mr. Green's windmill, and from thence to the national school, which it does not include, and from thence in a direct line to Comber's barn, including in the said district parish Comber's Bottom or Vale, and from Comber's barn in a direct line to Furzham windmill, and from thence in a direct line to Fishcombe Cove, when the said boundary line again touches the sea, which continues the boundary line to Pierpoint.

The said boundary line is about two miles in length.

The said district parish is bounded on the land side by fields belonging to different persons all in the parish of Brixham.

Jamaica, June 4, 1825.

SIR,
HAWNG received from the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, the following copies of the examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, relating to the capture of that vessel, and her subsequent arrival at Buff-Bay; and of an inventory of the goods saved from the wreck; you are requested to give publicity to such communication for the space of two months successively, for the information of all persons who may be concerned or interested therein, in compliance with the directions contained in 53d Geo. 3d, chap. 25, sec. 4, of the laws of this island.

Your obedient servant,

WM. JAS. STEVENSON, Rec. Genl.

To the Editor of the London Gazette.

(Copy.)

Examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the Sloop Tom Paine, before Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace in and for the Parish of St. George.

Jamaica Ss.

Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom

Paine, having been duly sworn, made oath and said; that the sloop Tom Paine was owned by John Campbell, of Montego-Bay, and that he sailed in the said sloop from Kingston, on the 31st day of March 1825, bound to Maracaibo, in the island of Cuba, consigned to a Mr. Hall, Merchant, there; and that off that place they were captured by a Colombian privateer, called the Isabella, of Maracaibo, commanded by John Bedwell, sailing with a Colombian commission; the Prizemaster and three seamen were put on board, with orders to take her to Maracaibo, and that himself and a boy only of the former crew were left on board; that the plea for capture was, that the cargo was Spanish property. And this deponent further said, that from the ignorance of the Prizemaster in navigating the said sloop to her destined port, long detention at sea, and being short of water, the said Prizemaster, after passing the several harbours of Montego-Bay, St. Ann's, Port Maria, and Annotto-Bay, finally brought the vessel into Buff's-Bay to get a supply thereof; and the reason for passing the aforesaid harbours, was his fear of detention by our vessels or the authorities ashore. The deponent further said, that he had no command over the vessel after the capture, either before or after her anchorage at Buff-Bay on 23d April; the Quartermaster and one seaman having come on shore for water, deponent jumped overboard and swam on shore; that soon after Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace, having heard of there being something suspicious in the said sloop's arrival, interrogated the deponent and the said two men; and failing in an attempt to procure the sloop's papers, from the high sea then running, they ordered the said two men into custody for that night. The deponent further said, that information was given to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, by one of the aforesaid Magistrates, of the circumstances of their arrival, who, without loss of time, repaired to the spot and obtained from the Prizemaster the register of the sloop and other papers for investigation, during which period the vessel drifted and got ashore by the breaking of the cable, which, in consequence of the high sea, soon bilged; that immediate steps were taken by the above Officers, in discharging the cargo and securing the same.
