*Office of Commissioners for Claims on France,
London, 25th November 1825.*

CONVENTION No. 7.

HIS Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council having this day delivered their judgment on the appeal of the English Catholic College of Douay against the award of the Commissioners for liquidating the claims of British subjects against the Government of France, and having affirmed the said award;

The Commissioners hereby notify, that they are now enabled to proceed to the payment in full of the sums adjudicated by them under Convention No. 7; and that certificates for the final dividend of 10 per cent. with the accumulated interest due thereon (in addition to the 90 per cent. and interest thereon already paid) will be ready for delivery to the parties interested, at their Office, on Tuesday next the 29th instant.

By order of the Commissioners,
Chas. B. Baldwin, Secretary.
