A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to provide for the assimilation of the currency and monies of account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after such day, after the commencement of the said Act, as shall be named and appointed in and by any Proclamation which shall be made and issued for that purpose by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council in Great Britain, and by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, the several silver and gold coins of Great Britain shall circulate and be current in Ireland at the same nominal as well as real value as in other parts of the United Kingdom, and shall be taken, paid, accepted, and computed as representing and divisible into the like number of pence, and as representing the like nominal sum of money as such coins are respectively current for and are divisible into and do represent in Great Britain, and not as current for or as representing or divisible into any greater number of pence, or as representing any greater nominal sum of money than the same are current for or are divisible into or do represent in Great Britain; that is to say, the British silver sixpence shall circulate and shall be taken, accepted, paid, and computed as current for and divisible into and representing six pence only, and not six pence and one halfpenny; the British silver shilling as twelve pence, and not as thirteen pence; the British silver half crown piece as thirty pence or two shillings and six pence, and not as thirty-two pence and one halfpenny or as two shillings and eight pence halfpenny; the British silver crown piece as sixty pence or five shillings, and not as sixty-five pence or five shillings and five pence; the British gold coin of a half sovereign as one hundred and twenty pence or ten shillings, and not as one hundred and thirty pence or ten shillings and ten pence; the British gold coin of a half guinea as one hundred and twenty-six pence or ten shillings and six pence, and not as one hundred and thirty-six pence and one halfpenny or eleven shillings and four pence halfpenny; the British gold coin of a sovereign as two hundred and forty pence or twenty shillings or one pound, and not as two hundred and sixty pence or one pound one shilling and eight pence; the British gold coin of a guinea as two hundred and fifty-two pence or one pound and one shilling, and not as two hundred and seventy-three pence or one pound two shillings and nine pence; and the British gold coin of a double sovereign as four hundred and eighty pence or forty shillings or two pounds, and not as five hundred and twenty pence or two pounds three shillings and four pence; any law, statute, usage, or custom in force in Ireland, at any time before the passing or commencement of the said Act, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, and We do hereby name and appoint, that the several silver and gold coins of Great Britain shall, from and after the fifth day of January next, circulate and be current in Ireland at the same nominal as well as real value as in other parts of the United Kingdom, and shall be taken, paid, accepted, and computed as representing and divisible into the like number of pence, and as representing the like nominal sum of money as such coins are respectively current for and are divisible into and do represent in Great Britain, and not as current for or as representing or divisible into any greater number of pence, or as representing any greater nominal sum of money than the same are current for or are divisible into or do represent in Great Britain.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION:

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the fifth day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said fifth day of January next, to Thursday the second day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said second day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said second day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station which, by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, has been, or may be, assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds:" And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other vessel in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), arriving in the United Kingdom, and coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council: And whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford-Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Medical Attendant or Superintendant of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of the Customs in the Quarantine Service, shall go under any pretence whatever within the limits so marked out, except in case of special necessity and emergency, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superin-tendant of Quarantine or his Assistant; and all vessels being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine which may be ordered to perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, shall come to an anchor within the limits of the said yellow buoys, in such place as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July last, it is directed, that all ships or vessels liable to quarantine, as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Cromarty-Bay, and that such of them as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Carsthorn; it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the performance of quarantine at Cromarty-Bay and Carsthorn, be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and His Majesty is pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Inverness,	Caitliness,
Zetland,	and
Orkney,	Stornaway,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within any or either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Inverkeithing-Bay; and that such ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Dumfries and Kirkcudbright,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Holy Lock, in the Frith of Clyde.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms and ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and His Majesty judging it necessary to prohibit the exportation of cannon, mortars, howitzers, carronades, and all carriages and other appurtenances for the use of the same, and all cannon-balls, bombs, grenades, cannister-shot, Congreve rockets, Shrapnell or other shells, and appurtenances for the use of the same, out of this kingdom, for some time, doth therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for His Majesty's Service) do, at any time during the space of six months from the date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any cannon, mortars, howitzers, carronades, and all carriages and other appurtenances for the use of the same, and all cannon-balls, bombs, grenades, cannister-shot, Congreve rockets, Shrapnell or other shells, and appurtenances for the use of the same, or ship or lade any cannon, mortars, howitzers, carronades, and all carriages and other appurtenances for the use of the same, and all cannon-balls, bombs, grenades, cannister-shot, Congreve rockets, Shrapnell or other shells, and appurtenances for the use of the same; on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by the afore-mentioned Act:

