NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old

Bailey, London, on Friday the 23d of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden-Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. As all Justices, Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Sturt, the Clerk of Arraigues of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-House, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for an Act for opening, forming, making and maintaining, under certain restrictions as to the use thereof, a new street or way from, or from near to a certain house, in the occupation of Mary Hornby, in Carey-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, in the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex, and passing thence in or nearly in a straight line across Little Shire-lane, and part of Star-court to the north-end of Picket-place, in the Strand near the east-end of Saint Clement's church, in the said parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the said county; and that it is intended by such Act to take powers for the sale and purchase (upon compulsion or otherwise) of the several lands, tenements, hereditaments and premises, situate and lying within the boundaries or limits hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say), commencing with and including the premises in the occupation of Mr. James Russell, at the north-western corner of New-court, in Carey-street, and extending southward along the eastern boundary wall of New Boswell-court to Little Shire-lane, then running westward to and including a house numbered 18, in Old Boswell-court, then running southward across Old Boswell-court, and extending westward and then southward across the western entrance to Newcastle-court to Clement's-lane, including the whole of the eastern side of Old Boswell-court, and thence extending farther south to the northern side of the said public-house, on the eastern side of Clement's-lane, thence eastward in a line to the west side of Picket-place, thence further eastward, crossing the south-ends of Star-court and Crown-court, to and including No. 3, Ship-place, then running northward, including parts of the west side of Ship-place and Ship-yard, across Little Shire-lane, to and including Hemlock-court, and the Punch Bowl public-house, in the occupation of George Plaskett, and the premises in the occupation of Alexander Caley, at the back thereof, thence extending westward to a point in a line with and extending to the north-eastern corner of premises, in the occupation of William Medland, in Carey-street, and thence extending westward across the north-ends of Horse Shoe-court, Hemlock-court, and New-court, to the western-side of the said premises, in the occupation of the said James Russell, in Carey-street aforesaid, in which circuit or space is included the whole of New-court, part of Old Boswell-court, the whole of Newcastle-court, Star-court, Crownwell otherwise Chamberlain-place, Crown-court, Crown-place, the greater part of Little Shire-lane, part of the back of premises on the west-side of Serles-place, otherwise Great Shire-lane, the whole of Hemlock-court, and Horse Shoe-court; and also that it is intended by such Act to take powers for the sale and purchase of the premises in the occupation of Samuel M'Arthur, situate at the south-eastern corner of Carey-street and Serle-street, and the premises adjoining eastward thereto, in the occupation of William Waller; and that it is also intended to take powers for the stopping up, diverting, altering, widening, and improving of such of the present streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages, or of some parts thereof respectively, as may form entrances into or may interfere with the said intended new-street, or as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes of such Act, all which said premises so intended to be taken and used, and all which said streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages so intended to be stopped up, diverted, altered, widened and improved for the purposes of the said intended Act, are situate within the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex November 5; 1825.

Septimus Burton, 11, Lincoln's-Inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for vesting an estate called the Pedlars Acre Estate, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, in trustees for managing and letting the same, and for applying the produce thereof according to the directions of vestry meetings of the said parish, and for establishing the existing leases, and to enable the trustees to grant building and other leases thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 10th day of November 1825.

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, Richmond-buildings, Soho.

Louth Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament, during the next session, for an Act to confirm a certain agreement entered into between the Commissioners appointed by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for making a navigation from the river Humber, by a canal or cut at or near Tetney Haven, to the river Ludd, in the parish of Alvingham, in the county of Lincoln, and for continuing the said navigation in or near the said river from thence to or near the town of Louth, in the said county," and Charles Chaplin, Esq. now deceased, and which agreement bears date the 27th day of October 1777, and is duly entered in the books kept for recording the proceedings of the said Commissioners, and by which agreement it was, for the consideration therein mentioned, agreed that the tolls arising from the said navigation should (subject to the orders of the said Commissioners), be assigned to and vested in the said Charles Chaplin, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns for a term of ninety-nine years, from the 24th day of June then last, and for vesting the said tolls in Francis Chaplin, Esq. and George Chaplin, Esq. being the persons now beneficially claiming under the said agreement for the remainder of the said term of ninety-nine years.

