BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Berks, Nottingham,
Hants, Oxford;

OATS, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Cantonments and Quarters, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Gloucester, North and South Wales,
Monmouth, Wilts;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks and Oats in Cantonnements and Quarters, in the undermentioned Counties

- Berk; Kent;
- Dorset; Lancaster;
- Essex; Northumberland;
- Hants; Somerset;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of January next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before the 28th day of December next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of ten and four.

N. B. Samples of the bread and meal may be seen at the Office, between the hours of twelve and two.

Bank of England, December 10, 1825.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice,

That a General Court will be held at the Bank, on Thursday next the 15th instant, at eleven o'clock, at which time one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the charter.

R. Best, Secretary.

East India House, December 6, 1825.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That they have received a letter, copy of which is as follows, viz.

To the Chairman of the East India Company,

SIR, London, December 3, 1825.

We the undersigned Proprietors of East India Stock, being duly qualified, request you will be pleased to let the ensuing Quarterly General Court of Proprietors be made further special, for the purpose of taking into consideration the following propositions:

That there be laid before this Court, copies of all correspondence between the Court of Directors and Mr. J. S. Buckingham, late Proprietor of the Calcutta Journal, respecting his claims for reparation of the injury sustained by him in his property in Calcutta in consequence of the measures of the Bengal Government.

Also copies of all proceedings of the Bengal Government referred to in the correspondence before named.

We have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servants,

Douglas Kinnaird, Joseph Hume.

The General Court appointed to be held at this House on the 21st instant, is, therefore, made further special accordingly.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India House, December 7, 1825.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That they have received a letter, copy of which is as follows, viz.

To the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

SIRS, London, December 6, 1825.

We, the undersigned Proprietors of East India Stock, duly qualified, request that the General Court of Proprietors, appointed to be held on the 21st instant, may be made further special, to take into consideration the following proposition, which it is our intention to submit to the Court.

That this Court, considering the great importance of a knowledge of the Hindostanee language to European Officers, destined to act with and to command the native troops in India, recommend to the Court of Directors to take into their immediate consideration the propriety of making regulations, that no Cadet shall henceforth be permitted to proceed to India, unless he shall, upon examination, be found sufficiently grounded in the rudiments of the Hindostanee language.

We have the honour to remain, your obedient humble servants,

Joseph Hume, John Borthwick Gilchrist, Proprietors.

The General Court appointed to be held at this House, on the 21st instant, is, therefore, made further special accordingly.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

Whereas William Cooper, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucestershire, Clerk and Furrier, was by Indenture, bearing date the 10th day of November instant, assigned over all his estate and effects unto Edwin Bishop, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucestershire, Vicar, and Rector of Lang-Badbury, in the County of Stafford, China-Manufacturer, for the equal benefit of his Creditors; notice is hereby given, that such Indenture of assignment will remain in full force and effect until the 1st day of January next; and any Office in Regent-Canal, Cheltenham, for the resignation of those Creditors who may choose to take the benefit thereof; and those persons who fail to execute the same before that day will be excluded such benefit; and all persons indebted to the estate of the said William Cooper, are respectfully requested to pay the amount of their debts to me forthwith.—Dated this 22d day of November 1825. J. M. CROAD, Solicitor, Cheltenham.

THIS is to give notice, that by Indenture, bearing date the 7th of September 1825, Charles Adeney, of the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Boot and Shoe-Maker, hath assigned all his estate and effects whatsoever to John King, of Aldersgate Street, in the City of London, Leather-Seller, John Thodey Burkitt, of Coleman-Street, in the said City of London, Leather-Dresser, and William Draper, of High Holborn, in the said County of Middlesex, Leather-Dresser, Trustees upon trust for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Charles Adeney, and the said Indenture was executed by the said Charles Adeney on the 3d day of December, and by the said John King, John Thodey Burkitt, and William Draper, on the 6th day of December 1825, which execution was witnessed by Thomas Webster, of Queen-Street, Cheapside, London, Gentleman.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Whiteley and James Whiteley, late of Leeds, in the County of York, Dyers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 9th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Thomas Honier Granger, Solicitor, in Leeds aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing to the purchaser of the said Bankrupts' estates, situate in Leeds, a compensation or return of a proportionate part of the purchase money paid for the estates of the said Bankrupts, they, the said Assignees, having sold to such purchaser more than the said Bankrupts were entitled unto at the time of their Bankruptcy, or to which they were entitled as such Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing and paying the expenses of certain re-assignments of mortgages affecting the same estates to be made and executed by divers persons to be named at the said meeting, in order to render the title to the said purchaser more complete, and to the paying of law expenses occasioned by a Chancery suit lately determined; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Parker and Joseph Parker, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees to be chosen under the said Commission on the 23d day of December instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Law and Coates, Solicitors, in Piccadilly, in Manchester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees carrying on the trade and business of the said Bankrupts for the benefit of the said estate, until such time as shall be then and there fixed or so long as the said Assignees shall think proper, or otherwise as shall be determined at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Flint, of Burlington-Arcade, Piccadilly, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 2d day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock in Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, or any of them, being allowed to make purchases of the goods and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof; if sold by auction, on his or their own private account; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised and empowered to employ an accountant or accountants to investigate the accounts of the said Bankrupt's estate; wind up the concerns and collect the debts due and owing to the said estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying Mr. Andrew Duncan, the accountant already employed by the said Assignees his fair and reasonable charges; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised and empowered to employ the said Bankrupt as their agent, shopman, or servant, or in any other character or manner for the sale and disposal of the stock in trade and effects at or upon the shop and premises in Burlington-Arcade, for and on their account; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or making an allowance or compensation to the said Bankrupt for the same; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling all or any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, by private contract; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving such credit and time for payment of the purchase money of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, whether sold by private contract or public auction, and taking such security or securities for the same as the said Assignees may think advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling such estate and effects; or any part thereof to the said Bankrupt, in the event of his obtaining his certificate if they should think advisable so to do; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving the said Bankrupt such credit and time for the payment of the purchase money, if sold to him the said Bankrupt as they shall think advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the property or estate of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Damant, of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 4th day of January next, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, book debts and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public sale or private contract, and in one or more lot or lots as the said Creditors shall judge proper, and to authorise the said Assignees to give such time or credit, and take such securities for the amount of any such sale or sales as they shall think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the rent of the said Bankrupt's house and premises where he dwelt, and the wages due to the servants and shopmen of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other fit person to investigate and arrange the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt's estate, and to their making such accountant or other person such allowance or compensation for his time, trouble and services as to the said Assignees shall seem fitting and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying certain costs, charges and expences incurred by the Solicitor and Accountant employed by the Creditors of the said William Damant, in the Bankrupt's affairs, previous to the issuing of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits in equity, or any action or actions at law, for the recovery, getting in, defending or protecting any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Frederick Joseph Burnett, of Saint Mary-Hill, in the City of London, Ship and Insurance-Broker, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 22d day of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of authorising the said Assignee to sell and dispose of, by public sale or private contract, and in such way and manner as the said Assignee shall deem most for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, all ships and parts and shares of ships, goods, wares, merchandizes, effects and things belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to authorise the said Assignee to commence any action or actions he may see fit to get in the debts or other effects and monies belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, as the said Assignee may be advised; and on other special affairs.

