"That the severe loss of property sustained by Mr. Buckingham, in consequence of the measures of the Bengal Government, subsequently to his departure from India, having involved him in pecuniary difficulties which it could never have been within the contemplation of the public authorities to occasion, but against which no human foresight, on his part, could have provided; and these difficulties having been greatly augmented by the obstacles which prevented him from returning to Calcutta for a short period to wind up his affairs; the Proprietors of East India Stock, animated solely by a desire to relieve that Gentleman from the embarrassments in which he is now unhappily plunged, earnestly recommend to their Honourable Directors, that there be granted to Mr. Buckingham, from the funds of the Company, for the purpose of assisting him to surmount his present difficulties, the sum of five thousand pounds sterling, being not more than one eighth part of the estimated loss of actual property occasioned by the proceedings adverted to, assuring the Honourable Directors that they will meet with the cordial support of this Court, in helping to repair misfortunes and alleviate sufferings no doubt unwillingly witnessed and unintentionally inflicted."
