NOTICE TO MARINERS.
RHINS OF ISLAY LIGHT-HOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a light-house has been erected at the Rhins Point of the island of Islay, in the county of Argyll, which will be lighted on Tuesday the 15th day of November next, and continue thereafter to be exhibited every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following Specification of the Position of the Light-house, and the Appearance of the Light, is given by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

The Rhins of Islay Light-House is situate on the northern side of the entrance to Loch-Indaal, upon the small island of Oversa, in lat. 55 deg. 41 min. N. and lon. 6 deg. 29 min. W. It bears by compass from the Mull of Kinloch N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 10 miles; and from the Stationary Light of the Mull of Kintyre N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 33 miles. From the north eastern extremity of the island of Rachlin N. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 25 miles. From the Revolving Light of Innistrathul E. distant 28 miles. From the Rocks of Skerry Vore, which lie 14 miles S. W. from Tiree, the Rhins Light-house bears S. distant 38 miles. From the Rocks of Duheertach, lying 11 miles S. W. from Icolmkill, the Light-house bears S. S. W. distant 28 miles, and from Tanvorehead S. W. by S. distant $6\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

This light will be known to Mariners as a distinguishing light, exhibiting from the same lantern the effects of a stationary and a revolving light. To a distant observer, it will appear like a star of the first magnitude, producing a bright flash of light at every 12 seconds of time, without those intervals of total darkness which characterise other revolving lights upon the coast.

The light will be from oil, with reflectors, elevated 150 feet above the medium level of the sea. In clear weather it will be visible at the distance of 6 leagues, and intermediately according to the state of the atmosphere. The lantern is open toward Laggan-Bay, within Loch-Indaal, and seaward from the Mull of Kinloch to Tanvorehead.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.

Thomas Pain, Registrar.

Receiver-General's-Office, Kingston,
Jamaica, June 4, 1825.

SIR,

HAVING received from the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, the following copies of the examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, relating to the capture of that vessel, and her subsequent arrival at Buff-Bay; and of an inventory of the goods saved from the wreck; you are requested to give publicity to such communication for the space of two months successively, for the information of all persons who may be concerned or interested therein, in compliance with the directions contained in 53d Geo. 3d, chap. 25, sec. 4, of the laws of this island.

Your obedient servant,

WM. JAS. STEVENSON, Rec. Genl.

To the Editor of the London Gazette.

Examination of Patrick Smith, late Master of the Sloop Tom Paine, before Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace in and for the Parish of St. George.

Jamaica Ss.

Patrick Smith, late Master of the sloop Tom Paine, having been duly sworn, made oath and said; that the sloop Tom Paine was owned by John Campbell, of Montego-Bay, and that he sailed in the said sloop from Kingston, on the 31st day of March 1825, bound to Maracaibo, in the island of Cuba, consigned to a Mr. Hall, Merchant, there; and that off that place they were captured by a Colombian privateer, called the Isabella, of Maracaibo, commanded by John Bedwell, sailing with a Colombian commission; the Prizemaster and three seamen were put on board, with orders to take her to Maracaibo, and that himself and a boy only of the former crew were left on board; that the plea for capture was, that the cargo was Spanish property. And this deponent further said, that from the ignorance of the Prizemaster in navigating the said sloop to her destined port, long detention at sea, and being short of water, the said Prizemaster, after passing the several harbours of Montego-Bay, St. Ann's, Port Maria, and Annotto-Bay, finally brought the vessel into Buff's-Bay to get a supply thereof; and the reason for passing the aforesaid harbours, was his fear of detention by our vessels or the authorities ashore. The deponent further said, that he had no command over the vessel after the capture, either before or after her anchorage at Buff-Bay on 23d April; the Quartermaster and one seaman having come on shore for water, deponent jumped overboard and swam on shore; that soon after Robert G. Kirkland and William Robertson, Esqrs. Justices of the Peace, having heard of there being something suspicious in the said sloop's arrival, interrogated the deponent and the said two men; and failing in an attempt to procure the sloop's papers, from the high sea then running, they ordered the said two men into custody for that night. The deponent further said, that information was given to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at Annotto-Bay, by one of the aforesaid Magistrates, of the circumstances of their arrival, who, without loss of time, repaired to the spot and obtained from the Prizemaster the register of the sloop and other papers for investigation, during which period the vessel drifted and got ashore by the breaking of the cable, which, in consequence of the high sea, soon bilged; that immediate steps were taken by the above Officers, in discharging the cargo and securing the same.
