

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1825.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station which, by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, has been, or may be, assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds:" And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other vessel in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), arriving in the United Kingdom, and coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council: And whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford-Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Medical Attendant or Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of the Customs in the Quarantine Service, shall go under any pretence whatever within the limits so marked out, except in case of special necessity and emergency, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant; and all vessels being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine which may be ordered to perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, shall come to an anchor within the limits of the said yellow buoys, in such place as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Butler,

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July last, it is directed, that all ships or vessels liable to quarantine, as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Cromarty-Bay, and that such of them as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Carsthorn; it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the performance of quarantine at Cromarty-Bay and Carsthorn, be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and His Majesty is pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Inverness, Caithness, Zetland, and Orkney, Stornaway,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within any or either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Inverkeithing-Bay; and that such ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Dumfries and Kirkcendbright,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Holy Lock, in the Frith of Clyde.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County and County and City of Gloucester, and of the County and City of Bristol.

Royal South Gloucester Militia.

Humphrey Austin, jun. Esq. to be Captain, vice Lucas, resigned. Dated 24th October 1825.

Royal North Gloucester Militia.

Thomas Cox, Gent. to be Ensign. Dated 27th October 1825.

Whitehall, October 20, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Bragge Prowse, of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his cousin, William Hunt Priin, of Charlton-park, in the county of Gloucester, Esq. deceased, henceforth assume and take the surname of Priin, instead of that of Prowse, and also bear the arms of the said testator, quarterly with his own family arms; such arms being duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 7, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Peacocke, Esq. a Major in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Portuguese Service, His royal licence and permission, that he may, in compliance with the earnest desire expressed by His Most Faithful Majesty John the Sixth, King of Portugal, accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which that Sovereign was pleased to confer upon him, in consideration of his distinguished conduct while in the actual service of His Most Faithful Majesty; provided, nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any stile, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that His Majesty's said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in the College of Arms.

Admiralty-Office, November 5, 1825.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due the 30th September last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the Charity, viz.

The Widows of Surgeons, Assistant-Surgeons, Pursers, and Boatswains, on Friday the 11th instant;

And the Widows of Gunners and Carpenters, on Saturday the 12th instant;

and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th instant, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near their respective residences. J. W. Croker.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

GALLOPER LIGHT.

Trinity-House, London, November 7, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the vessel exhibiting the temporary light at the Galloper Shoal, having received damage in the gale of wind on Thursday the 3d instant, has been again compelled to quit her station.

The exhibition of the said light is, therefore, for the present, unavoidably suspended; but the new light vessel which has been for some time past in preparation for that station, being nearly completed, will be moored thereat and display the light as usual in a few days.

By command of the Corporation,
J. Herbert, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

RHINS OF ISLAY LIGHT-HOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a light-house has been erected at the Rhins Point of the island of Islay, in the county of Argyll, which will be lighted on Tuesday the 15th day of November next, and continue thereafter to be exhibited every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following Specification of the Position of the Light-house, and the Appearance of the Light, is given by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

The Rhins of Islay Light-House is situate on the northern side of the entrance to Loch-Indaal, upon the small island of Oversa, in lat. 55 deg. 41 min. N. and lon. 6 deg. 29 min. W. It bears by compass from the Mull of Kinboe N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 10 miles; and from the Stationary Light of the Mull of Kintyre N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. distant 33 miles. From the north eastern extremity of the island of Rachlin N. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 25 miles. From the Revolving Light of Innistrathul E. distant 28 miles. From the Rocks of Skerry Vore, which lie 14 miles S. W. from Tiree, the Rhins Light-house bears S. distant 38 miles. From the Rocks of Duheertach, lying 11 miles S. W. from Icolmkill, the Light-house bears S. S. W. distant 28 miles, and from Tanvorehead S. W. by S. distant $6\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

This light will be known to Mariners as a distinguishing light, exhibiting from the same lantern the effects of a stationary and a revolving light. To a distant observer, it will appear like a star of the first magnitude, producing a bright flash of light at every 12 seconds of time, without those intervals of total darkness which characterise other revolving lights upon the coast.

The light will be from oil, with reflectors, elevated 150 feet above the medium level of the sea. In clear weather it will be visible at the distance of 6 leagues, and intermediately according to the state of the atmosphere. The lantern is open toward Laggan-Bay, within Loch-Indaal, and seaward from the Mull of Kinboe to Tanvorehead.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses,
C. Cunningham, Secretary.
Edinburgh, 10th October 1825.

