By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the fifth day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said fifth day of January next, to Thursday the second day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said second day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said second day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Foreign-Office, December 27, 1825.

The King has been pleased to appoint Charles Mackenzie, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul-General in Hayti, to reside at Port-au-Prince.

Whitehall, December 21, 1825.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Woodford, of Derby, in the county of Derby, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for ascertaining and establishing uniformity of weights and measures, it is enacted, that, from and after the 1st of May 1825, the standard measure of capacity, as well for liquids as for dry goods not measured by heaped measure, shall be the gallon therein described, and declared to be the imperial standard gallon, being in bulk equal to 277 cubic inches, and $274 \frac{1}{1000}$ parts of a cubic inch; and after reciting that the measures by which the rates and duties of Customs or Excise have been heretofore collected, being different from the gallon measure directed by the said Act to be universally used, the alteration of such measure may, without the care had therein, greatly affect His Majesty's Revenue, and tend to the diminishing of the same, it is further enacted, that tables shall be prepared and published, under the direction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, in order that the several rates and duties of Customs and Excise may be adjusted and made payable, according to the respective quantities of the legal standards directed by the said Act to be universally used; and that from and after the said 1st day of May 1825, and the publication of such tables, the several rates and duties thereafter to be collected, shall be collected and taken according to the calculations in the tables to be prepared as aforesaid: and whereas by another Act, made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, to prolong the time of the commencement of, and to amend, the aforesaid Act, it is enacted, that the several clauses contained in the said Act, which were directed and appointed to commence and take effect from and after the 1st day of May 1825, shall commence and take effect on the 1st January 1826; and whereas by several Acts, passed in the last session of Parliament, certain duties, allowances, and drawbacks of Customs and of Excise, when payable by gauge or measure, have been imposed and granted, according to such imperial standard to commence from and after the 5th day of January 1825. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in order that the several rates and duties of Customs or of Excise, chargeable and payable by gauge or measure, may on the 1st day of January 1826, and from thence until the 6th day of January 1826, be adjusted and made payable according to the respective quantities of the legal standard aforesaid, do hereby publish and order, that during the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th days of January 1826, the several liquors, articles, and materials, which are subject to any Custom or Excise duty, allowance or drawback, payable by gauge or measure, shall be taken account of by the several Officers of the Customs or of the Excise in and throughout the United Kingdom, by and according to such legal standard as aforesaid, and that the Customs and Excise duties, allowances, and drawbacks, respectively, which shall be charged, allowed, and paid upon any quantity of any such liquors, articles, or materials respectively, so taken account of shall, where no special rate has been prescribed by law, according to the new measures for the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th January 1826, be equal in amount to what the duties, allowances, or drawback thereon would have amounted to had the quantity of such liquors, articles, or materials respectively been taken account of and computed by the measures respectively now in use.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 13th day of December 1825.

LIVERPOOL.
F. J. ROBINSON,
LOWTHER.

Paymaster-General's Office, Department for Widows, Pensions, &c.
December 24, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the pensions to Widows of Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines are from this day forward to be issued quarterly, instead of every four months only as heretofore; claimants are, therefore, to make their affidavits on or after the 24th March, 24th June, 24th September, and 24th December in each year.

All persons entitled to pensions and allowances from this Department, and desirous of receiving the same through District Officers of the Revenue in the country, are to transmit their affidavits without delay, to this Office, under cover, to the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General (stating the service on the outside as usual), in order that the necessary measures may be taken for remitting the amount at the time of each periodical payment, which will commence about the middle of the month following the respective quarter days, and of which due notice will be given in the London Gazette.

By order of the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General,

W. P. Craufurd, Cashier.

Weight and Measure-Offices, Guildhall,
London, December 8, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that these Offices are now open to the public for the purpose of sizing and marking the new imperial standard weights and measures, which are to be used after the 1st day of January next.

It is particularly requested, that all weights and measures brought to these Offices may be in as correct a state as possible, in order that no unnecessary time may be taken in regulating the same by the standard.

Frederick Temple, Keeper of the Guildhall.

RADNORSHIRE LIEUTENANCY.

FIVE GUINEAS REWARD.

IN the year 1770, a Commission of Bankrupt issued against John Vining Heron, formerly of Portsmouth, in the County of Hants, Woollen-Draper, under which Commission Jeremiah Telling, then of Chichester, Coachmaster, John Tupper, of the same place, Coal and Timber-Merchant, Christopher Corral, of Lombard-Street, London, Laceman, and Thomas Dunn, of Ironmonger-Lane, London, Linen-Draper, were appointed Assignees, and one Mr. Mainwaring, then of Bartlett's-Buildings; Holborn, London, was the Attorney; the proceedings under the said Commission are now wanted, and the above reward will be paid to any person who can produce them to Messrs. Rhodes and Son, Solicitors, Chichester; or to Messrs. Holme, Frampton, and Loftus, New-Inn, London; or give such information as may lead to their being found.—And any information of the time when, and place were, Mr. Dunn, one of the Assignees, died, will be thankfully received, and, if required, a gratuity will be paid for the same.

