Whitehall, April 10, 1826.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Honourable Charles Percy, of Guy's Cliffe, in the county of Warwick, Representative in Parliament for Newport, in Cornwall, youngest son of the Right Honourable Algernon Earl of Beverley, &c. His royal licence and authority, that he may take upon himself the surnames of Greatheed-Bertie, in addition to and before that of Percy; and that he may bear the arms of Bertie Bertie-Greatheed, late of Guy's Cliffe aforesaid, Esq. deceased, as they are now registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, quarterly and in the second quarter with those of the Noble Family of Percy, as directed by a clause contained in the last will and testament of the said Bertie Bertie-Greatheed, Esq.; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 11, 1826.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Honourable Edward-Marmaduke Stourton, of Houghton-lodge, in the county of York, and of Haslewood, in the same county, third but second surviving son of the late Right Honourable Charles-Philip Baron Stourton, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of Sir Thomas Vavasour, late of Haslewood aforesaid, Bart. deceased, take the surname of Vavasour only, and also quarter the arms of Vavasour with those of the Noble Family of Stourton; and that the said surname of Vavasour and the arms of Vavasour and Stourton, quarterly, may in like manner be borne and used by his issue; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 12, 1826.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Wroughton Montagu, of Wilcot-house, in the county of Wilts, Esq. a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, eldest son and heir of Admiral Sir George Montagu, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, by Dame Charlotte his wife, youngest daughter and one of the coheirs of George Wroughton, Esq. and sister of Susanna Wroughton, both of Wilcot-house aforesaid, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his aunt, the said Susanna Wroughton, henceforth take and upon all occasions use and subscribe the surname of Wroughton only, instead of that of

Montagu, and also bear the arms of Wroughton only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 13, 1826.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edward Jones, of Ruthin, in the county of Denbigh, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

IN obedience to an order of the Committee, appointed by the Court of Common Council to carry into execution the several Acts of Parliament made and passed for the improvement of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, in pursuance of an Act of the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of two Acts, passed in the fourteenth and seventeenth years of His said Majesty, in relation to the navigation of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, within the liberties of the city of London, and for the further improvement of the said navigation;" and also of another Act of the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of four Acts of His said Majesty for improving the navigation of the River Thames, &c." I do hereby give notice, that, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 6th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 6th day of October next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £33,900, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fiftieth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to me, my executors, administrators, or assigns (by endorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office, at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same, and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine, viz.

Nine bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 21 to 29, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, April 10, 1826.

CONTRACTS FOR SCOTCH AND NEWCASTLE COALS.

Navy-Office, April 10, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 4th of May next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards, or any one or more of them, and this Office, with Scotch and Newcastle Coals.

Distributions of the coals, and forms of the tenders, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per 100 chaldrons, for the due performance of the contracts.

G. Smith.

To the Proprietors of East India Stock.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

WE beg leave to offer you our grateful acknowledgments for the honour you have conferred on us by re-electing us into the Direction.

Trusting that the Proprietors will ever find us deserving of the confidence they have reposed in us, We have the honour to be, with great respect,

Ladies and Gentlemen,

your most obedient and
very humble servants,

John Bebb.

John Loch.

Charles Mills.

James Pattison.
