

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1825.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the fifth day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said fifth day of January next, to Thursday the second day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said second day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said second day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING,

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station which, by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, has been, or may be, assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds;" And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other vessel in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), arriving in the United Kingdom, and coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council: And whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford-Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Medical Attendant or Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of the Customs in the Quarantine Service, shall go under any pretence whatever within the limits so marked out, except in case of special necessity and emergency, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant; and all vessels being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine which may be ordered to perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, shall come to an anchor within the limits of the said yellow buoys, in such place as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September, 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July last, it is directed, that all ships or vessels liable to quarantine, as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Cromarty-Bay, and that such of them as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Carsthorn; it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the performance of quarantine at Cromarty-Bay and Carsthorn, be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and His Majesty is pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Inverness, Caithness, Zetland, and Orkney, Stornaway,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within any or either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Inverkeithing-Bay; and that such ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Dumfries and Kirkcudbright,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Holy Lock, in the Frith of Clyde.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September, 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or laden any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, “gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;” and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty’s reign, cap. 2, intituled “An Act to enable His Majesty to “restrain the exportation of naval stores, and “more effectually to prevent the exportation of “salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:”

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty’s Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, December 19, 1825.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Honourable and Reverend Edward Rice, Doctor in Divinity, the place and dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Gloucester, void by the death of the Reverend Doctor John Plumtre.

The King has also been pleased to grant to the Reverend John Davison, Bachelor in Divinity, the place and dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Worcester, void by the death of the Reverend Doctor John Wingfield.

Whitehall, December 17, 1825.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Major Edward Brackenbury, His royal licence and permission, that he may, in compliance with the earnest desire expressed by His Most Faithful Majesty John the Sixth, King of Portugal, accept and wear the cross of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which that Sovereign has been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of His Most Faithful Majesty’s approbation of his distinguished services during the Peninsular war; provided, nevertheless, that His Majesty’s said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that this His Majesty’s concession and especial mark of His royal favour, together with the relative documents, be registered in the College of Arms.

Commission in the Montgomeryshire Royal Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Montgomery.

Charles Gardiner Humphreys, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 29th August 1825.

Whitehall, December 13, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Edward Jackson Riccard, of Southmolton, in the county of Devon, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

IN pursuance of an Act, passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to regulate the mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned to the said Parliament,” I do hereby give notice, that the Right Honourable John Baron Farnham has been chosen by a majority of votes to be the Peer to sit and vote on the part of Ireland in the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, in the room of Richard Earl of Donoughmore, deceased.—Dated this 17th day of December 1825.

Tho. Bourchier, Deputy Clerk of the Crown, Ireland.

INTEREST ON EXCHEQUER BILLS.