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

JOHN GOOCH D'URBAN, Recorder.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several Causes of Taggart versus Hopkins, and Taggart versus Hodder, with the approbation of Francis Paul Stratford, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Friday the 10th day of February 1826, at One o'Clock, in one lot;

A valuable freehold estate, called Farley Farm, situate in the Parish of Netherbury, in the County of Dorset, about three miles from Bridport and Beaminster, consisting of one hundred and twenty-one acres, three roods, thirty-two perches, or thereabouts of excellent meadow, pasture, arable, and coppice land, together with a substantial and convenient dwelling-house, cider press-house, store-cellar, dairy-room, good garden, farm yard, barn, stables, granary, and other outbuildings, and also a detached small farm-house with dairy-rooms and other outbuildings and garden, the whole being within a ring fence.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Sabine, Solicitor, No. 9, Carnarvon-Street, Bedford-Square, London; Messrs. Nettleship and Bicknell, Solicitors, Grocer's-Hall, London; Messrs. Wainwright, Smith, and Giraud, Solicitors, Furnival's-Inn, London; at the Bull Inn, Brompton, and at the principal Inns, in Blandford.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, (by order of the Commissioners), by Mr. Stafford, at the Angel Inn, Westgate-Street, Bath, on Friday the 10th day of February next, at One o'Clock, subject to such conditions as will be then produced:

All that building, situate on the right hand side of the lower part of Milk-Street, Bath, the ground floor being used as a Cooper's shop, and coach-house, and the large room over being used as a Carpenter's shop, for which it is well adapted.

The building nearly covers ground measuring about thirty-six feet in front, and twenty-six feet four inches in depth.

The premises were lately the property of John Baker, a Bankrupt.

To Tavern and Hotel-keepers, Waiters and others.—The Saracen's Head Inn and Hotel, Friday Street.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Adamson, on Saturday, January 21, 1826, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon before the major part of the Commissioners named and autho-riised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Richard Robinson of the Saracen's Head Inn, Friday Street, in the City of London; Tavern-keeper, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, Basinghall Street, in the City of London;

The lease of all those capital and well arranged premises, comprising the Saracen's Head Inn, Friday Street, Cheap-side, on which very recently about two thousand pounds have been expended in substantial repairs, and necessary improvements. The concern has been long established; is a house of considerable resort for travellers of the first respectability; it is in the centre of the linen, Manchester, and silk markets, and only requires assiduity and attention to make it one of the most beneficial concerns in London; it contains 34 bedrooms, making up about 40 beds; a spacious coffee room, dining and sitting rooms; well placed convenient domestic offices, extensive cellarage, &c. lucrative tap, yard, stabling and other out-offices, the stabling left off; held under the Merchant Tailors Company for an unexpired term of eighteen years and a half, at a low rent.

To be viewed till the sale, and particulars had of Messrs. Stevens and Wood, Solicitors, Little St. Thomas Apostle, Queen Street, Cheapside, on the premises, and of Mr. Adamson, 11 Billiter Square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that William Gurden, of Brackley, in the County of Northampton, Farmer, did, by indenture of assignment, bearing date the 17th day of November 1825, assign all his personal estate and effects unto Edward Bartlett, of the Borough of Buckingham, in the County of Buckingham, Banker, and Samuel Perkins, of Towcester, in the said County of Northampton, Draper, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said William Gurden, pass, and without preference or priority of payment; which said indenture of assignment, as to the execution thereof by the said William Gurden, and the said Edward Bartlett, and Samuel Perkins, is attested by John Lovell, of Towcester aforesaid, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that David Middlemiss, of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, Linen and Woollen-Draper, has, by deed of assignment, bearing date the 6th day of January instant, assigned all his estate and effects unto George Gilchrist, of the said Borough, Draper, and James Shiels, of the same Borough, Grocer, in trust, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said David Middlemiss; and that the said deed was executed by the said David Middlemiss, and also by the said George Gilchrist and James Shiels, on the said 6th day of January instant, and that the execution thereof, as well by the said David Middlemiss as by the said George Gilchrist and James Shiels, is attested by Thomas Gilchrist, of Berwick aforesaid, Attorney at Law.—Dated this 7th day of January 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in and by a certain deed, bearing date the 23d day of December in the year of our Lord 1825, made between James Officer Whitehall, of the Town of Nottingham, Plumber and Glazier, of the first part, Edmund Morris, of the said Town of Nottingham, Lace-Manufacturer, and Samuel Bartram, of Butwell, in the County of Nottingham, Lime-Burner, of the second part, and the other Creditors of the said James Officer Whitehall, executing the same, of the third part, executed by the said James Officer Whitehall, Edmund Morris, and Samuel Bartram on the day and year aforesaid, and execution thereof attested by Caractacus D'Anbigney Shilton, of the said Town of Nottingham, Attorney at Law, the said James Officer Whitehall did convey and assign unto the said Edmund Morris and Samuel Bartram, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, all his estate and effects for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said James Officer Whitehall.

