Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, MAY 6, 1826.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d
of May 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day George Earl of Pembroke was re-sworn Governor of the island of Guernsey, and the islands-thereunto belonging.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d
of May 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint Montagu Earl of Abingdon to be Lord Lieutenant of the county of Berks, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d
of May 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the tenth of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, to order, that from and after the date of the said Order, there should be charged on all French vessels which should enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom, a duty of three shillings and six pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties of Customs are now by law levied, recovered, and applied; and whereas a Convention of Commerce, between His Majesty and the Most Christian King, was signed at London, on the twenty-sixth January last, in which Convention it is stipulated, that from and after the fifth day of April last, British vessels entering into or departing from the ports of France shall not be subject to any higher tonnage or other duties than are levied on French vessels; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the fifth day of April last, the said Order of tenth March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, be, and the same is hereby revoked accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of May 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the thirtieth September last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation of Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High

Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Carlton-House, Friday, April 28, 1826.

His Excellency the Marquess de Palmella, Ambassador from His Most Faithful Majesty, had this day an audience of His Majesty to deliver his new credentials from the Government of Portugal; His Excellency was introduced by the Right Honourable George Canning, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knight, Master of the Ceremonies.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 5, 1826.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household has appointed the Reverend Doctor Frederick William Blomberg, Chaplain in Ordinary to the King, in the room of the Reverend Doctor Charles Richard Sumner, promoted.

Whitehall, May 1, 1826.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Parvott, of Macclesfield, in the county of Chester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 1, 1826.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Thursday last the 27th of April, a large body of men, consisting of from one hundred and fifty to two hundred, many of whom were armed with fire arms, feloniously assembled themselves on the sea-shore, near the entrance of Rye Harbour, in the county of Sussex, in order to be aiding and assisting in the illicit landing, running, and carrying away a cargo of uncustomed foreign spirits from a smuggling galley there; and that some seamen, belonging to His Majesty's ship Hyperion, who were stationed on the shore as sentinels, on attempting to prevent the said landing, were feloniously fired upon by the said armed men, whereby Patrick Sullivan, one of the said seamen, was killed, and another dangerously wounded;

His Majesty, for discovering and bringing to justice the persons concerned in this felony and murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one or more of the offenders so assembled (except the persons who actually fired upon the said seamen) who shall make known his or their accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEELE

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and brought to justice.—Such reward to be paid on their conviction by Mr. Bicknell, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, of Spring-garden-terrace, London.

Marshal's-Office.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, by virtue of a writ of execution granted by His Honour William Musgrave, Esq. Acting President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice of the Colony Berbee, &c. &c. &c. dated the 14th November 1825, as also by a subsequent appointment from the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, under date of 31st January 1826, have, in the suit intitled Frederick Maurenbrecher and Adriaan Krieger, as the joint and several Attorneys of Gasper Jan Westrik, representing the late firm of Westrik and Pool, of Amsterdam, plaintiffs, versus the Proprietor or Proprietors, Administrator or Administrators, Representative or Representatives, of plantation l'Esperance, the property of the late J. W. Heytmeyer, defendants, caused to be taken in execution and placed under sequestration the aforesaid coffee plantation, called l'Esperance, situate on the east bank up the River Berbee, together with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, an inventory whereof is laying at this Office for the inspection of those concerned.—Be it therefore known, that I the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell, at public execution sale, after the expiration of one year and six weeks, from the 10th February 1826, aforesaid coffee-plantation, called l'Esperance, with all its cultivations, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances thereto belonging or appertaining, in order to recover by execution sale of said estate, cum annexis, and slaves, such sum of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, dated the 20th December 1817, respecting the sale of estates by execution in this Colony.

THOMAS FULTON, a Bankrupt.

