NOTICE TO MARINERS.

GALLOPER LIGHT.

Trinity-House, London, November 2, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the temporary light vessel which parted from her moorings at the Galloper Shoal, in the gale on the 21st ultimo, has resumed her station, and will exhibit the light thereat as usual.

By command of the Corporation,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

NEWHAVEN HARBOUR, SUSSEX.

November 1, 1825.

THE Commissioners and Trustees of the above Harbour do hereby give notice, that two lights are placed on the western pier on a traversing bar, to point out the Channel for eight months in the year, from the 1st day of September to the 1st day of May inclusive, and are lighted from the dusk of the evening and continue burning till day light in the morning. Bring the lights directly one above the other for the Channel—the inshore light is six feet higher than the seaward light.

The Commissioners and Trustees have further directed, in order to enable vessels to run for the harbour when the tide will permit; that a flag shall be hoisted at the flag-staff on the western pier in the day time, when there is ten feet water over the bar, and continue there till the water has fallen to that depth, and that a light shall be hoisted at the flag-staff during the night and continue so long as there shall be ten feet water over the bar.

One read buoy and two white on the east side of the Channel lead into the harbour, keeping two black buoys on the west.

Navy-Office, October 28, 1825.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st July to the 30th September last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 7th, 8th, and 9th of November, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 10th, 11th, 14th, 15th, and 16th of November, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 17th and 18th of November, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be en"titled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th September last, will commence paying on the 7th of November; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to establish a Company, to be called the Independent Gas Light and Coke Company, and to grant certain powers and authorities thereto for making, inflammable air and gas, and for lighting therewith the several streets and places, and also the private houses and shops situated in the respective parishes of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and Saint Luke, Old-street, both in the county of Middlesex; and also for lighting other parishes and places in the city of London and county of Middlesex.—Dated this 4th day of November 1825.

C. Woodward, Solicitor for the Bill, 31, New Broad-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for enabling the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to purchase and take down four houses adjoining each other, situate on the north side of Threadneedle-street, in the city of London, and the most westerly of which said four houses forms the south-east corner of the street called Bartholomew-lane fronting the north entrance of the Royal Exchange, in the city of London, and which said four houses are part of the glebe belonging to the rectory of the parish church of Saint Bartholomew, situate on the east side of Bartholomew-lane; and also to make a foot passage through the lower part of the tower of the said church adjoining the said houses.

Winter, Kaye, and Freshfield, Solicitors to the Bank of England.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for making and maintaining a convenient avenue and approach for carriages and foot passengers to New Inn from the east side of Newcastle-street, in the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 5th day of November 1825.

Holme, Frampton, and Loftus, Solicitors,
