NOTICE TO MARINERS.

RHINS OF ISLAY LIGHT-HOUSE.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give notice, that a light-house has been erected at the Rhins Point of the island of Islay, in the county of Argyll, which will be lighted on Tuesday the 15th day of November next,
and continue thereafter to be exhibited every night,
from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following Specification of the Position of the Light-house, and the Appearance of the Light, is given by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners.

The Rhins of Islay Light-House is situate on the northern side of the entrance to Loch-Indaal, upon the small island of Oversa, in lat. 55 deg.
41 min. N. and lon. 6 deg. 29 min. W. It bears by compass from the Mull of Kintoe N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 10 miles; and from the Stationary Light of the Mull of Kintyre N. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 33 miles. From the north eastern extremity of the island of Rachlin N. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 25 miles. From the Revolving Light of Innistrathul
E. distant 28 miles. From the Rocks of Skerry Vore, which lie 14 miles S. W. from Tiree, the Rhins Light-house bears S. distant 38 miles. From the Rocks of Duheertach, lying 11 miles S. W.
from Icolmkill, the Light-house bears S. S. W. distant 28 miles, and from Tanvorehead S. W. by S. distant 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

This light will be known to Mariners as a distinguishing light, exhibiting from the same lantern the effects of a stationary and a revolving light.
To a distant observer, it will appear like a star of the first magnitude, producing a bright flash of light at every 12 seconds of time, without those intervals of total darkness which characterise other revolving lights upon the coast.

The light will be from oil, with reflectors, elevated 150 feet above the medium level of the sea. In clear weather it will be visible at the distance of 6 leagues, and intermediately according to the state of the atmosphere. The lantern is open toward Laggan Bay, within Loch Indaal, and seaward from the Moll of Kinboe to Tanvorenhead.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.
Edinburgh, 10th October 1825.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 8th of November 1825, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening and improving the entrance into the City of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snow-hill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, a sum of money for those purposes;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 8th day of May next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 8th day of May next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £100,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the thirty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 8th day of May, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and sixty-four bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 69 to 232, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
Guildhall, November 11, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining powers to widen and improve the streets called Holborn-hill, Holborn-bridge, Snow-hill, and Cow-lane otherwise called King-street, on the north and west sides thereof from Union-court on Holborn-hill to John's-court near Cow-lane both inclusive; and to form a new street, to commence at Holborn-bridge opposite to the north end of the present Fleet-market, so as to continue the street called Fleet-market northward to the Sessions-house for the county of Middlesex on Clerkenwell-green; and to widen the present communication between Turnmill-street and Clerkenwell-green, at the south side of the said Sessions-house to the north-west corner of Red Lion-street inclusive: also to form another new street, to commence at Snow-hill, to run northward into Turnmill-street at or near the junction of Turnmill-street with Cow-cross-street: also to widen Turnmill-street through the whole extent thereof on both sides, so as to make an improved communication between the west end of Cow-cross-street and the said Sessions-house: also to stop up the passage or way through Field-lane and to pull down the houses on both sides thereof, and to form a new street to commence from or near the centre of Field-lane, to run into and join Great Saffron-hill at or near Caroline-court: also to widen Charles-street, Hatton-garden, on both sides thereof from Bleeding-heart-yard to Saffron-hill, and to make a carriage road or street, or continuation of Charles-street, from the east end of Charles-street aforesaid to Cow-cross-street, so as to form a carriage communication between Hatton-garden and Cow-cross-street: also to form a new street from the end of Cross-street, Hatton-garden, to Turnmill-street: also to form a new street from Hatton-wall to the said Sessions-house: also to form a new street from the said last-mentioned new street into the before-mentioned continuation of Charles-street to Cow-cross-street: also to widen and vary the direction of Chick-lane or West-street, so as to improve the communication of the same with West-smithfield; also to divert, alter, widen and improve such parts of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys, and passages as will form entrances into the said intended new streets, or any of them; and to make other such new streets, ways, and passages as may be necessary to connect the said intended new streets or improved streets with each other, or otherwise improve the same; and also to make common and public slaughterhouses on the site of Green-hill's-rents, Red-lion-alley, Durham-yard, and other buildings circumscribed by Cow-cross-street on the north side, Smithfield-bars on the east, Smithfield and West-street on the south, and Sharp's-alley on the west side, except the site of the workhouse and burial ground of the parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the city of London; and to make carriage and foot bridges where necessary over the River-fleet; also water-ways and drains, and generally to improve the site circumscribed by Snow-hill and Holborn-bridge and part of Holborn-hill on the south; Union-court and Bleeding-heart-yard, Kirby-street, Hat-and-tun-yard, and Little Saffron-hill on the west; Ray-street and Clerkenwell-green on the north; Ray-street, Clerkenwell-green, Red Lion-street, Benjamin-street, Falkner's-court, Cow-cross-street, Smithfield-bars, Smithfield, and Cow-lane on the east: all which said intended new streets, lanes, courts, alleys, passages, bridges, water-ways, drains, communications, slaughter-houses, erections, ways, paths, or roads are proposed to be situate within or pass into or through the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, both in the city of London and county of Middlesex; the parish of St. Sepulchre, both in the city of London and county of Middlesex; the liberty of Saffron-hill and Ely-rents, in the county of Middlesex; the parish of St. John, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex; and the parish of St. James, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex.—Dated this 18th day of October 1825.

