

things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, whether William Gleadhill, the brother of Richard Gleadhill, the testator in the pleadings of such Cause named, is living or dead, and if dead when he died, and whether he left any and what children or grandchildren, or other issue of his body, living at the time of his decease, and whether any of such children or grandchildren, or other issue, are now living or dead, and if dead who is or are the legal personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; and that he should also inquire and state to the Court whether Mary Paine, the sister of the said testator, Richard Gleadhill, is living or dead, and if dead when she died, and whether she left any children or grandchildren, or other issue of her body living at the time of her death, and whether any of such children or grandchildren, or other issue, are now living or dead, and if dead who is or are the legal personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be children, grandchildren, or other issue or personal representative or representatives of such children, grandchildren, or other issue of the said William Gleadhill and Mary Paine, or either of them, are, on or before the 9th day of December next, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove his, her, or their kindred, and make out his, her, or their claims in respect thereto, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 28th day of July 1825, made in three several Causes, in one of which Samuel Fereley and others are plaintiffs, and James Adam and others are defendants, in another of which the said Samuel Fereley and others are plaintiffs, and William Legh and another are defendants, and in the other of which the said William Legh and others are plaintiffs, and Ann Wilkinson and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and take an account of what debts, charges, and incumbrances are now owing by or chargeable upon the trust-estate, real or personal, of John Wilkinson, late of Castlehead, in the County of Lancaster, Iron-Master, deceased, the testator in the pleadings in such Causes named (and who died in or about the month of July 1808), and the particulars and amounts thereof respectively, and in whom such debts, charges, and incumbrances are vested, and their respective priorities.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming any debt or debts, charges, or incumbrances to be due and owing by or chargeable upon the trust-estate, real or personal, of the said testator, John Wilkinson, are, on or before the 18th day of December 1825, by their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and lay before him such evidence as may be necessary for the purpose of shewing in whom such debts, charges, or incumbrances are vested, together with the dates and particulars of any security or securities, they may hold in respect of such debts or charges.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Robert Plummer and others are plaintiffs, and George Selby and others are defendants, the Creditors of William Hudson, late of Stoke-Newington, in the County of Middlesex, and of Cow-Lane, in the City of London, Ironmonger (who died on or about the 20th day of February 1820), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 28th day of November 1825, to come in and prove their debts before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Plummer v. Selby, the Heir at Law of William Hudson, late of Stoke-Newington, in the County of Middlesex, and of Cow-Lane, in the City of London, Ironmonger (who died on or about the 20th day of February 1820), and also the Next of Kin of the said William Hudson, who were living at the time of his death, and the personal representative or representatives of any of such Next of Kin who have since died, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 28th day of November 1825, to come in and prove their descent and kindred, and make out their claims, before James Trower, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of July 1825, made in a Cause Smith against Starky, the Creditors of Thomas Smith, late of Swallow Street, in the County of Middlesex, Coach-Maker, deceased (who died on or about the 2d day of December 1812), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 15th day of January 1826, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of April 1820, made in a Cause wherein John Plummer, Esq. is plaintiff, and Ann Gillman and Ann Power and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court of Chancery, to inquire whether Anthony Power, in the pleadings in such Cause named, was living or dead at the death of the testator, Francis Robins Power, in the pleadings also named (which said Francis Robins Power was a resident of Cornwall, in Jamaica, and is supposed to have died on or about the 20th day of July 1815), and if he the said Anthony Power was then living whether he is since dead, and who is his personal representative.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be the child or children, or personal representative or representatives of the said Anthony Power, is or are, on or before the 14th day of January 1826, to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove himself, herself, or themselves to be such child or children, or personal representative or representatives, of the said Anthony Power, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The said Anthony Power is presumed to have died at Baton Rouge, in New Orleans, in North America, some time prior to the year 1828.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Morley against Morley, the Creditors of John Morley, late of Walthamstowe, in the County of Essex, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 5th day of September 1819), are, on or before the 20th day of December 1825, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtnay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Edward Drinkwater and another are plaintiffs, and John Combe and others are defendants, the Creditors of Joseph Combe, late of the Parish of Great and Little Hampton, in the County of Worcester, Yeoman (who died in the month of February 1782), are, to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 20th day of December 1825, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Ainsworth v. Ainsworth, the Next of Kin of David Ainsworth, late of Bankside, Oldham, in the County of Lancaster, Flannel-Manufacturer, deceased (and who died in the month of January 1824), who were living at the time of his death, or the representative or representatives of such next of kin as are since dead, are forthwith to come in before John Edmund Durdreswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred or affinity, or representation, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

NOICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Order made by his Honour the Vice-Chancellor of England, bearing date the 8th day of August last, the Creditors who