Alex. Macdougall, Solicitor for the said Francis Chaplin and George Chaplin, Parliament-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for an Act for the better paving, lighting, (by gas or otherwise), cleansing, watering, watching, repairing, extending, and widening of the several highways, roads, streets, lanes, markets, passages, and places within and for the general improvement of the parish of Saint John, within the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for the removal and future prevention of nuisances, encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances within the same, and for vesting the sole management and control thereof in Commissioners or persons to be appointed by the parishioners of the said parish; and that it is intended to obtain power for the raising of money for the several purposes of such Act, by rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits of the said Act, or by some other means to be provided by such Act; and also that it is intended to repeal, or to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, (or of some of them), that is to say,—an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled “An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein;” an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as relates to the Commissioners of sewers, and for regulating the manner of taxing churches and other public buildings within the limits of the said Act”; also another Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages, adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein, to open, widen, and better regulate the several streets, lanes, and passages within the east division, in the said Act described,” so far as relates to the said parish of Saint John Southwark, or as may be necessary for the purposes of the said intended Act.—November 12, 1825.

Beriah and George Drew, Solicitors, Bermondsey-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament giving powers to form a new street, so as to continue Pall-Mall-East, eastward from the King's-Mews as far as Saint Martin's Church, and to widen the communication between Cockspur-street and Craven-street, between the south front of the Union-Club-House in Cockspur-street and the north side of the Strand opposite Craven-street, also to form streets on the north and south sides of Saint Martin's Church till they intersect the Strand, nearly opposite the north end of Villiers-street; also to widen Saint Martin's-lane on the east and west sides thereof, south of Hemmings-row and Chandos-street; and also to form a square or open space opposite Charing-Cross, which said square or open space is to have the Union-Club-House for its boundary to the west, and the west side of St. Martin's-lane for its boundary to the east; also giving powers to form a new street from the south end of Spring-Gardens to Whitehall and Charing-Cross, in the line of the court called Buckingham-court; also giving powers to widen the south side of Downing-street, and to improve and alter the south side of Downing-square and the north side of Fludyer-street; and also to continue King-street, St. James'-square, by a new street from the west end thereof into St. James'-street; also to direct, alter, widen, and improve such parts of the present streets as will form entrances into the said intended new streets; all which several streets and places so intended to be altered, diverted, or improved, are situate in the several parishes of St. Martin-in-the-fields, the united parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, and St. James', Westminster, in the county of Middlesex.

HANTS LIEUTENANCY.

Winchester, 24th November 1825

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Southampton, will be holden at the White Hart Inn, in the city of Winchester, on Tuesday the 13th day of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By order of, his Grace the Duke of Wellington, K. G., His Majesty's Lord Lieutenant, T. Woodham, Clerk of the General Meetings.

MIDDLESEX.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 5th Geo. IV. cap. 74, and the 6th Geo. IV. cap. 12, for establishing the new imperial standard weights and measures take effect from the 1st of January 1826; and whereas the same penalties which were levied by the 29th Geo. II. cap. 25, 31st Geo. II. cap. 17, 35th Geo. III. cap. 102, and 55th Geo. III. cap. 43, will be applicable in all instances where the measures or weights now in use shall be used after the 1st January, without having the proportion which they bear to the new imperial standards marked on them;—

Notice is hereby given, to all persons using weights and measures for the measuring and weighing for sale of any commodity, in the county of Middlesex, that Mr. W. Gutteridge, is appointed by the Magistrates of the aforesaid county, to perform the duties of Conservator of weights and measures for the said county, for the purpose of verifying all new weights and measures, and to aid the public in conforming to the provisions of the said Acts, by marking the several weights and measures now in use, with the proportions they respectively bear to the imperial standards, which may from time to time be brought to him for that purpose, of which he will duly advertise them and thus afford them that protection from the penalties incident upon neglect or ignorance of the 15th and 16th clauses of 5th Geo. IV. cap. 74.

