J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Freehold Public-House, Yalding, Kent.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Cloutt, at the Auction-Mart, Bartholomew-Lane, London, on Monday the 28th day of November 1825, at Twelve o'Clock, by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankruptcy against Stephen Field, in one lot;

The freehold public-house, with stables, lodge, &c. and about three quarters of an acre of land adjoining, known by the name of the Blue Anchor, Twyford-Bridge, Yalding, Kent, subject to the life-interest of Mrs. Burdop, the present occupier, aged 66 years.

Printed particulars and conditions may be had eight days previous to the sale at the Auction-Mart; of Messrs. Clutton and Cartur, Solicitors, High-Street, Southwark; of Mr. Piercy, Solicitor, Three-Crown-Square, Southwark; at the Bull Inn, Maidstone; on the premises; and of Mr. Cloutt, Surveyor, Goudhurst, Kent.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Price against Timpey, before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court; at the Artichoke Inn, at Elstree, in the County of Herts, in lots;

All those several freehold and copyhold fields of meadow and pasture land, containing in the whole 62½ acres, or thereabouts, situate in Elstree and Aldenham, in the County of Herts, 40 acres whereof, or thereabouts, are in the possession of Gutridge Olney, and 22½ acres, or thereabouts, in the possession of Mr. Wilson, as tenants thereof, at yearly rents, amounting to £168, land tax redeemed.

The day of sale will shortly be fixed, and particulars may then be had in London at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Mr. Edward Chester, Solicitor, 3, Staple-Inn; of Messrs. Teesdale and Syme, Solicitors, Fenchurch-Street; of Messrs. Long and Austin, Solicitors, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn; of Messrs. Philpott and Stone, Solicitors, Southampton-Street, Holborn; and of Mr. Adamson, Billiter-Square, Fenchurch-Street; also of Mr. Wardle, Solicitor, Kendal; of Mr. Musley, Solicitor, Burton-upon-Trent; of Mr. Olney and Mr. Wilson, the tenants, at Elstree; and at the Artichoke Inn, at Elstree.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in a Cause Bushe v. Stokes, it is, amongst other things, referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who were the next of Kin of Hugh Stokes, late of Haking, in the Parish of Hubberston, in the County of Pembroke, Esq. deceased (the intestate in the pleadings named), living at his death, and whether any of them were since dead, and if dead who was or were their personal representative or representatives; and whereas it appears that William Falconer, the son of Hugh Falconer, and Martha Anne his wife (which said Martha Anne Falconer was one of the daughters of the said intestate), is, if living, one of the next of kin of the said intestate.—Therefore the said William Falconer, if living, or in the event of his death subsequent to the decease of the said intestate (which happened in the month of December 1822), his personal representative or representatives is or are to come in and prove such kindred or representation before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 2d of May 1826, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said William Falconer went to Jamaica in the year 1803, with Captain Abraham Leach, in a ship called the John and Thomas.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 16th day of July 1825, made in a Cause wherein Daniel Bradby and others are plaintiffs, and James Bradby and others are defendants, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether Daniel Bradby, in the said Order named, died in the life time of his father Joseph Bradby without leaving any issue; and if the said Master should find that the said Daniel Bradby survived his said father Joseph Bradby, it was ordered that the said Master should enquire and state to the Court whether the said Daniel Bradby died intestate, and that if the said Master should find that the said Daniel Bradby did die intestate, it was ordered that the said Master should enquire and state to the Court who was or were the next of kin of the said Daniel Bradby living at the time of his death, and in case any of them have since died who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her or them so dying.

The next of kin of the said Daniel Bradby (who is supposed to have died in Calcutta, in the East Indies, sometime in the year 1805) at the time of his death, or in case any of them have since died the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying are, on or before the 17th day of December 1825, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 25th day of July 1825, made in a Cause wherein Richard Paine and others are plaintiffs, and James Lowe and others are defendants, it is, amongst other