In the matter of Peter Jesup, late of Margate, Tobacconist, deceased.—To all and every the person and persons claiming to be Creditors of the said Peter Jesup—

NOTICE is hereby given, that W. D. Riches, of No. 46, London-Lane, in the City of Norwich, Haberdasher, in right of Maria his wife (formerly Maria Jesup, spinster, the only surviving daughter of John Jesup, and which said Maria as the only surviving niece and heiress at law according to the custom of Gavelkind, of the said Peter Jesup, deceased) is lately become entitled by the death of her only brother Peter Jesup, the younger, late of the island of Jamaica, also deceased, to claim the real estate of the said Peter Jesup, of Margate.

All persons therefore to whom the said Peter Jesup of Margate stood indebted at the time of his decease, are requested, within one month from the date hereof, to send the particulars of their demands upon the said estate, either to Mr. Riches, Norwich, or to Mr. Procter, Fleet-Street, London, Tobacconist, or to Mr. Boys, Solicitor, Margate, and the same will be forthwith examined, and (if found to be correct) discharged, and

All persons having in their possession any deeds, papers, or writings relating to the real estate of the said late Peter Jesup of Margate, are cautioned not to part with the same to any other person or persons except than to the said W. D. Riches.—Dated this 19th day of December 1825.

JOHN BOYS, Margate, Solicitor for the said W. D. Riches and Wife.

TO be preemptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Green v. Wood, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, situate in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Wednesday, the 1st day of February next, in two distinct lots;

Certain valuable leasehold estates situate at Duncan-Terrace, and Black Horse-Yard, Islington, in the County of Middlesex, consisting of several messuages or tenements, gardens, out-offices, premises, and appurtenances.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Office in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Fenoulbet, Solicitor, 65, Hatton-Garden; and of Messrs. Green and Ashurst, Solicitors, Sambrook-Court, Basinghall-Street.

TO be sold pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several Causes of Taggart versus Hopkins, and Taggart versus Hodder, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court;

A valuable freehold estate, called Furley Farm, situate in the Parish of Netherbury, in the County of Dorset, about three miles from Bridport and Beaminster, consisting of one hundred and twenty-one acre, three roods, thirty-two perches, or thereabouts of excellent meadow, pasture, arable, coppice and wood land, together with a substantial and convenient dwelling-house, cider press-house, store cellar, dairy-rooms, good garden, farm yard, barn, stables, granary, and other outbuildings, and also a detached small farm-house with dairy rooms and other outbuildings and garden, the whole being within a ring fence.

The time and place of the sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Sabins, Solicitor, No. 9, Carmarthen-Street, Bedford-Square, London; Messrs. Nettleship and Bicknell, Solicitors, Grocer's-Hall, London; Messrs. Wainwright, Smith and Girard, Solicitors, Farnival's Inn, London; at the Bull Inn, Bridport, and at the principal Inns in Blandford.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 27th day of June 1825, made in a Cause Fordham against Ashlin, it was ordered that William Courtenay, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, should enquire and state to the Court who are the next of kin of Martha Kirkman, spinster, deceased, who formerly resided at Odsey, near Royston, in the County of Cambridge, but died on the 14th day of June 1818, at No. 2, King's-Road, Bedford-Row, in the County of Middlesex: all persons claiming to be next of kin of the said Martha Kirkman, are forthwith to come in and make out their kindred before the said Master-Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

In the Matter of HARRISON'S CHARITY.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the above matter on the 1st day of August 1825, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and ascertain what persons are interested in the said Charity, and the rents and profits of the estates and premises under the trusts of the indenture of feoffment of the 27th day of February 1638, and to enquire and state to the Court, whether there are any children of the sisters of John Harrison, (who formerly resided at Leeds, in the County of York, and died on or about the 29th day of October 1656), or any issue or descendants of such children, and whether any and which of such issue or descendants stand in need of assistance; and whereas the said John Harrison had two sisters named Edith Harrison and Grace Harrison, the former of which is supposed to have left no issue, and whereas the said Grace Harrison intermarried with Alexander Robinson, formerly of Leeds, by whom she had several children: all persons claiming to be descendants of the said Grace Harrison, (afterwards the wife of the said Alexander Robinson), or to be interested in the said Charity and the rents and profits of the said estates, are forthwith to come in and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a Cause Smith v. Baker, the Creditors of John Barnard, late of Charter-House-Hinton, in the County of Somerset, Maltster, deceased, (who died on or about the 15th day of December 1811), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come and prove their debts before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jenkins against Ellis, the Creditors of Thomas Jenkins, late of the Parish of Norton Saint Philip, in the County of Somerset, Farmer, deceased, (who died in or about the month of March 1806), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Dixon against Dawson, the Creditors of Alice Shepherd, late of Knaresborough, in the County of York, Spinster, deceased (who died in or about the month of December 1808), are, on or before the 23d day of January 1826, to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas Samuel Canadine, of Shrewsbury in the County of Salop, Victualler, did, by indenture dated the 7th day of December 1824, assign over all his personal estate and effects, as therein mentioned, unto Mr. John Gittins, of Shrewsbury aforesaid; Maltster, Mr. John Rogers, of the same place, Seedsman, and Mr. John Maddox, of the same place, Maltster, in trust for the benefit of his Creditors, who should execute the said assignment on or before the 12th day of January then next: notice is hereby given, that the above-mentioned Trustees will meet at the Cross Keys Inn, situate in the High-Street, in the town of Shrewsbury aforesaid, on Thursday, the 12th day of January next, at four o'clock in the afternoon, in order to make a dividend of the monies arising from the said Samuel Canadine's estate and effects, pursuant to the provisions of the said deed, at which time a statement of the debts and credits of the said Samuel Canadine will be laid before the creditors.

In pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty George the Fourth, chap. 17. intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupt;" notice is hereby given, that by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 19th day of December 1825, and made between William Taylor, of Royston, in the County of Lancaster, James Booth, of Royston aforesaid, and Francis Rose, of Chadderton, in the said County, Cotton-Spinners of the first part, John Kay, of Manchester, in the said County, Cotton-Dealer, and Edward Marsland, of Manchester aforesaid, Cotton-Dealer of the second part, and the several other persons whose names or firms and seals were thereunto subscribed and affixed being respectively Creditors, or Attornies, or Agents of Creditors of the said William Taylor, James Booth, and Francis Rose of the third part, the said William Taylor, James Booth, and Francis Rose, did assign all their personal estate and effects to the said John Kay and Edward Marsland, their executors, administrators and assigns, upon certain trusts therein declared for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said William Taylor, James Booth, and Francis Rose, which said indenture of assignment was executed by the said William Taylor, James Booth, and Francis Rose, on the 20th day of December instant, and by the said John Kay and Edward Marsland, on the 24th day of December instant, and the execution thereof by the said William Taylor, James Booth, Francis Rose, John Kay, and Edward Marsland respectively, is attested by Joseph Denison, Solicitor, Manchester, which assignment now lies at the Office of Messrs. Duckworth and Denison, Princess-Street, Manchester, for the signatures of the Creditors, who are hereby requested to execute the same forthwith, otherwise they will lose the benefit of the dividend.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Parker and Joseph Parker, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees chosen under the said Commission, on the 13th day of January next, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Law and Coates, Solicitors, in Piccadilly, in Manchester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees further carrying on the trade and business of the said Bankrupts for the benefit of the said estate, until such time as shall be then and there fixed, or so long as the said Assignees shall think proper, or otherwise, as shall be determined at the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Munday, late of Great Marlborough-Street, Carnaby-Market, in the County of Middlesex, Cheesemonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 17th day of January next, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Buggy, No. 32, Clerkenwell-Close, Solicitor, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing an action at law or suit in equity against a Creditor of the said Bankrupt for recovery of property of the Bankrupt's in his possession; and also as to selling or delivering up an agreement for a lease of said Bankrupt's late premises to the landlord thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Lionel Knowles, Lionel Knowles, the younger, and Stephen Hartley Knowles, all now or late of Gomersal, in the County of York, Merchants and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Tuesday the 3d day of January next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon, at the Sessions House, in Leeds, in the County of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part or parts of the real and personal estates of the said Bankrupts, or any of them, to any person or persons who shall be willing to become the purchaser or purchasers thereof by private contract; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the trade of the said Bankrupts, for the purpose of completing and executing any contracts for goods entered into by the said Bankrupts, and which have been partially executed by them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupts, or any of them, or any other person or persons, to sell and dispose of the stock in trade of the said Bankrupts, and to make him or them a reasonable compensation for his or their time and expences in so doing; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining and employing an accountant or some other proper person or persons to assist them in making up the books and accounts, and otherwise winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupts, and allowing such accountant or other person or persons a reasonable salary or allowance for his or their services.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Fairclough, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Painter and Glazier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 18th of January next, at Twelve at Noon, at the York Hotel, Williamson's-Square, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees finishing and completing two messuages or dwelling-houses belonging to the said Bankrupt, one of which is situate in Pinch-Street, and the other in Great Orford-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, now in an unfinished state, or either of them, previous to a sale thereof, and for that purpose, to the said Assignees entering into any contract or contracts with any person or persons for the completion thereof, or otherwise to the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said messuages, or either of them, in their present condition, or when finished; and also the said Bankrupt's interest in certain premises in Rochdale, in the said County, either by public auction or private contract; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to certain persons to be named at such meeting the amount of the liens they respectively may have on the title-deeds of the said house, in Great Orford-Street, and of the said Bankrupt's interest in the said premises at Rochdale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Morrison, of Clement's-Lane, London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 20th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting a sum, to be named at the said meeting, from a party, who will then be named, in full discharge of their claim upon him, under and by virtue of a certain award against the said party, and made in an action brought by the said Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making any and what compensation to the said Bankrupt for his trouble and attendance in and about the said reference; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Morland, of Dean-Street, Soho, in the County of Middlesex, Wine and Spirit-Merchant, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 20th day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, book debts, and all other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public sale or private contract, and in one or more lot or lots as the said Assignees shall think
