We, the undersigned, Ann Glynn, late of Chard, in the County of Somerset, and Mary Collard, of the same place, do hereby give notice, that we have dissolved the Copartnership lately subsisting between us, as School-Mistresses, at Chard aforesaid.—Witness our hands this 1st day of March 1826.

Ann Glynn.
Mary Collard.

THE Partnership lately subsisting between George and Henry Caffin, of Chichester, in the County of Sussex, Drapers, Tailors, and Hatters, Copartners, was this day dissolved by mutual consent.—The business of a Hatter will in future be carried on by the said George Caffin, on his own separate account; and that of a Draper and Tailor by the said Henry Caffin, on his own separate account; and all debts owing to or by the said late firm will be received and paid by the said parties respectively.—Dated this 11th day of March 1826.

George Caffin.
Henry Caffin.

THE Partnership lately subsisting between the undersigned, James Bremner and Alexander Wild Thornely, at Godley, near Hyde, in the County of Chester, and at Aspall and Wigan, both in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinners and Calico-Manufacturers, under the firm of Bremner and Thornely, was, on the 20th day of February last, dissolved by mutual consent; all debts owing to and by the said Partnership will be received and paid by the said Alexander Wild Thornely, at his Mill, in Godley.—The business at Aspall and Wigan will in future be carried on by the said James Bremner there, on his own separate account; and the business at Godley will in future be there carried on by the said Alexander Wild Thornely, on his own separate account.—Dated the 13th day of March 1826.

James Bremner.
Alexander Wild Thornely.

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership lately subsisting between us, as Woollen and Linen-Drapers, of the Town of Southampton, was dissolved on the 22d day of July 1825.—Witness our hands.

Ebenezer Williams.
Timothy Smith.

N. B. All persons indebted to the above firm are to pay the amount to Mr. Williams, No. 13, French-Street, who will liquidate all claims on the late Partnership.

No. 18230.

B

THIS is to certify, that the Partnership existing between Elizabeth Tomlinson and Mary Gould, at No. 10, Rathbone-Place, Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Milliners, was this day dissolved by mutual consent.—All debts due to and owing by the said Partnership will be arranged by the said Elizabeth Tomlinson, who will continue to carry on the business at No. 157, New Bond-Street.—Dated the 24th day of December 1825.

Elizabeth Tomlinson.
Mary Gould.

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, Thomas Hodgson the elder and Thomas Hodgson the younger, carrying on business as Sugar-Refiners, in Church-Lane and Goodman's-Steile, in the County of Middlesex, under the firm of Thomas Hodgson and Son, was this day dissolved by mutual consent: As witness our hands this 14th day of March 1826.

Thomas Hodgson.
Thos. Hodgson, jun.

THE Partnership hitherto carried on by John Smith Pountney and Jacob Keyser, as Stationers, Rope and Rag-Merchants, trading under the firm of J. S. Pountney and Co. is this day dissolved by mutual consent.—All persons indebted to the said firm are requested to pay the same to J. Keyser, No. 30, College-Green, by whom the debts due from the firm will be liquidated.—Witness our hands, in Bristol, this 29th day of February 1826.

