BOROUGH OF HUNTINGDON.

PETITION TO DEFEND THE RIGHT OF ELECTION AS REPORTED.

Lunæ, 20^o die Martii 1826

D. VEASEY, jun. Mayor, Charles Cooch, Edward Bates, and others, Burgesses of the borough of Huntingdon, and Members of the Corporation, and as such electors of the same borough, having this day presented their petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That on the 1st day of March in the year of our Lord 1825, the Select Committee appointed by your Honourable House to try and determine the merits of a petition presented by Samuel Wells, Esq. complaining of an undue election and return for the said borough, on the 14th day of May then preceding, reported to your Honourable House, that the right of election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said borough is not (as then contended for by the said Samuel Wells) in the Commonalty or Burgesses of the said borough, being inhabitant householders paying scot and lot, but that the right of election is (as then contended for by the sitting Member, James Stuart, Esq.) in the Mayor, Aldermen, and

Burgesses of the said borough of Huntingdon, being Members of the Corporation: and your petitioners beg further to state, that the said Samuel Wells has, within the time prescribed by law, to wit, on the 7th day of February last, presented his petition to your Honourable House, whereby, after setting forth the said decision and determination of the said Select Committee, states, that he is advised and verily believes that the right of election so determined by the said Select Committee is not the ancient and true right of election for the said borough, but is contrary to law; and that he is not, therefore, satisfied with the said resolution, and is desirous of being a party to oppose such right of election, and to have the benefit of the Statute in that case made and provided; and, therefore, to prevent the judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, the said Samuel Wells humbly prays your Honourable House, that he may be admitted a party according to the form of the Statute in that case made and provided, to oppose the right of election in favour of which the said Select Committee have so reported; and that he may have such other relief in the premises as to your Honourable House shall seem meet, and the nature of the case may require: and your petitioners beg further to state, that on the said 7th day of February last, a certain other petition was presented to your Honourable House from the several persons whose names are thereunto subscribed, on behalf of themselves and others, inhabitant householders of the said borough of Huntingdon, who claim to be electors of the said borough, whereby, after setting forth the said determination and report of the said Select Committee, further state, that they are advised and verily believe that the right of election so determined by the said Select Committee is not the ancient and true right of election for the said borough, but is contrary to law; that they are not, therefore, satisfied with the said resolution, and are desirous of being admitted parties to oppose such right of election, and to have the benefit of the Statute in that case made and provided; therefore, to prevent the judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive, the said petitioners humbly pray your Honourable House, that they may be admitted parties according to the form of the Statute in that case made and provided, to oppose the right of election in favour of which the said Select Committee have so reported; and that the said petitioners may have such other relief in the premises as to your Honourable House shall seem meet, and the nature of the case may require: and your petitioners beg further to state, that they are informed and verily believe your Honourable House has made an order for taking the said petitions into consideration, on Tuesday the 11th day of April next, and being advised they humbly contend, that the right of election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said borough is in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said borough, being Members of the Corporation, according to the determination of the said Select Committee; and therefore most humbly pray your Honourable House to be admitted parties to defend and support the right of election which has been deemed valid in the judgment of the said Select Committee as aforesaid, and to oppose the right of election for which the said Samuel Wells contended before the said Select Committee, or any other right which may be attempted to be established by the said Samuel Wells, or any other of the said petitioners, and that such relief may be granted to your petitioners as the justice of the case may require:

I do hereby give notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the 11th day of April next, at three of the clock in the afternoon, to take the said petition into consideration, being the same time as the petition of Robert Wannington, James Adams, Joseph Sarll, and others, inhabitant householders of the borough of Huntingdon, also of Samuel Wells, Esq. are ordered to be taken into consideration.
