Whitehall, February 7, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Friday the 3d of February instant, a barn, filled with corn, the property of Mr. Daniel Winterton, a farmer, of Thurmaston, in the county of Leicester, and guardian of the poor there; was maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said barn on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, subscribed by certain of the inhabitants of the village of Thurmaston aforesaid, is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid on conviction, on application to George Pochin, Esq. and W. Heyrick, Esq. Magistrates of the said county.

Whitehall, February 13, 1826

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about four o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 26th day of January last, two stacks of wheat, and part of a stack of barley, standing in an open field situate in the parish of Bradninch, in the county of Devon, belonging to Henry Manley, were destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to believe that the same was caused by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said parish of Bradninch, in the county of Devon, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

CONTRACT FOR IRON NAILS,

Navy-Office, January 30, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 23d of February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards, or any one or more of them, with Iron Nails.

Patterns of the nails may be seen at His Majesty's Dock-yard at Deptford, and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for each Dock-yard, for the due performance of the contract.

G. Smith.