the Creditors of him, the said James Digby; and the said James Digby hath, by indenture of assignment, bearing date the said 2d day of March, and made between the said James Digby of the first part, the said William Mew and Samuel Tabor of the second part, and the several persons, Creditors of the said James Digby, who, by themselves or their respective Attorneys, have subscribed their names and affixed their seals thereto, of the third part, assigned all his personal estate and effects, for the benefit of all the Creditors of him, the said James Digby; and such deeds respectively were severally duly executed by the said James Digby, William Mew, and Samuel Tabor on the said 2d day of March, and the execution of such deeds were respectively attested by William Bathurst, of Rochford, in the said County of Essex, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by a certain Indenture of Assignment, bearing date the 14th day of January last, John Cooper Gotch, John Davis Gotch, and Thomas Henry Gotch, Bankers and Copartners, at Kettering, in the County of Northampton, have assigned their personal property unto Joseph Wright, Farmer and Grazier, Samuel Gibbon, Silk-Manufacturer, William Gibbon, Surgeon, John Keen Hall, Dissenting-Minister, and Matthew Wilson, Woolstapler, all of Kettering aforesaid, and Joseph Wallis, of Barton-Sea-grave, in the said County of Northampton, Farmer and Grazier, and Thomas Jones, of Grafton-Underwood, in the same County, Farmer and Grazier, upon trust for the benefit of all the Bank Creditors of the said John Cooper Gotch, John Davis Gotch, and Thomas Henry Gotch, as therein mentioned; and which said Indenture was duly executed on the 27th day of January last by the said John Cooper Gotch, John Davis Gotch, and Thomas Henry Gotch, and their execution thereof is witnessed by Henry Lamb, of Kettering, in the said County of Northampton, Attorney at Law, and by John Bates, of the same place, Clerk to the said John Cooper Gotch.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Sixth Year of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts," Notice is hereby given that Samuel Curry, of the Parish of Saint Philip and Jacob, in the County of Gloucester, Builder, did on the 17th day of February now last past, sign, seal, and deliver a certain Indenture of Assignment, bearing date the said 17th day of February, whereby all and singular his leasehold messuages and hereditaments (and which are situate in the Parish of Saint Philip and Jacob aforesaid) were (subject to the mortgages affecting the same) assigned to Abraham John Care, Painter and Glazier, and Stephen Fletcher, Pawnbroker, in trust for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Samuel Curry; and that the same Indenture was executed by the said Samuel Curry, Abraham John Care, and Stephen Fletcher, on the said 17th day of February, and is attested, as to the execution thereof by the said Samuel Curry, by Edward Meredith, Attorney at Law, of the Fishponds, near the City of Bristol aforesaid, and as to the execution thereof by the said Abraham John Care and Stephen Fletcher, by Charles Saverij, Attorney at Law, of the said City of Bristol.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Michael Boyd, of the Union Tavern Inn, in the City of Worcester, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday, the 10th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Union Inn, in the City of Worcester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the said leasehold premises, called the Union, and other the leasehold premises of the said Bankrupt situate in the Blockhouse, in the City of Worcester, and of his stock in trade, household goods, furniture and other his estate and effects, or any part thereof, either by public sale or by private contract, or otherwise, to any person or persons, for ready money or upon credit, with or without taking security for the same, and giving such time for the payment thereof as the said Assignee may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee allowing the Bankrupt and his family to reside in the said premises called the Union until the sale thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee carrying on the business at the Union aforesaid until the premises are sold and possession given, and to his buying a stock for the purpose; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing the Bankrupt, or such person or persons as he may think proper for any of the purposes aforesaid, as also to investigate the Bankrupt's accounts and to collect the debts due to the estate, and to allow and pay such sum of money, or make such compensation or allowance, for all and every the matters aforesaid, as the said Assignee may think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery, discovery or disclosure of the debts due to the estate; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Fountain, of the City of Norwich, Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, (trading under the firm of John Fountain and Co.) are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, at the Rampant-Horse-Inn, in the said City of Norwich, on the 8th day of April next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting and defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or to their compromising, or agreeing to compromise, any action or suit to be commenced, prosecuted, or defended as aforesaid, upon such terms and in such manner as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the real and personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, either by private contract or by public auction, and (as to the personal estate) either for ready money or on credit, and with security or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees authorising and empowering any holders of bills payable under the said Commission, and upon which any other person or persons are or may be liable to compound for the same with such other person or persons; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking all such other steps as they may consider necessary for the benefit of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Michael