At the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Tuesday the first day of November next, to Thursday the fifth day of January next.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station which, by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, has been, or may be, assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds:" And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other vessel in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), arriving in the United Kingdom, and coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council: And whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford-Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Medical Attendant or Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of the Customs in the Quarantine Service, shall go under any pretence whatever within the limits so marked out, except in case of special necessity and emergency, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant; and all vessels being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine which may be ordered to perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, shall come to an anchor within the limits of the said yellow buoys, in such place as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