A 2

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

WHEREAS by the 40th Geo. 3d, commonly called the School of Physic Act, it is enacted, that it may be lawful for the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland to direct, that any of the King's Professors shall continue to hold their Professorships for another term of seven years after the expiration of the term for which they were elected, provided that the said President and Fellows do give three months notice previous to the time at which the election to such Professorships would otherwise have been held, in the Dublin and London Gazettes, of such their direction; and whereas the King's Professorship of the practice of Medicine, now held by Doctor Martin Tuomy, will become vacant on the 6th of February next, this is to give notice, that the President and Fellows of the said College of Physicians have, at a meeting of said College held on the 29th day of October last, directed, that the said Doctor Martin Tuomy shall continue to hold said Professorship for the term of seven years, to commence from the 6th of February next, pursuant to the powers vested in them by the said recited Act.

Jonathan Osborne, M.D. Registrar of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for forming the wards of Great Ilford and Chadwell, in the parish of Barking, in the county of Essex, or some part of the same wards, into a separate and distinct parish for all ecclesiastical and parochial purposes, and for erecting a church and providing a church-yard, cemetery, or burial-ground therein, and for other purposes relating thereto respectively; in which Bill provision is intended to be made for raising part of the money necessary for erecting and providing such church, church-yard, cemetery, or burial-ground, by a rate on all lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the said wards of Great Ilford and Chadwell, or such part of the same wards as shall constitute the intended new parish, and for establishing certain rules, orders, and regulations for carrying the aforesaid purposes into full and complete effect; in which Bill provision is also intended to be made for repealing so much of an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for providing a proper work-house, and better regulating the poor within the parish of Barking, in the county of Essex, and for regulating the common wharf within the town of Barking," as relates to the said wards of Great Ilford and Chadwell, or such part of the same wards as shall constitute such new intended parish.—Dated the 2d day of November 1825.

Sterry, Tweed, and Sterry, Solicitors for the Bill, Romford.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining powers to make a new street from or near the northern end or approach of Southwark Bridge, near Thames-street, in the city of London, to communicate with Charlotte-row, near Mansion-house-street, and Cornhill, in the said city, and to divert, alter, widen and improve such parts of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys and passages as will form entrances into the said new street, or any of them, and to stop up and build upon such part of the present street called Tower Royal, and any other of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys and passages as may be necessary for effecting the improvement proposed to be made by the said new street; all which said intended new street and streets, lanes, courts, alleys and passages, are situate within or will pass through or into the parishes of St. Michael, Paternoster Royale, and St. Martin Vintry, or in the Vintry, St. Thomas, opposite St. Anthony, commonly called St. Antholin, and St. John the Baptist upon Walbrook, St. Bennetts-shire Hogg and St. Stephen Walbrook, St. Mary Colechurch, and St. Mildred in the Poultry, St. Mary Woolchurchaw, and St. Pancras Soper, or one of them, in the said city of London.—November 7, 1825.

Ravenhill and Crook, No. 29, Poultry.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act for opening, forming, making and maintaining, under certain restrictions as to the use thereof, a new street or way from, or from near to a certain house, in the occupation of Mary Hornby, in Carey-street, Lincoln's-Inn, in the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, and passing thence in or nearly in a straight line across Little Shire-lane, and part of Star-court to the north-end of Picket-place, in the Strand, near the east-end of Saint Clement's church, in the said parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the said county; and that it is intended by such Act to take powers for the sale and purchase (upon compulsion or otherwise) of the several lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, situate and lying within the boundaries or limits hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say), commencing with and including the premises in the occupation of Mr. James Russell, at the north-western corner of New court, in Carey-street, and extending southward along the eastern boundary wall of New Boswell-court, to Little Shire-lane, then running westward to and including a house numbered 18, in Old Boswell-court, then running southward across Old Boswell-court, and extending westward and then southward across the western entrance to Newcastle-court, to Clement's-lane, including the whole of the eastern-side of Old Boswell-court, and thence extending further south to the northern side of the Sun public-house, on the eastern side of Clement's-lane, thence eastward in a line to the west-side of Picket-place, thence further eastward, crossing the south-ends of Star-court and Crown-court, to and including No. 3, Ship-place, then running northward, including parts of the west side of Ship-place and Ship-yard, across Little Shire-lane, to and including Hemlock-court, and the Punch Bowl public-house, in the occupation of George Plaskett, and the premises in the occupation of Alexander Caley, at the back thereof, thence extending westward to a point in a line with and extending to the north-eastern corner of premises, in the occupation of William Medland, in Carey-street, and thence extending westward across the north-ends of Horse Shoe-court, Hemlock-court, and New-court, to the western-side of the said premises, in the occupation of the said James Russell, in Carey-street aforesaid, in which circuit or space is included the whole of New-court, part of Old Boswell-court, the whole of Newcastle-court, Star-court, Cromwell otherwise Chamberlain-place, Crown-court, Crown-place, the greater part of Little Shire-lane, part of the back of premises on the west-side of Serles-place, otherwise Great Shire-lane, the whole of Hemlock-court, and Horse Shoe-court; and also that it is intended by such Act to take power for the sale and purchase of the premises in the occupation of Samuel M'Arthur, situate at the south-eastern corner of Carey-street and Searle-street, and the premises adjoining eastward thereto, in the occupation of William Waller; and that it is also intended to take powers for the stopping up, diverting, altering, widening, and improving of such of the present streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages, or of some parts thereof respectively, as may form entrances into or may interfere with the said intended new-street, or as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes of such Act, all which said premises so intended to be taken and used, and all which said streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages so intended to be stopped up, diverted, altered, widened and improved for the purposes of the said intended Act, are situate within the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex.—November 5, 1825.

