

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1825.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of August 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the twenty-fifth day of this instant August, to Tuesday the first day of November next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of July 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the sixteenth of July last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July last: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended until the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place before the sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended until the said sixteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board, a representation from the Right Honourable Thomas Wallace, Master of His Majesty's Mint, dated the 29th of April last, in the words following, viz.

"IN pursuance of your Majesty's gracious commands, that dies for your Majesty's coinage should be prepared according to the model of a new effigy of your Majesty which I had the honour to submit for your Majesty's approbation; and also that new reverses should be prepared for the gold and silver coinages, I humbly beg leave to lay before your Majesty the annexed designs intended to be struck upon the several species, forming the whole series of your Majesty's gold and silver monies, namely:

1st. The five pound gold piece having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy of your Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius IV. Dei Gratia," and the date of the year; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield mantled, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and upon the rim of the piece the words "Decus et Tutamen" and the year of the reign.

2d. The double sovereign, or forty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the five pound piece, with the same inscription and words on the rim.

3d. The sovereign, or twenty shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield plain, surmounted by the royal crown, with the inscription "Georgius IV. Dei Gratia," and a graining upon the rim.

4th. The half sovereign, or ten shilling gold piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the sovereign, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

5th. The crown, or five shilling silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, surmounted by the royal crown and helmet with its mantlings, and the motto, "Dieu et Mon Droit," inscribed on a scroll beneath, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and upon the rim, "Decus et Tutamen," and the year of the reign.

6th. The half crown, or two shillings and six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the crown, with the inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

7th. The shilling, or twelve pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the emblems of the United Kingdom, namely, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, surmounted by the royal crest, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex Fid: Def:" and a graining upon the rim.

8th. The half shilling, or six pence silver piece, having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date; and for the reverse, the ensigns armorial as described for the shilling, with the same inscription, and a graining upon the rim.

Should it please your Majesty to approve of the said impressions to be struck upon His Majesty's coins herein respectively described, I humbly request your Majesty will be graciously pleased to signify your Majesty's orders thereon, that the coinage may be forthwith proceeded upon."

His Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of the said designs which are hereunto annexed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th. of June 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties

" and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in " any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Mecklenburgh Schwerin, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances, when imported or exported in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Mecklenburgh, than are levied on Mecklenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, Mecklenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Mecklenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever, than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in Mecklenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 2d of February 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to repeal certain duties of Customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; " to grant certain bounties on salted provisions " and silk manufactures exported; and to make

" more effectual regulations for collecting the duties " of Customs;" and by another Act, passed in the same session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to repeal the several duties and drawbacks of " Customs chargeable and allowable in Ireland, on " the importation and exportation of certain " foreign and colonial goods, wares, and mer- " chandise, and to grant other duties and draw- " backs in lieu thereof, equal to the duties and " drawbacks chargeable and allowable thereon in " Great Britain;" His Majesty is empowered, by His Order in Council, to be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes, to direct; for the convenience of trade, and for the more economical collection of the revenue, that the management of all import duties should be placed wholly under the Commissioners of Customs, or wholly under the Commissioners of Excise; and whereas it is deemed expedient, that from and after the fifth of April next, the import duties upon the following articles, namely, coffee, cocoa, tobacco and snuff, pepper, spirits, wine, and all other foreign goods now subject upon importation, to duties collected by the Excise, except tea, should be placed wholly under the management of the Commissioners of Customs; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct, that all such duties upon the articles above enumerated shall be placed, and shall be under the sole management and authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, according to the provisions and directions of the said Acts, from and after the fifth day of April next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of October 1824,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain " circumstances, to regulate the duties and draw- " backs on goods imported or exported in foreign " vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels " from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into or exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels; and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases), by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of British vessels: And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Oldenburgh, than are levied on Oldenburgh vessels; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered; that, from and after the date of this Order, Oldenburgh vessels entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in ballast or laden, direct from any of the ports of Oldenburgh, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into or exported from such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles when exported from the said ports in Oldenburgh vessels, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances, that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, September 17, 1825.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eleven o'clock in the night of Monday the 1st of August last, an unfinished house, situate in Hamilton-place, New-road, in the county of Middlesex, the property of Mr. William Oliver, of the said place, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed, together with a quantity of materials therein; and that about half past one o'clock in the morning of Wednesday the 14th instant, a house, situated near to the ones above mentioned, and belonging to the said William Oliver, was also maliciously set on fire and destroyed, together with a quantity of materials therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the premises, in either of the above-mentioned instances), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Robinson and Hine, Solicitors, Charter-house-square.

Receiver-General's Office, Kingston, Jamaica, June 4, 1825.

