Stockholm, April 18.

CHe King of Sweden goes to morrow to Koningfor, his Leg being very well agun; He has appointed Monfieur Swarbielm to go in quality of his Envoy Extraordinary for Ergland, and ence in few days. The preparations he will part hence in few days. of the Danes make us here have a watchful Eye upon them. There has been fome diffurbance in Smaland, the Bores refuling to pay the Tax granted the King in the laft Dyet, and having fallen upon their Deputies that confented to it, but all is quiet again through the Imprilonment of eight or ten of the most tu: bulent.

Danszick, May 4. Our Polifh Letters give us an account, That they are making Preparations Mor the executing their League with the Emperor, that it's faid the Kirg of Poland will be this Summer at, the Head of 40000 Men, and that he will attack Caminiec; That Count Walleffein, the Imperial Ambailador, having finished his Negotiation, was upon his return home; That the Mof-covite Ambaifador had had feveral Conferences with the Commillioners applinted to Treat with him, but that they were not like to produce any great matter. The Turkilh Chiaus, and Count Teckeley's Minister, are still detained at Warsaw

Genoue, April 27. This week arrived here the Eriendship Captain Kingsland, from Bourdeaux, which is the only English Sip now in Port; the Mary being departed for England, and the Tuniferne for Leghorne and Tunis. Here are about 20 Sail of Dutch Merchant Ships, most of them bound for the Levant. This Senate have given Orders for the building fix new Gallies, befides the four already lanched; the new Fortifications as well here as at Savona are carried on with great diligence.

Vienna, May 2. All the General Officers are parted from hence for Hungary. The Duke of Lorrain left this place on Thursday last, having before his departure countermanded three Regiments of Horie, viz. thole of Saxe-Lawenburg, Picolomini, and Kurstein, which were deligned for the Empire, and lent them Orders to March to the General Rendezvous, which it's faid will be held the fixth of this Month near Presbourg. The Elector of Bquaria arrived last Thursday in the Evening at Laxemburg, from whence his Imperial Majefty and his Electoral Highness will part to morrow for Presbourg. Some days agone was difpatched from hence an Expreis with Letters to the Count de Caprara, the Emperor's Minister at Adrianople, giving him an account of the Alliance concluded between his Imperial Majefly and the Crown of Poland, and commanding him to return forthwith hither. Count Teckeley's Secretary, who arrived here the laft week, clufon having been accordingly communicated to comes, as we are informed, to acquaint this Court the Electoral Colledge, they, after fome delibe-

Posters himfelf of the Caffle of Panowits, and that he has not therein done any thing contrary to the Truce. Major General Schutz is Marched with a Body of four or five thousand Men towards the Frontiers of Poland, to joyn the Troops which the Chevalier Lubomursks is to bring into the Emperor's Service. We have Advice, That the Turks have formed a Camp of 20000 Men near Newbeufel, and that feven or eight I houfand Tartars are on their March to joyn them; That Count Teckeley had fent to the Baffa of Qffen, to let him know that his Troops would be in a readine's to March before the end of this Month, and that he expected his Orders how to act with them; That the Cham of Tartary had acquainted the Grand-Vizier that he was advancing with his Army towards the Polilh Frontiers, and that he defired to know from him, whether he should remain on that fide, or March for Hun. gary; and that the Grand-Signior parted from Adrianople the fitle of April for Belgrade, where it's not doubted but he is e're this arrived. From Silefs they write, That they had an account that 3000 Hungarians were Marching that way in order to the making an Incursion into that Country, which the Country People were extreamly Allarmed at.

Ratubonne, April 30. The 26th Inflant feveral Expedients were offered in the Colledge of Princes, in order to the reconciling the difference between the faid Colledge and that of the Electors: And the Auftrian Minifters did again propofe, That the differing opinions of the two Colledges fhould be fent to the Emperor. that it might be known which his Imperial Majefty did beit approve of; but the Deputies of Magdebourg. Lautern, Hildesbeim, Munifer, Paderborne, and Wirtemberg, did oppole it, as a thing of dangerous confequence to the Liberty of the States of the Empire; and the Deputy of the Elector of Brandenburg, as Prince of Magdebourg, did particularly represent to the Col-ledge the great danger that not only the Emperors Hereditary Countreys, but likewife the Empire, are in, by reason of the War with the Turks, and that therefore it was necessary to unite their whole strength against the common Enemy; That as for the Expedient of fending the Opinions of the two Colledges to the Emperor, he had already declared his dillike of it; and that the Electoral Colledge had reafon not to confent to it, feeing it was contrary to the cuftom of the Dyet, and the Liberty of the States: The other Deputies likewife declared their Opinions, and upon the whole matter it was concluded by Plurality of Voices, (there being 41 against 10) That it should be again proposed to the Electoral Colledge to fend the Opinions with the Reafons which obliged his Mafter to ration thereupon, declared, That they faw no reafon to depart from their former Conclusions; That they were flill of opinion that it was ablolutely neceffary in this conjuncture to establish a firm Peace with the Crown of France, and that they could by no means confent to what was propofed of fending their Resolutions to the Emperor, for the prejudice it might be to their antient Liberty.

Hamburg, May 4. They write from Copenhagen of the firit Inflant, That the King of Denmark intended to part from thence about the 20th for Holflein; and that the Danish Troops are marching to their general Rendezvous. From Zell we have an account, That the Sieut de Haxbaufen was trived there in quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, and that he had had his first Audience of the Duke of Zell; and that the Baion de Welling, Euvoy Extraordinary from the King of Sueden, was parted from thence on his return home.

Hamburg. May 11. The Letters from Copenhagen pive us an account, That the general Rendezvous of the King of Denmark's Troops is to be on the 26 h of this Month on the Cropperbeyde, near Slefwicke: That the King would pait from Copenhagen about the 20th, and interded to be at Giuck stadt the 24th. They work with very great diligence on the new Fortifications they are making at Gluckfindt. From Berin they write, That the Steur Bierman, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, has had feveral private Conferences with th: Elector of Brandenburg's Minillers; That there was à difcourfe that his Electoral Highne's was going to raife more Forces, and that he had ordered his Equipage to be prepared which he ufually takes with him when he gos into the Field. The Sicur Harbussen, the Darifs Envoy, continues at Zell, but we know not what fuccels he has in his Negotiation there. Our Letters from Warfaw inform us, That the King of Poland had declared his refolution of taking a Journey towards Pruffia in July; and that they have begun their new Levies in order to the forming the Army they are to have on Foot in purfuance of the Alliance Concluded between the Emperor and that Crown.

Co ogne, May?. The Bilhop of Strasbourg intends it's faid to go for Alface about the end of this month, to meet his most Christian Majesty at Strasbourg. From Francfort they write, That great Preparations are making at Wirtsbourg for the Interment of the Bilhop of Wirtsbourg and Bamberg.

Paris, May 15. The Marquils de Saignelay, who parted from hence the 24 of the last month for Marfeilles and Thoulon, is come back, and, as we are informed, has given the King an account, that his Fleet of Men of War and Gallies are failed under the command of the Marquits du Quefne. The Marquis de Villars, formerly Ambailador from this Crown in Spain, is preparing for his Embally to Denmark, from whence Monfieur de Mortangis is recalled. Several Troops are marching towards Roufillon to form the Camp which the King intends to have on that fide this Summer; it's faid there will be about 10000 Men. The Officers of Chaftean Trompette, who were imprifoned for fuffering the Marquils de Flamarin, who was lately feized on account of a Duel he was many years agone engaged in, to chape, have again obtained their liberty.
