

League between his Imperial Majesty and the Crown of Poland, is dispatched back with Bills of Exchange for 400 thousand Rixins, which are to be paid to that King.

Liege, April 24. The Magistrates of this City do Labour all they can to dispose the Commonalty to an Agreement, and in order therunto have prevailed with them to choose 32 Persons, one out of each Company or Trade, who are to meet with the Deputies chosen by the Magistrates, to consider of a speedy and effectual way for the determining the differences that do depend between their Prince and them; and in the first place it is proposed, That to shew their willingness to give his Electoral Highness satisfaction, They will consent to the Tax of the 60th Penny, and to the Impost upon Beer.

Cologne, April 25. From Francfort we have an account of the Death of the Bishop of Bamberg, and that the Deputies which met at Amsburg were separated without taking any final Resolution upon the Proposals that have been made for the bringing the Circle of Suabia into the Alliance which the Circles of Franconia and the Upper-Rhine have lately made with the Emperor. From Katibonne of the 19th they write, That the two Colledges cannot agree in their Opinions, by reason whereof the Resolution they took some time since to enter into a Negotiation with the Count de Crecy, for the composing the differences between the Empire and the Crown of France, has not yet had any effect.

Hamburg, April 23. Our Letters from Copenhagen of the 16th Instant give an account, That the Preparations are continued there with great diligence; That the King will have a Fleet of 36 Men of War at Sea the next Month, and an Army of 30000 Men in the Field, which are to Rendezvous, the 11th of May, on the Croperheyde; That accordingly the Danish Troops are on their march, and that the King will part from Copenhagen about the end of this Month, for Holstein. From Berlin they write, That Monsieur Bierman, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, was arrived at Potsdam (where the Elector of Brandenburg at present is) and had a private Audience of his Electoral Highness; and that it is said his business is to engage his Electoral Highness to enter into the League now lately concluded between the King of Denmark and the Crown of France. The Polish Letters tell us, That they do already begin to raise Men in that Kingdom for the forming the Army which that Crown, pursuant to the League now concluded with the Emperor, is to employ against the Turks, and that the Affair of the Crown-Treasurer, Count Morsein, is put off till the next Dye.

League, April 30. The six Men of War, which the Admiralty of Amsterdam does Build as their Quota of the 18 Ships which the States-General resolved should be built this Year, are almost finished, and three of them are already Launched; but the other Admiralties are not so forward, and particularly that of Friseland, where they have not yet begun the Ships they are to Build. The Heer Van Owerkerke, Master of the Horse to the Prince of Orange, and Colonel of his Guards du Corps, has been very dangerously ill, but is at present somewhat better. The Actions of the East-India

Company in these Countreys are fallen to 399. The Northern Letters say, That there is some appearance of an accommodation of the differences between the King of Denmark, and the Duke of Holstein.

Paris, May 1. The 26th past the Sieur Heinsius, Envoy Extraordinary from the States-General of the United Provinces, was Conducted to his Audience of their Majesties, &c. as the Si ur Haxthausen, Envoy from the Duke of Holstein-Gottorp, was the day following. Monsieur du Quesne is at present at Thoulon, & hasten the Preparations that are making there against the Algerines. There are Letters from Italy which say the Bishop of Fano, the Popes Nuncio, is on his Journey hither, but the last Letters from Rome made no mention of it.

Deal, April 23. This day came into the Downs the Scipio Africanus, bound for East-India: There are likewise in the Downs four other East-India Ships, the Josias, the George, the Fleece, and the Success, and about 20 Merchant Ships more, outward bound.

Advertisements.

☞ The Fire of the Altar, or certain Directions how to raise the Soul into Holy Flames, before, at, and after the Receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Lords Supper; With suitable Prayers and Devotions. To which is prefixed a Dialogue betwixt a Christian and his own Conscience, concerning the true nature of the Christian Religion. Intended chiefly for the Inhabitants of St. Mary-le-Strand, and the Precinct of the Savoy; By Anthony Horneck D. D. Sold by Samuel Lowndes, over against Exeter-Exchange in the Strand.

William Ward, Aged about 20, black Hair, well set, took from the Moulie of Mr William Ashley, of Tamworth in the County of Stafford, the 21 Instant, a considerable Sum of Mopey, and a bay Mare, about nine or ten Years old, between 3 and 14 hands, and Paces very well. Whoever gives Notice of the said Ward to Mr. Ashley aforesaid, or to Mr. John Amery, Bookseller in Fleet-Street, so as he be Apprehended, shall have 40s. Reward, and their Charges born.

Rehobald Johnstone, a Laet-man, living in Newport Pag-nely, went from London on the sixth Instant, intending for Tedbury in Gloucestershire, being about 27 Years of Age, of a low Stature, freights brown Hair, in a dark Cloth Coat and Buff Breeches, with a Box of Lace, upon a bay Nag, about 10 years old, 14 hands, fallen in the Crest. Whoever gives notice where he is to Mr. Thompson at the Angel and Crown in Cheap-side, shall be well Rewarded.

Tolen on the 17th Instant from Sir Herbert Perrot, of Wellington, out of his Stable, a brown-black Coach-Mare, with a white streak down the Face, and a green Plush saddle, the Cover being black, and Lined with green Bay. Whoever gives notice of the said Mare to Mr. Matthew Kent, a Tailor, at the black Balcony in Suffolk-street, or to Mr. Leison Thomas, Ironmonger in Hereford, shall be well Rewarded.

Amuel Marting, a slight thin Man, about 30 Years old, in a Cinamon-coloured Suit and a white Hat, with a Cut about an Inch long in his Left Check, pretends to be a Tile-maker or a Brick maker, but hath lately drawn Drink, went away from Mr. James Ward's House in Folkstone in Kent, on the first of this Instant April, with a considerable Sum of Money of the said James Ward's. Whoever gives Notice of him to Major Richard Burdon on Great Tower-Hill London, or to Mr. James Ward, at the White-Hart Inn in Folkstone in Kent, shall have 40s Reward.

Out from Alton under-Lind, in Lancashire, a dark bay Horse, his hind Feet white, a black bob Tail, a black Mane, a Scar on his Forehead, a Snip on his Nose, about 16 hands high, and supposed to be taken by one James Johnson, of a black Swarthy Complexion, with a down-look, a round full Face, grey Ey'd a Scar on his left Brow, a black Mole on his Right Cheek, of a middle Stature, with black Hair, a sad Cic-namoni-coloured close-Coat, with large white bright Buttons, a black Hat, and a light Iron-grey Riding Coat. Whoever gives notice of the Person or Horse to Mr. William Keales, Post-Master in Manchester, or to Mr. Newton at Blossoms-Inn, London, shall be well Rewarded.