SIR,

HAWNG received from the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, the following copies of the examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, relating to the capture of that vessel, and her subsequent arrival at Buff-Bay; and of an inventory of the goods saved from the wreck; you are requested to give publicity to such communication for the space of two months successively, for the information of all persons who may be concerned or interested therein, in compliance with the directions contained in 53d Geo. 3d, chap. 25, sec. 4, of the laws of this island.

Your obedient servant,

WM. JAS. STEVENSON, Rec. Genl.

To the Editor of the London Gazette.

(Copy.)

Examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the Sloop Tom Paine, before Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace in and for the Parish of St. George.

Jamaica Ss.

Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, having been duly sworn, made oath and said; that the sloop Tom Paine was owned by John Campbell, of Montego-Bay, and that he sailed in the said sloop from Kingston, on the 31st day of March 1825, bound to Maracaibo, in the island of Cuba, consigned to a Mr. Hall, Merchant, there; and that off that place they were captured by a Colombian privateer, called the Isabella, of Maracaibo, commanded by John Bedwell, sailing with a Colombian commission; the Prizemaster and three seamen were put on board, with orders to take her to Maracaibo, and that himself and a boy only of the former crew were left on board; that the plea for capture was, that the cargo was Spanish property. And this deponent further said, that from the ignorance of the Prizemaster in navigating the said sloop to her destined port, long detention at sea, and being short of water, the said Prizemaster, after passing the several harbours of Montego-Bay, St. Ann's, Port Maria, and Annotto-Bay, finally brought the vessel into Buff's-Bay to get a supply thereof; and the reason for passing the aforesaid harbours, was his fear of detention by our vessels or the authorities ashore. The deponent further said, that he had no command over the vessel after the capture, either before or after her anchorage at Buff-Bay on 23d April; the Quartermaster and one seaman having come on shore for water, deponent jumped overboard and swam on shore; that soon after Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace, having heard of there being something suspicious in the said sloop's arrival, interrogated the deponent and the said two men; and failing in an attempt to procure the sloop's papers, from the high sea then running, they ordered the said two men into custody for that night. The deponent further said, that information was given to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, by one of the aforesaid Magistrates, of the circumstances of their arrival, who, without loss of time, repaired to the spot and obtained from the Prizemaster the register of the sloop and other papers for investigation, during which period the vessel drifted and got ashore by the breaking of the cable, which, in consequence of the high sea, soon bilged; that immediate steps were taken by the above Officers, in discharging the cargo and securing the same.

DEMERARY and ESSEQUEBO

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.:

Firstly.—In the month of May 1826, the cotton plantation Manilla, situate on the East Sea Coast of Demerary, the property of Thomas Ince.

Secondly.—In the month of June of same year, the sugar plantation Good Intent, situate on the West Bank of the River Demerary, the property of the heirs of John Haywood.

Thirdly.—In the month of August of same year, the sugar plantation Sophienbury, situated on Tyet Island, River Essequibo, the property of E. H. Dalton.

The judicium of præ et concurrentiæ on the nett proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice, three months after the respective days of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the nett proceeds of said plantations, are herewith, by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their respective Sessions, in the following months, viz.

In the month of August, for plantation Manilla; October, for plantation Good Intent; and in the month of December, for plantation Sophienbury, under a penalty that against the non-appearsers will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventories of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London; and P. I. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerary and Essequibo, this 22d July 1825.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Pursuant to an Order of His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, of this day's date,

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, at the request of C. A. Van Grovesin and Herman Kleyn, provisionally appointed as Executors, in this Colony, of the last will and testament of Cornelis Gehard Storm Van S'Gravesande, deceased, do hereby, by edict, ad valvas curiæ, summon all known and unknown Creditors of the estate of said Cornelis Gehard Storm Van S'Gravesande, deceased, and of his plantation Onderneeming and Mon Bijou, situated in Canal No. 1, Demerary, to appear in person, or by their Attorney, before the bar of the Honourable Counselor's Commissary attending at the Ordinary fourteen days Roll-Court, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 19th day of the month of December next, and following days, then and there to render in their respective claims, properly attested and substantiated, in due form, against said estate.

Whereas in default of which will be proceeded against the non-appearsers according to law.—Demerary, 7th July 1825.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Pursuant to an Order of His Honour the President of the Honourable the Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, dated the 26th instant,

I, the undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, at the request of Jean Francois Sils, in quality as Executor in these Colonies to the last will and testament of George Antoine Rozier de Montauroux, native of Milhau, Department de l'Aveiron, in the Kingdom of France, otherwise known in these Colonies as George Montauroux, late proprietor of plantation Great Diamond, do hereby, by edict, ad valvas curiæ, summon all known and unknown creditors of the estate of said George Antoine Rozier de Montauroux, native of Milhau, Department de l'Aveiron, in the Kingdom of France, as also of his plantation, Great Diamond, to appear in person or by their Attorney, before the bar of the Honourable Counsellor Commissary attending the Ordinary fourteen days Roll-Court, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 19th day of the month of December next, and following days, then and there to render in their respective claims, properly attested and substantiated, and in due form, against said estate.

