

A DISPATCH has also been received at the East India-House from the Government of Bengal, dated 3d October 1825; with an inclosure, of which the following is a copy :

Armistice concluded with the Burmese, September 17th 1825.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL Sir Archibald Campbell, K. C. B. and K. C. T. S. Commander-in-Chief of the British Forces in the Kingdom of Ava, Political Agent, &c. &c. having empowered Lieutenant-Colonel Tidy, C. B. Deputy Adjutant-General, and Lieutenant William Smith, of the Royal Navy, commanding the light division, to conclude an Armistice with the Burmese Army, with a view to the restoration of peace and amity between the British Government and the Government of His Majesty the King of Ava; these Officers were met on the 17th September by the Attawpon, Moonjee Maha Moola Rajah, and the Woondock Maha Seree Senkeegah, duly authorized by Sahdo Menjee Muha Mengon, first Minister of the King, when the following articles were agreed upon, signed by, and exchanged between the parties deputed as above mentioned.

FIRST.

There shall be a cessation of hostilities between the British and Burmese armies, from the date hereof to the 17th day of October next, inclusive.

SECOND.

The first Minister of the King, Sahdo Menjee Muha Mengon, being invested with full powers from His Majesty for that purpose, will meet the British Authorities (duly qualified by their Government) at the village of Nenbonzick (being half-way between the armies) on the 2d of October next, there to enter into negotiations for the re-establishment of peace between the subjects of the two countries.

THIRD.

A line of demarcation shall be drawn between the two armies, commencing at Comma, on the western bank of the Irrawaddy, passing through the village of Nenbonzick, and continuing along the road from that village to Tongho.

The respective parties engage to prevent their troops or adherents passing the said line; and further give assurance that all parties or detachments belonging to either shall be immediately recalled to their own side of the line, respectively.

It is further agreed on the part of the British Commander, that this cessation of hostilities shall be observed by the several British Armies on the frontiers of these dominions, which shall remain without making any forward movement before the 18th of October next, when the armistice shall cease and determine; the Burmese Authorities engaging that this article shall be reciprocally observed.

FOURTH.

Two Officers from each army are to meet on the 23d instant at the village of Nenbonzick, to mark off the ground for the encampment of the respective Chiefs and their followers, and to make any other arrangements which they may deem requisite, preparatory to the meeting of the said High Commissioners.

FIFTH.

The state of the King of Ava's first Minister absolutely requiring that he shall not move without the attendance of five hundred men with fire-arms, and five hundred men with swords, the British Commander will of course be attended by a corresponding number, should he deem it requisite.

Done at Meeday, the 17th day of September 1825.