James Harmer, Solicitor, 87, Hatton-garden

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining powers to make a new street from or near the northern end or approach of Southwark Bridge, near Thames-street, in the city of London, to communicate with Charlotte-row, near Mansion-house-street, and Cornhill, in the said city, and to divert, alter, widen and improve such parts of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys and passages as will form entrances into the said new street, or any of them, and to stop up and build upon such part of the present street called Tower Royal, and any other of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys and passages as may be necessary for effecting the improvement proposed to be made by the said new street; all which said intended new street and streets, lanes, courts, alleys and passages, are situate within or will pass through or into the parishes of St. Michael, Paternoster Royale, and St. Martin Vintry, or in the Vintry, St. Thomas, opposite St. Anthony, commonly called St. Antholin, and St. John the Baptist upon Walbrook, St. Bennettshire Hogg and St. Stephen Walbrook, St. Mary Colechurch, and St. Mildred in the Poultry, St. Mary Woolchurch-lane, and St. Pancras Soper, or some of them, in the said city of London.—November 7, 1825.

Ravenhill and Crook, No. 28, Poultry.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act for opening, forming, making and maintaining, under certain restrictions as to the use thereof, a new street or way from, or from near to a certain house, in the occupation of Mary Hornby, in Carey-street, Lincoln's-Inn, in the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, and passing thence in or nearly in a straight line across Little Shire-lane, and part of Star-court to the north-end of Picket-place, in the Strand, near the east-end of Saint Clement's church, in the said parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the said county; and that it is intended by such Act to take powers for the sale and purchase (upon compulsion or otherwise) of the several lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, situate and lying within the boundaries or limits hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say), commencing with and including the premises in the occupation of Mr. James Russell, at the north-western corner of New court, in Carey-street, and extending southward along the eastern boundary wall of New Boswell-court, to Little Shire-lane, then running westward to and including a house numbered 18, in Old Boswell-court, then running southward across Old Boswell-court, and extending westward and then southward across the western entrance to Newcastle-court to Clement's-lane, including the whole of the eastern-side of Old Boswell-court, and thence extending further south to the northern side of the Sun public-house, on the eastern side of Clement's-lane, thence eastward in a line to the west-side of Picket-place, thence further eastward, crossing the south-ends of Star-court and Crown-court, to and including No. 3, Ship-place, then running northward, including parts of the west side of Ship-place and Ship-yard, across Little Shire-lane, to and including Hemlock-court, and the Punch Bowl public-house, in the occupation of George Plasket and the premises in the occupation of Alexander Caley, at the back thereof, thence extending westward to a point in a line with and extending to the north-eastern corner of premises, in the occupation of William Medland, in Carey-street, and thence extending westward across the north-ends of Horse Shoe court, Hemlock-court, and New-court, to the western-side of the said premises, in the occupation of the said James Russell, in Carey-street aforesaid, in which circuit or space is included the whole of New-court, part of Old Boswell-court, the whole of Newcastle-court, Star-court, Cromwell otherwise Chamberlain-place, Crown-court, Crown-place, the greater part of Little Shire-lane, part of the back of premises on the west-side of Serles-place, otherwise Great Shire-lane, the whole of Hemlock-court, and Horse Shoe-court; and also that it is intended by such Act to take power for the sale and purchase of the premises in the occupation of Samuel M'Arthur, situate at the south-eastern corner of Carey-street and Searle-street, and the premises adjoining eastward thereto, in the occupation of William Waller; and that it is also intended to take powers for the stopping up, diverting, altering, widening, and improving of such of the present streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages, or of some parts thereof respectively, as may form entrances into or may interfere with the said intended new-street, or as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes of such Act, all which said premises so intended to be taken and used, and all which said streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages so intended to be stopped up, diverted, altered, widened and improved for the purposes of the said intended Act, are situate within the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex.—November 5, 1825. Septimius Burton, 11, Lincoln's-Inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for vesting an estate called the Pedlars Acre Estate, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, in trustees for managing and letting the same, and for applying the produce thereof according to the directions of vestry meetings of the said parish, and for establishing the existing leases, and to enable the trustees to grant building and other leases thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 10th day of November 1825