Meek; of Knaresbrough, in the County of York, Linnen-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are particularly requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 3d day of April next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at Abbott's Hotel, in Knaresbrough aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees according to certain propositions made them by the mortgagee of the estate of the said Bankrupt, situate in the Parish of Ainderley-Steeple, in the said County, relative to the letting of the said mortgaged property, and to the said mortgagee being permitted absolutely to take the same at a valuation thereof, or at a specific sum mentioned by him, and as to his being permitted to prove or come in as a Creditor (if any) or the sum proposed by him and the amount of his said mortgage; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John May and John Mercer, both of Deal, in the County of Kent, Money-Scriveners, Traders, and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 18th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of the said Assignees, in Queen-Street, in Deal aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, at the charge of the Bankrupt's estate, the expences which have been incurred in employing an Accountant or Accountants to assist in making up the accounts of the said Bankrupts; and to the said Assignees, at the charge of the said Bankrupts' estate, employing the same or any other Accountant, or any other person or persons they may think proper, to investigate and arrange the books of account, and the accounts of the said Bankrupts, for the information of the said Assignees and Creditors, and to collect and get in the outstanding debts and other effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and to keep the accounts of the said Assignees, and to attend at their aforesaid Office, and to the making such allowance or compensation to the said Accountant or person so employed as they may think proper; and also to authorize the said Assignees to retain the said Office, or to rent the same or any other Office for such period and upon such terms as they shall think necessary; and to authorize the said Assignees to sell and dispose of, either by public sale or private contract, or partly by public sale and partly by private contract, and at such time or times, and in such lots, parcels, way and manner, as they shall think best, all and every, or any of the freehold and leasehold messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the said Bankrupts, as well those whereof they are jointly seized or possessed, as those whereof they or either of them are or is severally seized or possessed; and also to sell and dispose of the household furniture and other household effects, farming stocks, crops, and all other effects and things whatsoever, of the said Bankrupts, belonging to them jointly, or to each or either of them severally, or any part or parts thereof, as the said Assignees may think proper, by public auction or private contract, or upon an appraisal or valuation, upon such terms and with such stipulations as they may think fit, and from time to time to buy in and afterwards re-sell the same estates, effects, and premises, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof, respectively, at such times and in such manner as they shall think fit, without being answerable or accountable for any loss or expence which may be occasioned by any such buying in or selling; and also to authorize the said Assignees to charge and include in their accounts all such disbursements and expences as have been incurred and expended since the said John May became Bankrupt, in carrying on the cultivation and management of Oxney and Martin Farms, or either of them, and of any other lands belonging to the said John May, and all other expences in any manner incident to the said farms and lands; and also to authorize the said Assignees in the meantime, and until the said farms and lands shall be disposed of, to continue to carry on the cultivation and management of the said farms and lands, and to employ such persons in and about the same, and to lay out and expend such sum or sums of money which may be required for those purposes, as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing and abandoning a certain agreement entered into by the said John May on or about the 22d of November last, for the purchase of Appleton Farm and lands, in the Parishes of Waldershare and Sutton, in Kent, and to enter into such arrangement and to make any such compromise relative to the putting an end to the said agreement, referring the same to arbitration, paying or resisting payment of the sum of £300, stipulated by the said agreement to be forfeited by the said John May in case of non-fulfilment thereof by him, or paying or resisting payment of any claim for double rent under the said agreement, as the said Assignees shall think fit; and also in the meantime, and until the other estates and premises of the said Bankrupts or either of them shall be sold, to let the same or any of them respectively, or any part thereof, for such periods and upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the risk of the said Bankrupts' estates, giving time to any person or persons who may be debtors to the Bankrupts or either of them for the payment of their respective debts, and at their discretion, forbearing for such period as they may think proper to sue such debtors respectively, without requiring or taking from them or from any person or persons, as securities, any security whatsoever; and also to authorize the said Assignees, in giving time and forbearing as aforesaid to take any personal security or securities as aforesaid from any such debtors respectively, or any person or persons on their behalf respectively, and to allow time, at the Assignees' discretion, to any persons giving such security for the payment of the monies thereby secured; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the costs and charges of the Bankrupts' estate, commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting or opposing any petition or