Whereas in default of which will be proceeded against the non-appearsers according to law.—Demerary, the 28th June 1825.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Valuable Leasehold Estate and Improved Rents, amply secured by the Catherine Wheel Inn and Brewery, Egham, Surrey; Reversionary Interest in the Funds; Policy of Assurance for 1000l. in the Rock Life Assurance, and Leasehold Property in the Poultry.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Ellis, on Saturday the 22d of October 1825, at Twelve o'Clock, at the Sale-Rooms, before the Commissioners of Bankrupts, Basinghall-Street, by order of the Assignees of Mr. Charles Hale, late of the Poultry, and of Egham, Surrey, a Bankrupt, and by consent of the mortgagees.

A valuable leasehold estate, comprising that highly respectable Inn the Catherine Wheel, at the entrance of the Town of Egham, let on lease to a respectable tenant for ten years at 250*l.* per annum; also a most compact ale and table beer brewery now on hand, recently erected and finished in the most complete manner, together with the whole of the valuable plant; the premises are held for an unexpired term of forty years at 25*l.* per annum.

The Bankrupt's interest in one fifth part of 1550*l.* 4 per cent. annuities; 1400*l.* 8 per cent. reduced, and 935*l.* 4 per cent. reduced; also a policy of 1009*l.* in the Rock Life Assurance Company, and valuable improved rent of 140*l.* per annum, well secured by leasehold premises situate in Bird-in-Hand-Court, Poutry.

Printed particulars will be ready for delivery fourteen days prior to the sale, which may be had of Messrs. Brown and Marten, Solicitors to the Commission, Commercial-Chambers, Mincing-Lane; at the Bush, Staines; and of Mr. Ellis, 36, Fenchurch-Street.

Freehold and Copyhold Estates in the County of Middlesex, and a Leasehold Estate in the County of Bedford.

NO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Andrew versus Andrew, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 20th day of October 1825, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in five lots;

A very valuable and improvable freehold and copyhold estate, situate at Sandy-End, in the Parish of Fulham, in the County of Middlesex, comprising three brick built and tiled dwelling-houses, with packing-sheds, barn, stables, and all other necessary and convenient out-buildings, and about 21 acres, or thereabouts, of valuable freehold garden-ground and orcharding, with an orrier-bed thereto adjoining, and also about six acres of copyhold garden-ground, held of the manor of Fulham, considered to be nearly equal in value to freehold.—This estate is now let upon leases to different tenants, producing an annual rental of about £231. per annum, and the land-tax upon the whole estate is redeemed.—The copyhold part is subject to a small fine upon death or alienation, and to a quit-rent of 6*s.* 5*d.* per annum.

Also certain valuable leasehold farms, situate in the Parishes of Roxton and Colsden, in the County of Bedford, known by the several names of the Roxton Farm, Colsden-Lodge Farm, and Colsden-Grange Farm, containing in the whole, by admeasurement, 679*A.* 1*R.* 35*P.* of arable, pasture, meadow, and wood land.

This estate is held under a lease from the Master, Fellows, and Scholars of Trinity-College, Cambridge, for a term of 16 years, from Michaelmas 1824, and is subject to the payment of a rent of £16. per annum, and also 12 quarters of wheat and 16 quarters of malt and barley, and the lease is renewable every seven years, upon payment of a fine.—These farms are now held by yearly tenants, at rent amounting in the whole to £611. 14*s.* 2*d.* per annum.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Street, Millington, and Gilbert, Solicitors, Philpot-Lane, London; of Mr. Bloodworth, Surveyor, Kimbolton, Huntingdonshire; and at the Cock Inn, at Eaton Socon, in the County of Bedford.

Freehold Estate in the County of Bedford.

NO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Andrew v. Andrew, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Cock Inn, at Eaton Socon, in the County of Bedford, on Tuesday the 27th day of October 1825, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, in three lots.

Certain freehold land and cottages situate in the several parishes of Roxton and Colsden, in the County of Bedford, containing by admeasurement 40*A.* 3*R.* 2*P.* or thereabouts, let to tenants from year to year at rents amounting together to 99*l.* 8*s.* per annum, subject to a deduction of 30*s.* per annum for land tax.

The timber upon the estate has been valued at 41*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.* and is to be taken by the purchasers at that price in addition to their purchase money.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Street, Millington, and Gilbert, Solicitors, Philpot-Lane, London; of Mr. Bloodworth, Surveyor, Kimbolton, Huntingdonshire; and at the Cock Inn, at Eaton Socon, in the County of Bedford.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Peshall against Hughes, the unsatisfied mortgagees and incumbrancers of the estates of Francis Edwards, late of the Borough of Leominster, in the County of Hereford, and Ironmaster at Walsall, in the County of Stafford, deceased are, on or before the 7th day of November 1825, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Nethercift v.
