A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHĒREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to provide for the assimilation of the currency and monies of account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after such day, after the commencement of the said Act, as shall be named and appointed in and by any Proclamation which shall be made and issued for that purpose by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council in Great Britain, and by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, the several silver and gold coins of Great Britain shall circulate and be current in Ireland at the same nominal as well as real value as in other parts of the United Kingdom, and shall be taken, paid, accepted, and computed as representing and divisible into the like number of pence, and as representing the like nominal sum of money as such coins are respectively current for and are divisible into and do represent in Great Britain, and not as current for or as representing or divisible into any greater number of pence, or as representing any greater nominal sum of money than the same are current for or are divisible into or do represent in Great Britain; that is to say, the British silver sixpence shall circulate and shall be taken, accepted, paid, and computed as current for and divisible into and representing six pence only, and not six pence and one halfpenny; the British silver shilling as twelve pence, and not as thirteen pence; the British silver half crown piece as thirty pence or two shillings and six pence, and not as thirty-two pence and one halfpenny or as two shillings and eight pence halfpenny; the British silver crown piece as sixty pence or five shillings, and not as sixty-five pence or five shillings and five pence; the British gold coin of a half sovereign as one hundred and twenty pence or ten shillings, and not as one hundred and thirty pence or ten shillings and ten pence; the British gold coin of a half guinea as one hundred and twenty-six pence or ten shillings and six pence, and not as one hundred and thirty-six pence and one halfpenny or eleven shillings and four pence halfpenny; the British gold coin of a sovereign as two hundred and forty pence or twenty shillings or one pound, and not as two hundred and sixty pence or one pound one shilling and eight pence; the British gold coin of a guinea as two hundred and fifty-two pence or one pound and one shilling, and not as two hundred and seventy-three pence or one pound two shillings and nine pence; and the British gold coin of a double sovereign as four hundred and eighty pence or forty shillings or two pounds, and not as five hundred and twenty pence or two pounds three shillings and four pence; any law, statute, usage, or custom in force in Ireland, at any time before the passing or commencement of the said Act, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, and We do hereby name and appoint, that the several silver and gold coins of Great Britain shall, from and after the fifth day of January next, circulate and be current in Ireland at the same nominal as well as real value as in other parts of the United Kingdom, and shall be taken, paid, accepted, and computed as representing and divisible into the like number of pence, and as representing the like nominal sum of money as such coins are respectively current for and are divisible into and do represent in Great Britain, and not as current for or as representing or divisible into any greater number of pence, or as representing any greater nominal sum of money than the same are current for or are divisible into or do represent in Great Britain.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the fifth day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said fifth day of January next, to Thursday the second day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said second day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said second day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, this twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine; and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station which, by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, has been, or may be, assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds;" And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other vessel in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), arriving in the United Kingdom, and coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council: And whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford-Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Medical Attendant or Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of the Customs in the Quarantine Service, shall go under any pretence whatever within the limits so marked out, except in case of special necessity and emergency, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant; and all vessels being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine which may be ordered to perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, shall come to an anchor within the limits of the said yellow buoys, in such place as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July last, it is directed, that all ships or vessels liable to quarantine, as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Cromarty-Bay, and that such of them as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Carsthorn; it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the performance of quarantine at Cromarty-Bay and Carsthorn, be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and His Majesty is pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Inverness, Caithness, Zetland, and Orkney, Stornaway,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within any or either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Inverkeithing-Bay; and that such ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Dumfries and Kirkcudbright,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Holy Lock, in the Frith of Clyde.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of March last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms and ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and His Majesty judging it necessary to prohibit the exportation of cannon, mortars, howitzers, carronades, and all carriages and other appurtenances for the use of the same, and all cannon-balls, bombs, grenades, canister-shot, Congreve rockets, Shrapnell or other shells, and appurtenances for the use of the same, out of this kingdom, for some time, doth therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for His Majesty's Service) do, at any time during the space of six months from the date of this Order in Council, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, any cannon, mortars, howitzers, carronades, and all carriages and other appurtenances for the use of the same, and all cannon-balls, bombs, grenades, cannister-shot, Congreve rockets, Shrapnell or other shells, and appurtenances for the use of the same, or ship or lade any cannon, mortars, howitzers, carronades, and all carriages and other appurtenances for the use of the same, and all cannon-balls, bombs, grenades, cannister-shot, Congreve rockets, Shrapnell or other shells, and appurtenances for the use of the same, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by the afore-mentioned Act:

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, December 29, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army, viz.

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County,

Lancaster;

And to the Household Troops in London and its vicinity;

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Bucks, Isle of Wight,
North and South Wales;

FORAGE, viz. Oats, Hay, and Straw, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks, and Oats in Cantonments and Quarters, in the undermentioned Counties,

Cornwall, Devon;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of February next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before the 26th day of January next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of ten and four.

N. B. Samples of the bread and meal may be seen at the Office, between the hours of twelve and two.

CONTRACT FOR SLATES.

Navy-Office, January 5, 1826

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 26th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Pembroke, with Slates.

Specimens of the slates, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, January 6, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 14th of February next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Chatham, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of old Rope, Shakings, Toppets, Boltrope, Compasses, and Canvas, and various articles of Slop Clothing, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR MINERAL TAR.

Navy-Office, January 10, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 2d of February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Deptford with 60,000 Gallons of Mineral Tar.

To be delivered by or before the 30th June 1826. A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends. G. Smith.

East India-House, January 18, 1826.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 25th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, by adjournment from this day, and that the same is made special, for the purpose stated in the following letter, viz.

" To the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

" SIRS, London, December 6, 1825.

" We, the undersigned Proprietors of East India Stock, duly qualified, request that the General Court of Proprietors, appointed to be held on the 21st instant, may be made further special, to take into consideration the following proposition, which it is our intention to submit to the Court.

" That this Court, considering the great importance of a knowledge of the Hindostanee language to European Officers, destined to act with and to command the native troops in India, recommend to the Court of Directors to take into their immediate consideration the propriety of making regulations, that no Cadet shall henceforth be permitted to proceed to India, unless he shall, upon examination, be found sufficiently grounded in the rudiments of the Hindostanee language."

" We have the honour to remain your obedient humble servants,

" Joseph Hume, } Proprietors."
" John Borthwick Gilchrist, }