petitions in the Court of Chancery, for the division, recovery, defence, or preservation of any part or parts of the joint and separate estates and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter relating or in any manner incident to the estates and effects, affairs and concerns, of the said Bankrupts or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the paying and allowing to the provisional Assignees of the estates and effects of the said Bankrupts such reasonable expences as may have been actually expended by them or either of them on any journies undertaken by them or either of them, on account of the estates, affairs, and concerns of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees of the said Bankrupts being allowed all reasonable expences which have been or which shall be incurred or expended by them or any or either of them upon any journies which they or any or either of them have taken or may take for the purpose of promoting the interest of the Creditors looking after, improving, recovering, or receiving any parts of the said Bankrupts' estates and effects, or upon any other business whatsoever connected with or relating to the affairs of the said Bankrupts, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the servants of the said John May, or such of them as they may think proper, all or any part of the wages which became due to them, between the date of the said commission and the times they were respectively discharged; and also to assent to or dissent from the vesting the said Assignees with discretionary powers in all matters relative to the joint and separate estates of the said Bankrupts, and for the adjustment, settlement, or beneficial arrangement of the Bankrupts' affairs, and for the winding up their estates, affairs, and concerns; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Jackson, of Watergate-Lane, near the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, and John Graham the younger, of the said City of Carlisle, Cotton Spinners, Dealers, and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 8d day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. S. and G. Saul, Solicitors, Carlisle, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee confirming any sale or sales already made, or now selling and disposing, or joining in selling and disposing of all or any part of the real estate of the said Bankrupts, or of either of them, and particularly of a close of ground cotton mill, machinery, and other premises situate in or near Watergate-Lane aforesaid, or elsewhere, in the said County of Cumberland, and either in public sale or by private contract, and at such time and in such manner as the said Assignee shall think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Habgood, the younger, of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, Silk Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 10th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees manufacturing and working up such parts of the stock in trade of the said Bankrupt, as may be thought advisable; and to their making the necessary disbursements and advances attending the same; and to their disposing of such stock, and of such silk as may remain unmanufactured, and of the furniture, fixtures, machinery, and plant of mill, and dye-house, the Bankrupt's interest in the leasehold premises at Macclesfield, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private sale, upon such credit, and taking such securities for the same upon account of the said estate, as they shall deem expedient; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an agent, accountant, or other fit person, at Macclesfield, and in London, to make up, adjust, and investigate the books, accounts, and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to receive and get in the debts due and to become due to the said estate; and to their making such accountant, agent, or other person such allowance and compensation, in respect of his services as to the said Assignees may seem just; also to empower the said Assignees to discharge out of the said Bankrupt's estate the wages due to the weavers and other servants employed by the said Bankrupt if they shall think proper as to their abandoning all interest in the said leasehold estate of the said Bankrupt, in case the same should be considered of no value; or to their compounding with or releasing the same to the mortgagees or landlords thereof, as the said Assignees may deem expedient; and also as to their conforming to, or dissenting from the deed of partition and division entered into by the Bankrupt and his father with Mr. Parker, the late Partner of the Bankrupt, and to their taking such measures and proceedings relative thereto, or to the said late Copartnership as they may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees investigating the transactions of the Bankrupt with certain persons shortly previous to his Bankruptcy, and examining the parties in relation thereto; and commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action or actions at law, or in equity, touching the same, or instituting any criminal prosecution, as the Assignees shall be advised; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing or coming to some and what terms of compromise and arrangement with such person or persons as either have or claim any lien or liens upon any part or parts of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, as the holders or depositors thereof; and also to the said Assignees paying in full out of the said Bankrupt's estate the rent, taxes, rates, and other outgoings of the Bankrupt's premises, until the disposal thereof, and also the wages of the clerks and servants; and generally to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending such other actions, suits, or proceedings at law, or in equity, as may appear to be necessary for the recovery, defence, or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to submitting to arbitration, compounding, compromising, or settling any debts, accounts, differences, dispute, or other matters relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