N. B. The following extracts from Captain Kater's report upon this subject to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, dated 2d July 1825, are important to the public, viz. :—

"The standard of weights and of linear measure remain the same as heretofore; it may, nevertheless, be desirable, that standard weights and measures now in use should be examined in order to ascertain that they have sustained no injury by wear.

H. C. Setby, Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex.

10th November 1825.

CONTRACT FOR FIREHEARTH'S FOR REVENUE CRUISERS.

Navy-Office, November 11, 1825.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 1st of December next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Deptford and Woolwich with Firehearths for Revenue Cruisers.

Patterns of the firehearths may be seen at His Majesty's Yard at Deptford, and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith,

General Penitentiary, Millbank,
September 21, 1825.

THE Superintending Committee of this Establishment do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 9th December next, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders, for the supply of the following articles, for six months, from the 1st January to the 30th of June 1826, or for twelve months, to the 31st of December 1826, the rate for both of which periods to be stated in the respective tenders, viz.

Butcher's Meat, Wheat, Scotch Barley, Peas (whole and split), Rice, Oatmeal, Salt, Pepper, Cheese, Potatoes, Spermin and Seal Oil, Soap, Candles, Potash, Starch, Pails, Tubs, Mops, Birch and Hair Brooms, Brushes, Combs, Comb Brushes, Coals, and Charcoal.

Persons desirous of contracting will be furnished with forms of tender, upon applying to Captain Chapman, the Governor. The names of two respectable sureties, for the fulfilment of the proposed contract, must be specified in the tender; and the party who makes the tender, or some person on his behalf, must attend on the day appointed, at two o'clock, to answer when called for.

Rob. Auld, Secretary.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
November 22, 1825.

Freehold Public-House, Yalding, Kent.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Cloutt, at the Auction-Mart, Bartholomew-Lane, London, on Monday the 28th day of November 1825, at Twelve o'Clock, by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankruptcy against Stephen Field, in one lot;

The freehold public-house, with stables, lodge, &c. and about three quarters of an acre of land adjoining, known by the name of the Blue Anchor, Twyford-Bridge, Yalding, Kent, subject to the life-interest of Mrs. Burdett, the present occupier, aged 66 years.

Printed particulars and conditions may be had eight days previous to the sale at the Auction-Mart; of Messrs. Clutton and Cartwright, Solicitors, High-Street, Southwark; of Mr. Piercy, Solicitor, Three-Crown-Square, Southwark; at the Bull Inn, Maidstone; on the premises; and of Mr. Cloutt, Surveyor, Goudhurst, Kent.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Price against Timperley, before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court; at the Artichoke Inn, at Elstree, in the County of Herts, in lots;

All those several freehold and copyhold fields of meadow and pasture land, containing in the whole 62½ acres, or thereabouts, situate in Elstree and Aldenham, in the County of Herts, 40 acres whereof, or thereabouts, are in the possession of Guttridge Olney, and 22½ acres, or thereabouts, in the possession of Mr. Wilson, as tenants thereof, at yearly rents, amounting to £168, land tax redeemed.

