By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION:

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order, that certain pieces of copper money should be coined, which should be called "penny pieces," "halfpenny pieces," and "farthing pieces," every such penny piece having for the obverse impression our effigy laureated; with the inscription "Georgius IV, Dei Gratia," and the date of the year, and for the reverse impression the figure of Britannia, represented in a sitting posture, her right hand resting upon a shield, and holding in her left hand the trident, with the emblems of the United Kingdom underneath, and the inscription Britanniar: Rex Fid: Def: every such halfpenny piece having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the figure of Britannia, as described for the penny, with the same inscription and emblems; and every such farthing piece having for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the figure of Britannia, as described for the penny, with the same inscription and emblems: And whereas pieces of copper money, of the descriptions aforesaid, have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, We have, therefore, with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby declare, ordain, and command that all such pieces of copper money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said Kingdom; every such penny piece, as of the value of one penny, of like lawful money; every such halfpenny piece, as of the value of one halfpenny, of like lawful money; and every such farthing piece, as of the value of one farthing, of like lawful money: Provided that no person shall be obliged to take more of such penny pieces in any one payment than shall be of the value of one shilling, after the rate aforesaid, or take more of such halfpenny or farthing pieces in any one payment than shall be of the value of sixpence, after the rate aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the thirtieth day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to provide for the assimilation of the currency and monies of account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after such day, after the commencement of the said Act, as shall be named and appointed in and by any Proclamation which shall be made and issued for that purpose by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council in Great Britain, and by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, the several silver and gold coins of Great Britain shall circulate and be current in Ireland at the same nominal as well as real value as in other parts of the United Kingdom, and shall be taken, paid, accepted, and computed as representing and divisible into the like number of pence, and as representing the like nominal sum of money as such coins are respectively current for and are divisible into and do represent in Great Britain, and not as current for or as representing or divisible into any greater number of pence, or as representing any greater nominal sum of money than the same are current for or are divisible into or do represent in Great Britain; that is to say, the British silver sixpence shall circulate and shall be taken, accepted, paid, and computed as current for and divisible into and representing six pence only, and not six pence and one halfpenny; the British silver shilling as twelve pence, and not as thirteen pence; the British silver half crown piece as thirty pence or two shillings and six pence, and not as thirty-two pence and one halfpenny or as two shillings and eight pence halfpenny; the British silver crown piece as sixty pence or five shillings, and not as sixty-five pence or five shillings and five pence; the British gold coin of a half sovereign as one hundred and twenty pence or ten shillings, and not as one hundred and thirty pence or ten shillings and ten pence; the British gold coin of a half guinea as one hundred and twenty-six pence or ten shillings and six pence, and not as one hundred and thirty-six pence and one halfpenny or eleven shillings and four pence halfpenny; the British gold coin of a sovereign as two hundred and forty pence or twenty shillings or one pound, and not as two hundred and sixty pence or one pound one shilling and eight pence; the British gold coin of a guinea as two hundred and fifty-two pence or one pound and one shilling, and not as two hundred and seventy-three pence or one pound two shillings and nine pence; and the British gold coin of a double sovereign as four hundred and eighty pence or forty shillings or two pounds, and not as five hundred and twenty pence or two pounds three shillings and four pence; any law, statute, usage, or custom in force in Ireland, at any time before the passing or commencement of the said Act, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

We have, therefore, thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, and We do hereby name and appoint, that the several silver and gold coins of Great Britain shall, from and after the fifth day of January next, circulate and be current in Ireland at the same nominal as well as real value as in other parts of the United Kingdom, and shall be taken, paid, accepted, and computed as representing and divisible into the like number of pence, and as representing the like nominal sum of money as such coins are respectively current for and are divisible into and do represent in Great Britain, and not as current for or as representing or divisible into any greater number of pence, or as representing any greater nominal sum of money than the same are current for or are divisible into or do represent in Great Britain.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the twentieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of February 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, ch. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of January 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting Duties of Customs," it is, among other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, to order and direct, that there shall be levied and collected any additional duty, not exceeding one-fifth of the amount of any existing duty, upon all or any goods, when imported in the ships of any country which shall levy higher or other duties upon goods when imported in British ships than when imported in the national ships of such country:"