THE Creditors of the above-named Bankrupt, who intend to prove debts under this estate, are requested to furnish the particulars of their debts, with a list of the securities they hold, to Messrs. Beardon and Davies, of Corbet-Court, Gracechurch-Street, the Solicitors to this Commission, before Saturday the 13th day of May instant, that the same may be investigated and the proofs prepared.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Timothy Lawson, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 29th day of May instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. Halstead and Son, Solicitors, No. 42, Fountain-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee accepting a proposition made to him for the purchase, by private contract, of the reversionary estate and interest of the said Bankrupt, to which he is entitled in right of his wife, arising under the will of her late father, and payable upon the decease of her mother, at, for and in consideration of a sum of money which will be named at such meeting; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee disposing of such interest, either by public sale or private contract, for such other sum, and upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignee shall deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting an action at law against one of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, whose name will be mentioned at such meeting, for the recovery of a sum of money from such Creditor, to whom the same was paid by the said Bankrupt on or after the day on which the act of Bankruptcy was committed, on which the said Commission issued; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding with such Creditor for the same sum, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing for the settlement of the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit, action or proceeding for the recovery or protection of the said estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Dendney, of Grove-Place, Chamberwell, in the County of Surrey, No. 33, Saint Mary-at-Hill, in the City of London, and of Commercial Road, in the County of Middlesex, Cheese-monger, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday, the 31st day of May instant, at Nine o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees completing and finishing the building of a messuage or tenement and premises, late the estate of the Bankrupt, situate in Brunswick-Square, in the Parish of Hove, near Brighton, and paying the charges and expenses thereof by and out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, and for the purpose aforesaid to enter into any contract or contracts with any builder or other person for performing the said work, and to indemnify the said Assignees from all liability in respect thereof; and also to the selling the said hereditaments, either by public sale or private contract, at such price as the said Assignees shall think fit, and also to their allowing to the purchaser such time for payment as they shall consider proper; also to assent to or dissent from the payment, by and out of the Bankrupt's estate, of such expenses as were incurred previously to the Commission issuing, in investigating the Bankrupt's affairs by an accountant, taking estimates and inventories of his effects, and in or about the calling of meetings of his Creditors, or otherwise in relation thereto, and in further arranging the Bankrupt's accounts since his Bankruptcy; also to the said Assignees entering into any arrangement they shall think proper in respect of a marriage settlement, in which the Bankrupt claims to be interested (and which is stated to be pledged to certain persons as a security for money advanced), either by sale to such persons at an agreed price, or by relinquishment of the said interest upon stipulated terms, or otherwise, as the said Assignees shall consider most to the benefit of the Bankrupt's estate; and to the referring, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing whatsoever in relation to the Bankrupt's concerns; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Yewens, of Sherborn-Lane, Lombard-Street, in the City of London, Mine-Agent, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 29th day of May instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees selling or disposing of the household furniture, fixtures, or other effects in the late dwelling-house of the said Bankrupt, in Cumming-Street, Pentonville, and also the shares held by the said Bankrupt, in certain tin and copper-mines, in Cornwall, Wales, and elsewhere, and other personal estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, and either together or in parcels, and for such sum and sums of money, and upon such terms and conditions, and either to the said Bankrupt, or to any other person or persons, and to give such time or times for payment, and accept such security for the same, as the said Assignees may think expedient; and also to consider and determine upon the most advantageous mode of proceeding with regard to the said Bankrupt's interest in a certain agreement with two other persons for a patent-right for a new and improved method of manufacturing gas, either by selling and disposing of such interest, or by carrying on the necessary operations for bringing the said invention to maturity, and granting licenses for using the same; or otherwise to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing all right and interest in the said patent; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or other proceedings for or relating to the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or giving time for payment of any debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the salary of the said Bankrupt's clerk, and other charges incurred for the benefit of the estate; and to consider and determine upon the propriety of any acts done by the said Assignees, in and about the concerns of the Bankrupt and his estate and effects, previous to the said meeting, and if approved of to confirm and adopt the same; and generally to give the Assignees full power and authority to act in and about the management and settlement of the affairs of the said Bankrupt, or in anywise relating thereto; in such manner as they the said Assignees shall from time to time consider reasonable, just, and beneficial for the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special business.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Cook, of Huddersfield, in the County of York, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 27th day of May instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Rose and Crown Inn, in Huddersfield aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, at such price or prices, and at such time or times and places, and either for ready money or on any and what credit, and to take such security or securities for payment thereof, and in case of such sale or sales, by auction, to buy in and re-sell the same at the expense and risk of the estate of the said Bankrupt as to the said Assignees may seem most advisable; and also to empower the said Assignees to employ the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons to adjust and settle the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and collect all monies owing to him, and to allow to the said Bankrupt, or such other person or persons out of the said Bankrupt's estate, any reasonable compensation for his or their services; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any other proceeding for the recovery or protection or defence of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part or parts thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter, or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt, in such manner as shall seem to them most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Separate Creditors of Charles Brenchley, and the Joint Creditors of Stacey Wise, and the said Charles Brenchley, of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, and of Saint Mildred's Court, in the Poultry, in the City of London, Paper-Makers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Partners who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against the said Stacey Wise and Charles Brenchley, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Tuesday the 30th day of May instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing all further proceedings in the Court of King's Bench, for the purpose of setting aside the annuity of £399 5s. granted by the Bankrupt Charles Brenchley to Messrs. Scott and Tyrrell, and secured upon the freehold estates of the said Charles Brenchley, upon the following terms; the said Messrs. Scott and Tyrrell; and the Assignees of the said Mr. Tyrrell, agreeing to accept the balance of the sum of £2,000, the re-purchase money of the said annuity, at such times and in such sums as the Assignees of the said Charles Brenchley are enabled to pay the same on selling the respective sales of the said Bankrupt's estates, and to join in and concur with Mr. Brenchley's Assignees in executing all proper conveyances of the said estates to the purchasers; to refund or allow the said Charles Brenchley's Assignees in account the sum of £406 6s. 3d., (the items and particulars whereof will be submitted to the meeting) or such other sum of money as may be agreed on at the meeting; to give up all claim to the said annuity of £399 5s., since the 8th day of May 1824, the date of the said Commission of Bankrupt, and to accept in lieu thereof five pounds per cent. per annum on the balance of the said sum of £3000, as upon taking the said accounts, will appear to be due to the said Messrs. Scott and Tyrrell on the said 8th day of May 1824, and the said Mr. Scott completing forthwith his purchase of lots 5 and 6, part of the estates of the said Bankrupt, comprised in the said security; the Assignees of the said Charles Brenchley on their part relinquishing to the said Mr. Scott and the Assignees of the said Mr. Tyrrell all claim to the policy effected by Messrs. Scott and Tyrrell on the life of the said Stacey Wise, and agreeing not to disturb the payments made to the said Messrs. Scott and Tyrrell on account of the said annuity, prior to the said 8th day of May 1824, other than and except the said sum of £406 6s. 3d., or such other sum as may be agreed on at the said meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the Assignees of the said Charles Brenchley carrying into effect the above arrangement in such manner, as they may be advised, and to their being paid all the costs, charges, and expenses incurred or sustained by them in the said legal proceedings, or otherwise incidental thereto, out of the separate estate of the said Charles Brenchley; and on other special affairs.
