Whitehall, January 10, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Mary Smith (an old woman, keeping a small shop in the parish of Stoke Poges, in Stoke Hundred, in the county of Buckingham) was, on the evening of Thursday the 15th day of December last, inhumanly murdered by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the same), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said parish of Stoke Poges, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Reverend Arthur Bold, Vicar of the said parish.

Paymaster-General's-Office, Department for Widows' Pensions, &c.
December 24, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons residing in Ireland, and to whom pay, pensions, and allowances for the following services have hitherto been issued in Irish currency, that all future claims, for periods commencing subsequently to this date, will be calculated in British sterling, at the same real and nominal rate as in Great Britain, and paid accordingly, viz.

Widows' Pensions.

Royal Bounty.

General Officers' Unattached Pay.

Compassionate Lists.

All arrears to 24th December 1825, will be paid as heretofore in Irish currency.

By order of the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General,

W. P. Craufurd, Cashier.

ORDNANCE SURVEY OF GREAT BRITAIN

THE Subscribers' copies of the Ordnance Map of Lincolnshire, having been all either supplied or set aside by Mr. Gardner, 163, Regent-street, the public are hereby informed, that the eight sheets of the Map of Great Britain comprised in that section, will in future be sold separately, in the same manner as the other thirty-eight sheets of the general Map, each sheet being charged according to the extent of work it contains, and having its price engraved on the north west corner; but for the convenience of those persons who may wish to possess a complete Map of Lincolnshire, the eight sheets may be obtained from Mr. Gardner, at six guineas as heretofore, till the end of January next.

By order of the Board,

W. Griffin, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, 28th December 1825.