The day of sale will shortly be fixed, and particulars may then be had in London at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Mr. Edward Chester, Solicitor, 3, Staple-Inn; of Messrs. Teesdale and Syme, Solicitors, Fenchurch-Street; of Messrs. Long and Austin, Solicitors, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn; of Messrs. Philpott and Stone, Solicitors, Southampton-Street, Holborn; and of Mr. Adamson, Billiter-Square, Fenchurch-Street; also of Mr. Wardle, Solicitor, Kendall; of Mr. Musley, Solicitor, Burton-upon-Trent; of Mr. Olney and Mr. Wilson, the tenants, at Elstree; and at the Artichoke Inn, at Elstree.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, in England, made in a Cause Bushe v. Stokes, it is, amongst other things, referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who were the Next of Kin of Hugh Stokes, late of Haking, in the Parish of Hubberton, in the County of Pembroke, Esq. deceased (the intestate in the pleadings named), living at his death, and whether any of them were since dead, and if dead who was or were their personal representative or representatives; and whereas it appears that William Falconer, the son of Hugh Falconer, and Martha Anne his wife (which said Martha Anne Falconer was one of the daughters of the said intestate), is, if living, one of the next of kin of the said intestate.—Therefore the said William Falconer, if living, or in the event of his death subsequent to the decease of the said intestate (which happened in the month of December 1822), his personal representative or representatives is or are to come in and prove such kindred or representation before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 2d of May 1826, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said William Falconer went to Jamaica in the year 1803, with Captain Abraham Leach, in a ship called the John and Thomas.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 16th day of July 1825, made in a Cause wherein Daniel Bradby and others are plaintiffs, and James Bradby and others are defendants, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether Daniel Bradby, in the said Order named, died in the life time of his father Joseph Bradby without leaving any issue; and if the said Master should find that the said Daniel Bradby survived his said father Joseph Bradby, it was ordered that the said Master should enquire and state to the Court whether the said Daniel Bradby died intestate, and that if the said Master should find that the said Daniel Bradby did die intestate, it was ordered that the said Master should enquire and state to the Court who was or were the next of kin of the said Daniel Bradby living at the time of his death, and in case any of them have since died who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her or them so dying.