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, Richmond-buildings, Soho.

Louth Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament, during the next session, for an Act to confirm a certain agreement entered into between the Commissioners appointed by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for making a navigation from the river Humber, by a canal or cut at or near Tetney Haven, to the river Ludd, in the parish of Alvingham, in the county of Lincoln, and for continuing the said navigation in or near the said river from thence to or near the town of Louth, in the said county," and Charles Chaplin, Esq. now deceased, and which agreement bears date the 27th day of October 1777, and is duly entered in the books kept for recording the proceedings of the said Commissioners, and by which agreement it was, for the consideration therein mentioned, agreed that the tolls arising from the said navigation should (subject to the orders of the said Commissioners), be assigned to and vested in the said Charles Chaplin, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns for a term of ninety-nine years, from the 24th day of June then last, and for vesting the said tolls in Francis Chaplin, Esq. and George Chaplin, Esq. being the persons now beneficially claiming under the said agreement for the remainder of the said term of ninety-nine years.

Alex. Macdougall, Solicitor for the said Francis Chaplin and George Chaplin, Parliament-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for an Act for the better paving, lighting, (by gas or otherwise), cleansing, watering, watching, repairing, extending, and widening of the several highways, roads, streets, lanes, markets, passages, and places within and for the general improvement of the parish of Saint John within the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for the removal and future prevention of nuisances, encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances within the same, and for vesting the sole management and control thereof in Commissioners or persons to be appointed by the parishioners of the said parish; and that it is intended to obtain power for the raising of money for the several purposes of such Act, by rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits of the said Act, or by some other means to be provided by such Act; and also that it is intended to repeal, or to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, (or of some of them), that is to say,—an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein;" an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as relates to the Commissioners of sewers, and for regulating the manner of taxing churches and other public buildings within the limits of the said Act"; also another Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages, adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein, to open, widen, and better regulate the several streets, lanes, and passages within the east division, in the said Act described," so far as relates to the said parish of Saint John Southwark, or as may be necessary for the purposes of the said intended Act.—November 12, 1825.

Beriah and George Drew, Solicitors, Bermondsey-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament giving powers to form a new street, so as to continue Pall-Mall-East, eastward from the King's-Mews as far as Saint Martin's Church, and to widen the communication between Cockspur-street and Craven-street, between the south front of the Union-Club-House in Cockspur-street and the north side of the Strand opposite Craven-street; also to form streets on the north and south sides of Saint Martin's Church till they intersect the Strand, nearly opposite the north end of Villiers-street; also to widen Saint Martin's-lane on the east and west sides thereof, south of Hemmings-row and Chandos-street; and also to form a square or open space opposite Charing-Cross, which said square or open space is to have the Union-Club-House for its boundary to the west, and the west side of St.