And whereas higher and other duties are levied in the ports of the United Netherlands on certain goods when imported in British ships than when imported in Netherland ships, His Majesty does therefore, under the authority of the above recited Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, that upon all goods imported into the United Kingdom in Netherland ships from and after the date of this Order, there shall be levied and collected, in addition to the existing duties otherwise payable upon the importation of such goods, a further duty, amounting to one-fifth part of such existing duties :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of January 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order, in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient) to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country, in which any duties of tonnage shall have been or shall be levied upon or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country: And it is thereby provided, that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country."

And whereas duties of tonnage are levied upon, or in respect of, British vessels entering the ports of the United Netherlands laden with salt, higher or greater than are levied and granted upon, or in respect of, the vessels of the United Netherlands aforesaid, entering the ports aforesaid, laden with salt :

A 2

And such higher tonnage duties are, in the ports aforesaid, levied upon, and in respect of, so much only of the tonnage of such British vessels as is actually employed in the carriage and importation of such salt, and are equivalent to one pound thirteen shillings and four pence for every ton of such vessels so employed :

His Majesty doth, therefore, under the authority of the above recited Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, that from and after the date of this Order, there shall be levied and charged upon, or in respect of all vessels belonging to the United Netherlands aforesaid, which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, such additional or countervailing duty of tonnage as aftermentioned, that is to say, there shall be levied upon every such Netherland vessel which shall so enter the said ports, a duty of one pound thirteen shillings and four pence upon each and every ton burthen of the said vessel, which upon her clearing out from any such port, for any port in the Kingdom of the United Netherlands, shall be actually occupied and employed in the carriage and exportation of salt, the tonnage or burthen so made subject to such additional or countervailing duty being deemed to be equivalent to the number of tons of the weight of such salt ascertained prior to the shipment thereof :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his heirs or successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever from going, under any pretence whatsoever, within the limits of any station which, by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, has been, or may be, assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds:" And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the nineteenth of July last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that all vessels not having the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, actually on board (except any ship of war, transport, or other vessel in the actual service of Government, under the command of a commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Navy), arriving in the United Kingdom, and coming from the Mediterranean; or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, and bound to the western ports of the United Kingdom, which should not be furnished with clean bills of health, should perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, subject to such provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions, pains, penalties, fines, forfeitures, and punishments, as are contained in His Majesty's said Order in Council: And whereas the limits of the quarantine station at Milford-Haven are now marked off by twelve yellow buoys to point out the same, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in him by the said Act, is pleased, and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no persons, vessels, or boats whatsoever, other than the vessels or boats belonging to the Medical Attendant or Superintendant of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other boats regularly employed under the authority of the Commissioners of the Customs in the Quarantine Service, shall go under any pretence whatever within the limits so marked out, except in case of special necessity and emergency, and with permission first had and obtained from the Superintendant of Quarantine or his Assistant; and all vessels being furnished with clean bills of health, and boats liable to quarantine which may be ordered to perform quarantine at Milford-Haven, shall come to an anchor within the limits of the said yellow buoys, in such place as shall be directed by the Superintendant of Quarantine or his Assistant:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th of September, 1825,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the nineteenth of July last, it is directed, that all ships or vessels liable to quarantine, as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Cromarty-Bay, and that such of them as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, shall perform their quarantine at Carsthorn; it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said Order in Council as relates to the performance of quarantine at Cromarty-Bay and Carsthorn, be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and His Majesty is pleased to order, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the northern ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Inverness, Caithness, Zetland, and Orkney, Stornaway,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within any or either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Inverkeithing-Bay; and that such ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the south west ports of Scotland, comprehending the ports of

Dumfries and Kirkcudbright,

or to any member, creek, or other place belonging to or within either of the above ports, shall perform their quarantine at Holy Lock, in the Frith of Clyde.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.