The next of kin of the said Daniel Bradby (who is supposed to have died in Calcutta, in the East Indies, sometime in the year 1805) at the time of his death, or in case any of them have since died the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying are, on or before the 17th day of December 1825, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 25th day of July 1825, made in a Cause wherein Richard Paine and others are plaintiffs, and James Lowe and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, whether William Gleadhill, the brother of Richard Gleadhill, the testator in the pleadings of such Cause named, is living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he left any and what children or grandchildren, or other issue of his body, living at the time of his decease, and whether any of such children or grandchildren, or other issue, are now living or dead, and if dead who is or are the legal personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; and that he should also inquire and state to the Court whether Mary Paine, the sister of the said testator, Richard Gleadhill, is living or dead, and if dead when she died, and whether she left any children or grandchildren, or other issue of her body living at the time of her death, and whether any of such children or grandchildren, or other issue, are now living or dead, and if dead who is or are the legal personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be children, grandchildren, or other issue or personal representative or representatives of such children, grandchildren, or other issue of the said William Gleadhill, and Mary Paine, or either of them, are, on or before the 9th day of December next, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove his, her, or their kindred, and make out his, her, or their claims in respect thereto, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 28th day of July 1825, made in three several Causes, in one of which Samuel Fereley and others are plaintiffs, and James Adam and others are defendants, in another of which the said Samuel Fereley and others are plaintiffs, and William Legh and another are defendants, and in the other of which the said William Legh and others are plaintiffs, and Ann Wilkinson and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and take an account of what debts, charges, and incumbrances are now owing by or chargeable upon the trust-estate, real or personal, of John Wilkinson, late of Castlehead, in the County of Lancaster, Iron-Master, deceased, the testator in the pleadings in such Causes named (and who died in or about the month of July 1808); and the particulars and amounts thereof respectively, and in whom such debts, charges, and incumbrances are vested, and their respective priorities.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming any debt or debts, charges, or incumbrances to be due and owing by or chargeable upon the trust-estate, real or personal, of the said testator, John Wilkinson, are, on or before the 18th day of December 1825, by their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and lay before him such evidence as may be necessary for the purpose of shewing in whom such debts, charges, or incumbrances are vested, together with the dates and particulars of any security or securities, they may hold in respect of such debts or charges.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Robert Plummer and others are plaintiffs, and George Selby and others are defendants, the Creditors of William Hudson, late of Stoke-Newington, in the County of Middlesex, and of Cow-Lane, in the City of London, Ironmonger (who died on or about the 20th day of February 1820), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 28th day of November 1825, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Plummer v. Selby, the Heir at Law of William Hudson, late of Stoke-Newington, in the County of Middlesex, and of Cow-Lane, in the City of London, Ironmonger (who died on or about the 20th day of February 1820), and also the Next of Kin of the said William Hudson, who were living at the time of his death, and the personal representative or representatives of any of such Next of Kin who have since died; are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 28th day of November 1825, to come in and prove their descent and kindred, and make out their claims, before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of July 1825, made in a Cause Smith against Starky, the Creditors of Thomas Smith, late of Swallow Street, in the County of Middlesex, Coach-Maker, deceased (who died on or about the 2d day of December 1812), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 15th day of January 1826, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of April 1820, made in a Cause wherein John Plummer, Esq. is plaintiff, and Ann Gillman and Ann Power and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, to inquire whether Anthony Power, in the pleadings in such Cause named, was living or dead at the death of the testator, Francis Robins Power, in the pleadings also named (which said Francis Robins Power was a resident of Cornwall, in Jamaica, and is supposed to have died on or about the 20th day of July 1815), and if he the said Anthony Power was then living whether he is since dead, and who is his personal representative.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be the child or children, or personal representative or representatives of the said Anthony Power, is or are, on or before the 14th day of January 1826, to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove himself, herself, or themselves to be such child or children, or personal representative or representatives, of the said Anthony Power, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Anthony Power is presumed to have died at Baton Rouge, in New Orleans, in North America, some time prior to the year 1828.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Morley against Morley, the Creditors of John Morley, late of Walthamstowe, in the County of Essex, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 5th day of September 1819), are, on or before the 20th day of December 1825, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Edward Drinkwater and another are plaintiffs, and John Combe and others are defendants, the Creditors of Joseph Combe, late of the Parish of Great and Little Hampton, in the County of Worcester, Yeoman (who died in the month of February 1782), are to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 20th day of December 1825, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Ainsworth v. Ainsworth, the Next of Kin of David Ainsworth, late of Bankside, Oldham, in the County of Lancaster, Flannel-Manufacturer, deceased (and who died in the month of January 1824), who were living at the time of his death, or the representative or representatives of such next of kin as are since dead, are forthwith to come in before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred or affinity, or representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Order made by his Honour the Vice-Chancellor of England, bearing date the 8th day of August last, the Creditors who have already proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against James Martin, late of Beccles, in the County of Suffolk, Farmer, Horse-Dealer, and Dealer in Corn and Seeds, are required to meet at the White Horse, in Leiston, in the said County of Suffolk, on Tuesday the 29th day of November instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to nominate a fit and proper professional person to inspect the proceedings had and taken under the said Commission, and for the purpose of instructing such person, so to be nominated, to take such proceedings, in the name of the Assignee of the said Bankrupt, as may be thought necessary for trying the validity of an execution issued by one John Cooper Baldry against the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and also the validity of the debt of Robert Martin, the brother of the said Bankrupt.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Procter, of Pudsey Back-Lane, in the Parish of Calverley, in the County of York, Clothier, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 18th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court-House, in Leeds, to decide upon accepting or refusing any offer of composition, then and there to be made to them by the said Samuel Procter, or his friends.—Dated the 17th day of November 1826.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Harding, of Chapel Street, and the New-Road, Somers'-Town, in the County of Middlesex, Timber-Merchant, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 14th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the household furniture, stock in trade, fixtures, and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise, as they shall think fit, and granting such time, and taking such security or satisfaction for the payment of the purchase-money for the same, or of any part thereof, as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the leasehold property of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise, as they shall think proper, and also to make any arrangement with the mortgagees for redemption thereof, as may be deemed expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making any arrangement with certain persons who have contracted with the said Bankrupt for the erection of certain houses and buildings, and to compel them to vacate or fulfil the said contracts; and also to the Assignees giving up or carrying into effect certain agreements entered into for leases or sales of ground rents as the said Assignees may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or other person or persons, at their discretion, to investigate the Bankrupt's books and accounts, and collect and get in the debts and outstanding estate of the said Bankrupt, and to make such remuneration for the same, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, as they may deem right; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or touching or concerning the same; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