Septimus Burton, 11, Lincoln's-Inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining powers to widen and improve the streets called Holborn-hill, Holborn-bridge, Snow-hill, and Cow-lane otherwise called King-street, on the north and west sides thereof from Union-court on Holborn-hill to John's-court near Cow-lane both inclusive; and to form a new street, to commence at Holborn-bridge opposite to the north end of the present Fleet-market, so as to continue the street called Fleet-market northward to the Sessions-house for the county of Middlesex on Clerkenwell-green; and to widen the present communication between Turnmill-street and Clerkenwell-green, at the south side of the said Sessions-house to the north-west corner of Red Lion-street inclusive: also to form another new street, to commence at Snow-hill, to run northward into Turnmill-street at or near the junction of Turnmill-street with Cow-cross-street: also to widen Turnmill-street through the whole extent thereof on both sides, so as to make an improved communication between the west end of Cow-cross-street and the said Sessions-house: also to stop up the passage or way through Field-lane and to pull down the houses on both sides thereof, and to form a new street to commence from or near the centre of Field-lane, to run into and join Great Saffron-hill at or near Caroline-court: also to widen Charles-street, Hatton-garden, on both sides thereof from Bleeding-heart-yard to Saffron-hill, and to make a carriage road or street, or continuation of Charles-street, from the east end of Charles-street aforesaid to Cow-cross-street, so as to form a carriage communication between Hatton-garden and Cow-cross-street: also to form a new street from the end of Cross-street, Hatton-garden, to Turnmill-street: also to form a new street from Hatton-wall to the said Sessions-house: also to form a new street from the said last-mentioned new street into the before-mentioned continuation of Charles-street to Cow-cross-street: also to widen and vary the direction of Chick-lane or West-street, so as to improve the communication of the same with West-smithfield; also to divert, alter, widen and improve such parts of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys, and passages as will form entrances into the said intended new streets, or any of them; and to make other such new streets, ways, and passages as may be necessary to connect the said intended new streets or improved streets with each other, or otherwise improve the same; and also to make common and public slaughter-houses on the scite of Green-hill's-rents, Red-lion-alley, Durham-yard, and other buildings circumscribed by Cow-cross-street on the north side, Smithfield-bars on the east, Smithfield and West-street on the south, and Sharp's-alley on the west side, except the scite of the workhouse and burial ground of the parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the city of London; and to make carriage and foot bridges where necessary over the River-fleet; also water-ways and drains, and generally to improve the scite circumscribed by Snow-hill and Holborn-bridge and part of Holborn-hill on the south; Union-court and Bleeding-heart-yard, Kirby-street, Hat-and-tun-yard, and Little Saffron-hill on the west; Ray-street and Clerkenwell-green on the north; Ray-street, Clerkenwell-green, Red Lion-street, Benjamin-street, Falkner's-court, Cow-cross-street, Smithfield-bars, Smithfield, and Cow-lane on the east: all which said intended new streets, lanes, courts, alleys, passages, bridges, water-ways, drains, communications, slaughter-houses, erections, ways, paths, or roads are proposed to be situate within or pass into or through the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, both in the city of London and county of Middlesex; the parish of St. Sepulchre, both in the city of London and county of Middlesex; the liberty of Saffron-hill and Ely-rents, in the county of Middlesex; the parish of St. John, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex; and the parish of St. James, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex.—Dated this 18th day of October 1825.

James Harmer, Solicitor; 87, Hatton-garden.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 13th day of December 1824, application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to vest certain lands, messuages, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, (devised by the will of Edmund Walcott, deceased, to the Parsons and Churchwardens of the respective parishes of