THE separate Creditors of William Lowe Bryan, who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Bryan and William Lowe Bryan, of Grocer's-Hall-Court, in the City of London, Printers, Dealers and Chapman, and late Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 4th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees instituting a suit in equity to recover, from the Trustees named and appointed under and by virtue of a certain deed or settlement made and executed in favour of Ann the wife of the said Bankrupt William Lowe Bryan, formerly Ann Shaw, spinster; but now deceased, previous to her marriage with the said Bankrupt William Lowe Bryan, certain dividends arising from the sum of £2,100 new four per Cent. Bank Annuities, now or lately standing in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the names of the said Trustees; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking any other proceeding to recover the said dividends, or to compound or submit to arbitration or otherwise agree the claims of the said Bankrupt William Lowe Bryan, in respect of the said dividends in right of his late wife the said Ann Bryan, now deceased; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Lewis, late of the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Glover, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the rest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 6th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, when an offer or composition on their debts will be proposed to the said Creditors for their consideration and acceptance, and upon their agreeing thereto as to the superceding the said Commission pursuant to the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the fourth, entitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts in England."

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Sydney Stewart, of Preston-upon-Wye, in the County of Hereford, Miller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 31st day of December instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household goods, furniture, book debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and in one or more lot or lots as the said Assignee shall judge proper, with liberty to buy in the same or any part thereof, at public auction, and to resell the same at any future auction or by private contract, and to authorise the said Assignee to give such time and credit, and take such securities for the amount of any such sale or sales as he shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying in full out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the wages due to the servants of the said Bankrupt, and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing or having employed an accountant or other fit person to investigate and arrange the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt's estate, and to collect, get in and receive the debts and sums of money due and payable to his estate, and to attend any sale of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee making such accountant or other person such allowance or compensation for his time, trouble, services and reasonable expences for travelling or otherwise as to the said Assignee shall seem fitting and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee accepting or giving up any lease or leases, or agreement or agreements for a lease or leases of or belonging to the estate of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits in equity, or any action or actions at law, for the recovery, getting in, defending or protecting any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and particularly the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting, any action or suit for the recovery of certain parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or the value thereof, which were sold under an execution at the suit of a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, or entering into any compromise thereof, upon terms to be mentioned at the meeting; or otherwise as to the said Assignee shall seem proper; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Wells and William Onyon, of Bishopsgate-Street, without in the City of London, Woollen-Druggers, Dealers and Chapman, and Copartners (trading under the firm of John Wells and Nepley), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts estate and effects, on Wednesday the 14th day of December inst. at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to and authorise, or to dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the said Bankrupts stock in trade, household furniture, book and other debts, and all or any other part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, either by public auction or by private contract, and in one or more lot or lots as to the said Assignees may appear most for the benefit of the said Creditors; and to authorise and assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving such time or credit, and taking such securities for the payment of the purchase money, or such part thereof, as they shall think beneficial to the said Creditors; and also to assent to and authorise or dissent from the said Assignees paying off a certain execution levied upon the effects of the said Bankrupt John Wells (the particulars of which execution will be stated to the said meeting); and to the said Assignees taking into their hands the securities held by the said execution Creditor, for the benefit of the Creditors of the said John Wells; and to assent to and authorise or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing and abandoning all the estate, right, title and interest of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in two general indentures of lease and in a policy of life assurance (the particulars of which lease and policy will be stated at the said meeting), if the said Assignees shall deem it for the benefit of the said Creditors to relinquish the same, or either of them; and also to assent to and authorise or to dissent from the said Assignees paying in full out of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts the wages due to their servants, or any of them; and also to assent to and authorise or dissent from the said Assignees paying the costs, charges, and expenses of proceedings adopted previous to the issuing of the said Commission with a view to arrange the affairs of the said Bankrupts; and to them the said Assignees employing an accountant to investigate and arrange the books and accounts of the said Bankrupts, and to the said Assignees making to such accountant such allowance or compensation out of the estate of the said Bankrupts as to the said Assignees shall appear fit and proper; and also to assent to and authorise or to dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law for the recovery, settlement, or protection of the estate or effects of the said Bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted that if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, a Declaration in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette; and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed; but that no Commission shall issue thereupon, unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 6th day of December 1825, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by