Exchequer Bill-Office, Westminster, December 20, 1825.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury having determined, that all Exchequer Bills which are now outstanding, and have not been advertised to be paid off, shall, from and after the 19th instant, bear an interest of two pence per centum per diem; the holders of all such Exchequer Bills are to take notice, that whenever the same shall be paid off, or shall, according to the conditions of the said Bills respectively, be received on account of any of the public revenues, aids, taxes, or supplies, the aforesaid rate of interest, of two pence per centum per diem, will be allowed thereon from and including this 20th day of December 1825.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for ascertaining and establishing uniformity of weights and measures, it is enacted, that, from and after the 1st of May 1825, the standard measure of capacity, as well for liquids as for dry goods not measured by heaped measure, shall be the gallon therein described, and declared to be the imperial standard gallon, being in bulk equal to 277 cubic inches, and $274 \frac{1}{1000}$ parts of a cubic inch; and after reciting that the measures by which the rates and duties of Customs or Excise have been heretofore collected, being different from the gallon measure directed by the said Act to be universally used, the alteration of such measure may, without due care had therein, greatly affect His Majesty's Revenue, and tend to the diminishing of the same, it is further enacted, that tables shall be prepared and published, under the direction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, in order that the several rates and duties of Customs and Excise may be adjusted and made payable, according to the respective quantities of the legal standards directed by the said Act to be universally used; and that from and after the said 1st day of May 1825, and the publication of such tables, the several rates and duties thereafter to be collected, shall be collected and taken according to the calculations in the tables to be prepared as aforesaid: and whereas by another Act, made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, to prolong the time of the commencement of, and to amend, the aforesaid Act, it is enacted, that the several clauses contained in the said Act, which were directed and appointed to commence and take effect from and after the 1st day of May 1825, shall commence and take effect on the 1st January 1826: and whereas by several Acts, passed in the last session of Parliament, certain duties, allowances, and drawbacks of Customs and of Excise, when payable by gauge or measure, have been imposed and granted, according to such imperial standard to commence from and after the 5th day of January 1825. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in order that the several rates and duties of Customs or of Excise, chargeable and payable by gauge or measure, may on the 1st day of January 1826, and from thence until the 6th day of January 1826, be adjusted and made payable according to the respective quantities of the legal standard aforesaid, do hereby publish and order, that during the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th days of January 1826, the several liquors, articles, and materials, which are subject to any Custom or Excise duty, allowance or drawback, payable by gauge or measure, shall be taken account of by the several Officers of the Customs or of the Excise in and throughout the United Kingdom, by and according to such legal standard as aforesaid, and that the Customs and Excise duties, allowances, and drawbacks respectively, which shall be charged, allowed, and paid upon any quantity of any such liquors, articles, or materials respectively, so taken account of shall, where no special rate has been prescribed by law, according to the new measures for the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th January 1826, be equal in amount to what the duties, allowances, or drawback thereon would have amounted to had the quantity of such liquors, articles, or materials respectively been taken account of and computed by the measures respectively now in use.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 13th day of December 1825. LIVERPOOL.
F. J. ROBINSON,
LOWTHER.

Admiralty-Office, November 21, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 23d of December next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, on Spring-Garden-Terrace, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-House, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

Weight and Measure-Offices, Guildhall, London, December 8, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that these Offices are now open to the public for the purpose of sizing and marking the new imperial standard weights and measures, which are to be used after the 1st day of January next.

It is particularly requested, that all weights and measures brought to these Offices may be in as correct a state as possible, in order that no unnecessary time may be taken in regulating the same by the standard.

Frederick Temple, Keeper of the Guildhall.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's writ of "Ad quod damnum" has issued to the Sheriff of the county of Southampton, in the words following, viz. "George the Fourth, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of the county of Southampton, greeting, we command you, that by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us or any other, if we should grant to Henry John Viscount Palmerston, his heirs and assigns for ever, Lords of the Manor of Romsey Infra, in the county of Southampton, licence to have, hold, and enjoy, on Thursday in every week, instead of Saturday, an open and public market within the town of Romsey Infra, in the said county, for buying and selling all and all manner of cattle and pigs, corn, grain, hay, and other agricultural produce, and of flesh, fish, fowl, vegetables, fruits, herbs, and other provisions of victual for mankind, hardware, and other goods, wares, and merchandises, and such like commodities usually bought and sold in markets, together with reasonable toll, and also with stallage, piccage, and all liberties, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same market belonging and heretofore immemorially received and taken by the Lord of the Manor of Romsey Infra, within the parish of Romsey Infra, in the county of Southampton aforesaid, on Saturday in every week, and therefore due and of right accustomed, and that the said market should hereafter commence at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon and end at the hour of two in the afternoon; and it it will be to the damage or prejudice of us or of any other, or to the hurt of the neighbouring markets or fairs, then to what damage or prejudice of us or of any other, or to what hurt of the aforesaid markets or fairs, and of whom and how and in what manner; and that you return the inquisition thereof distinctly and plainly made, without delay, into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.—Witness ourself at Westminster, the 7th day of December, in the sixth year of our reign.

Welfett."

And notice is hereby further given, that the Sheriff of the county aforesaid will proceed to execute the said writ, and to take the inquisition thereon, at the house of Richard Staning, called or known by the name or sign of the White Hart, in the city of Winchester, in the said county of Southampton, on Tuesday the 3d day of January next, at the hour of eleven in the forenoon, at which place and time all persons interested are required to give their attendance.—Dated this 14th day of December 1825.

Henry Holmes, Attorney for the said Henry John Viscount Palmerston.