ALLE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Johnson, of the City of Bristol, and Henry Hazard Johnson, late of the City of Bristol, but now of New Bond-Street, Hanover-Square, in the Parish of Saint George, in the County of Middlesex (carrying on the firm of Johnson and Son), Seal and Copper Plate Engravers and Copper-Plate Printers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 12th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Mr. W. H. Heywood, Solicitor, Union-Street, Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the and Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to consider and determine on the most advantageous manner of disposing of the said Bankrupts' household furniture; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Sir Walter Roberts, Bart., of Courtlands, in the Parish of Rawleigh in the County of Devon, and of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, Banker, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees carrying into effect a certain deed of trust bearing date on or about the 24th of August 1824, whereby the said Bankrupt released and assigned unto the Trustees therein named all his estates, freehold and leasehold, situate in the Counties of Devon, Cornwall and Kent for sale, for the purposes therein mentioned, particularly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees confirming and completing the sales of the aforesaid property effected by the said Trustees, and all other matters and things done by them in execution of the trusts thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying off and discharging the mortgages in and by the said deed recited, and all other mortgages and judgments and other charges affecting the said estate, or otherwise as they shall see fit, and to assent to, or dissent from the said Assignees paying the costs charges and expences properly incurred by the said Trustees in the execution of the said trust, and also the costs and charges of the petitioning Creditors in suing out the present and any other former Commission against the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees instituting any action or actions at law, or such other proceedings as they may think fit against the Sheriff of Devon, or other proper parties, for setting aside any judgment obtained or execution levied against the said Bankrupt's property and recovering the proceeds thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Dighton of Rochester, in the County of Kent, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 28th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being allowed, in their accounts under the said Commission, the amount paid by one of them in prosecuting an action against the said Bankrupt, and for certain payments made to the said Bankrupt, the particulars whereof will be then and there produced and stated.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Tilt, now or late of Saint Paul's Church-Yard, in the City of London, Confectioner, are desired to meet the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 2nd day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the Assignee of the said Bankrupt compromising with the acting executor and trustee of the will of the father of the said Bankrupt, in respect of any claim which the said Assignee might have upon the residuary estate and effects of the testator; and giving such release or other discharge as may be required by such executor and trustee.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Tweed, of Darby-Street, Rosemary-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Cabinet-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said estate and effects, on Wednesday the 1st day of February next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees proceeding with two certain actions of replevin, or with either of them now pending in the Court of Common Pleas, occasioned by two several distresses that were made, by different parties, for alleged arrears of rent, upon the goods and chattels of the said Bankrupt (previous to the disposal thereof by public auction in the month of June 1824,) and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising such pending suits or either of them, in such a way as they should think most advantageous and beneficial to the Creditors at large, so that the affairs of this estate may be as early as possible finally wound up, and a distribution made of the funds in hand, and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Horn, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Block and Pump-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 1st day of February next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. William Hinde, Solicitor, Marshall-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the stock in trade and other the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, for such price or prices as the said Assignee shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee giving such time for the payment of the purchase money for which the same, or any part thereof shall be sold, or taking such security for the payment thereof as he may deem advisable; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing an accountant, clerk or other person to collect and get in the outstanding debts due and owing to the said Bankrupt, and winding up his estate, and making such remuneration as he may think right; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Dodson and Richard Dodson, both of Beeston, in the County of York, Woolstaplers, Dealers and Chapman, and Copartners in trade, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on Friday, the 18th day of January instant, at the office of Messrs. Smith and Moore, Solicitors, in Trinity-Street, in Leeds, in the said County of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, together or in lots, for such price or prices and at such time and place as they shall think fit, all the real estate of the said James Dodson, and to the said Assignees giving such time or times, and accepting such security or securities for payment of the consideration money for the same respectively as they shall think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade, household goods and furniture, and other the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or any part thereof, by private contract, with any and what credit, or by public auction, as the Assignees shall think fit; also to the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they may think proper as an accountant or otherwise, to assist them in collecting the debts due to the estate, and winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupts, and paying him or them such compensation or allowance in respect thereof as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration or otherwise settling or agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