Martin's-lane for its boundary to the east; also giving powers to form a new street from the south end of Spring-Gardens to Whitehall and Charing-Cross, in the line of the court called Buckingham-court; also giving powers to widen the south side of Downing-street, and to improve and alter the south side of Downing-square and the north side of Fludyer-street; and also to continue King-street, St. James'-square, by a new street from the west end thereof into St. James'-street; also to direct, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets as will form entrances into the said intended new streets; all which several streets and places so intended to be altered, diverted, or improved, are situate in the several parishes of St. Martin-in-the-fields, the united parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, and St. James', Westminster, in the county of Middlesex.

By order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, Green, Pemberton, and Crawley, Salisbury-square.

Hammersmith Bridge and Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to explain and amend a certain Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for building a bridge over the River Thames from the hamlet of Hammersmith, in the county of Middlesex, to the parish of Barnes, in the county of Surrey, and for making convenient roads and avenues to communicate with such bridge," and to divert the several lines of road in the said Act directed to be made, and to extend the powers given in and by the said Act; and which said bridge is intended to be erected in, and the said roads are intended to pass through the several parishes or hamlets of Hammersmith, Barnes, and Mortlake, or some of them, in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively.—Dated this 9th day of November 1825

White, Blake, and Houseman, 14, Essex-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for an Act for opening and widening Lord-street, Castle-ditch, Harrington-street, Castle-street, Derby-square, Preeson's-row, Covent-garden, John street, New John-street, Marshall-street, Love lane, Trafford's lane, Hanover-street, Pool-lane, Lancelot's-hey, and Great Howard-street, in the town of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster; and also for opening and widening James street, in the said town, or converting the same into a street or passage for foot passengers only, and making in lieu thereof a new street from Preeson's-row to Strand-street, in the said town; and also for widening Leeces-street, Berry-street, and Bold-street, in the said town, and improving the cemetery of St. Luke's church there; and also for widening and improving the entrances into the said town from the London-road down Shaw's-brow and St. John's-lane, and also the entrance into the said town from Lancaster along Scotland-road and Bevington-bush; and also for widening and improving the communication between Byrom-street and Dale-street, and for making a communication between Earle-street and Tythe-barn-street, and between Edmund-street and Pownall-square, and also between St. Anne-street and Scotland-road, in the said town; and also for providing a place or places for the depositing of smothered cattle, in order the better to prevent the sale of unwholesome meat in the said town, and for providing a place or places for the exclusive depositing and warehousing of salt-petre, and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances in the said town; and also for establishing a fire-police, for the better protection of property in cases of fire in the said town, and for raising a rate upon the inhabitants of the said town, for the purpose of defraying the expences of such an establishment; and for further improving the said town, Statham, Town Clerk.

MIDDLESEX.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 5th Geo. IV. cap. 74, and the 6th Geo IV. cap. 12, for establishing the new imperial standard weights and measures take effect from the 1st of January 1826; and whereas the same penalties which were levied by the 29th Geo. II. cap. 25, 31st Geo. II. cap. 17, 35th Geo. III. cap. 102, and 55th Geo. III. cap. 43, will be applicable in all instances where the measures or weights now in use shall be used after the 1st January, without having the proportion which they bear to the new imperial standards marked on them;—

Notice is hereby given, to all persons using weights and measures for the measuring and weighing for sale of any commodity, in the county of Middlesex, that Mr. W. Gutteridge, is appointed by the Magistrates of the aforesaid county, to perform the duties of Conservator of weights and measures for the said county, for the purpose of verifying all new weights and measures, and to aid the public in conforming to the provisions of the said Acts, by marking the several weights and measures now in use, with the proportions they respectively bear to the imperial standards, which may from time to time be brought to him, for that purpose, of which he will duly advertise them and thus afford them that protection from the penalties incident upon neglect or ignorance of the 15th and 16th clauses of 5th Geo IV. cap. 74

N.B. The following extracts from Captain Kater's report upon this subject to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, dated 2d July 1825, are important to the public, viz. :—

“The standard of weights and of linear measure remain the same as heretofore; it may, nevertheless, be desirable, that standard weights and measures now in use should be examined in order to ascertain that they have sustained no injury by wear.

H. C. Selby, Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex.
